The Environment Through the Lens of International Courts and Tribunals Edgardo Sobenes, Sarah Mead, Benjamin Samson, 2022-06-01 This book brings together leading and emerging scholars and practitioners to present an overview of how regional international and transnational courts and tribunals are engaging with the environment With the natural world under unprecedented pressure the book highlights the challenges and opportunities presented by international dispute resolution for the protection of the environment and the further development of international environmental law Presented in three parts it addresses how individual courts and tribunals engage with environmental matters Part I how courts and tribunals are resolving key issues common to environmental litigation Part II and future opportunities and developments in the field Part III The book is an essential one stop shop for students practitioners and academics alike interested in international litigation and the protection of our global environment Edgardo Sobenes is an international lawyer and consultant in international law ESILA Sarah Mead is a lawyer specialising in international environmental and human rights law and Benjamin Samson is a researcher at the Universit Paris Nanterre and consultant in international law Ecuador Great Britain. Commercial Relations and Exports Dept, 1923 Peacemaking from Above, Peace from Below Norrin M. Ripsman, 2016-05-31 In Peacemaking from Above Peace from Below Norrin M Ripsman explains how regional rivals make peace and how outside actors can encourage regional peacemaking Through a qualitative empirical analysis of all the regional rivalries that terminated in peace treaties in the twentieth century including detailed case studies of the Franco German Egyptian Israeli and Israeli Jordanian peace settlements Ripsman concludes that efforts to encourage peacemaking that focus on changing the attitudes of the rival societies or democratizing the rival polities to enable societal input into security policy are unlikely to achieve peace Prior to a peace treaty he finds peacemaking is driven by states often against intense societal opposition for geostrategic reasons or to preserve domestic power After a formal treaty has been concluded the stability of peace depends on societal buy in through mechanisms such as bilateral economic interdependence democratization of former rivals cooperative regional institutions and transfers of population or territory Society is largely irrelevant to the first stage but is critical to the second He draws from this analysis a lesson for contemporary policy Western governments and international organizations have invested heavily in efforts to promote Israeli Palestinian and Indo Pakistani peace by promoting democratic values economic exchanges and cultural contacts between the opponents Such attempts to foster peace are likely to waste resources until such time as formal peace treaties are concluded between longtime adversaries Overseas Business Reports , 1985 Publication , 1924 Album and catalogue of British & foreign postage stamps, revised, corrected, and brought up to the present time, by dr. Sharpe,1877      Catalogue of the Birds in the British Museum ,1886      Jurisdiction and Admissibility in Investment Arbitration Filippo Fontanelli,2018-03-27 In Jurisdiction and Admissibility in Investment Arbitration Filippo Fontanelli offers an analysis of the subject for practitioners and scholars The author undertakes two converging studies first the practice of investment tribunals is surveyed to provide a representative overview of how jurisdiction and admissibility operate in arbitration proceedings Second these concepts are studied in the wider framework of public international law litigation in the attempt to solve the definitional issues or at least trace them back to their theoretical background The analysis shows that the confusion prevailing in investment arbitration is largely a legacy of the comparable confusion that affects the notions of jurisdiction and admissibility in all kinds of dispute settlement under international law Whilst the confusion is often irrelevant in the practice some instances arise where it affects the outcome of the proceedings The essay discusses some of these instances and recommends adopting a novel approach which hinges on judicial discretion as the critical element of admissibility      International Investment Law Hélène Ruiz Fabri,Edoardo Stoppioni,2022-05-19 Written by leading experts in the field this collection offers a critical and comparative analysis of the existing case law on international investment law The book makes a topical contribution to the existing literature showing most notably that 1 international investment law has a longer history than that generally considered and that this history is fundamental to understanding its development 2 international investment law is crafted today by a large number of actors These include not only investment arbitrators but also a variety of international and national courts and tribunals and 3 the literature and case law in languages other than English and from different legal cultures is essential to grasp the essence of the development of the topic This book brings together more than 40 experts from different countries and legal traditions and combines conceptual analysis and archival investigation of landmark case law to provide the reader with a fresh and innovative understanding of the breadth of international investment law      Standards of Investment Protection August Reinisch,2008 This book provides a guide to the application of substantive standards of treatment routinely included in investment treaties Leading practitioners and academics analyze the interpretation of core standards in arbitration proceedings presenting the emerging consensus shaping how they should be applied in practice      Ecuador desde el aire Jorge Anhalzer,1993      Real Estate and Urban Development in South America Claudia Murray,Eliane Monetti,Camilla Ween,2017-12-14 Real Estate and Urban Development in South America uncovers how investors are navigating South American real estate markets in commercial residential and infrastructure development A preferred location for real estate development during the colonial era in recent decades South America has been seen as high risk for global real estate investors This book explores the strengths and weaknesses of real estate markets in the region concluding that with careful implementation of the correct development strategies the region can once again take its place at the centre stage of global real estate investment Comparing the economics and market maturity of South American countries in turn the authors draw out the particular contexts in which investors and developers operate in mature and emerging markets Bridging the gap between theory and practice analysis of local development policies legislation valuation methods and taxation is supplemented with case studies from key players in the region s major cities The first full overview of real estate markets in South America this book will be an essential guide for investors policy makers academics and students with an interest in this this rapidly evolving region

'Fair and Equitable Treatment' in International Investment Law Roland Kläger,2011-06-23 This book looks at fair and equitable treatment as a key standard of international investment law The Garden ,1895 Catalogue of Birds of the Americas and the Adjacent Islands in Field Museum of Natural History Field Museum of Natural History,Carl Eduard Hellmayr,Boardman Conover,1924 Regional Analysis Carol A. Smith,2014-05-10 Regional Analysis Volume I Economic Systems explores the interconnectedness of economic and social systems as they exist and develop in territorial environmental systems This volume concentrates on developing and refining models of trade and urban evolution emphasizing evolutionary models and relationship between economic and political subsystems in the developmental process Topics include the regional approach to economic systems trade markets and urban centers in developing regions spatio economic organization in complex regional systems and economic consequences of regional system organization This publication is valuable to social and regional scientists geographers economists social anthropologists archeologists sociologists and political scientists interested in the implications of rural urban relations and regional settlement patterns

Research Handbook on Environment and Investment Law Kate Miles,2019 The Research Handbook on Environment and Investment Law examines one of the most dynamic areas of international law the interaction between international investment law and environmental law and policy The Research Handbook takes a thematic approach analysing key issues in the environment investment nexus such as freshwater resources climate biodiversity biotechnology and sustainable development It also includes sections which explore regional experiences and address practice and procedure and offers innovative approaches and critical perspectives including the interface between foreign investment and the environment with human rights gender indigenous peoples and economics
