Commentaries on International Political Economy Sidney Weintraub, 2004 Collection of essays written between 2000 and 2003 The End of the Maoist Era: Chinese Politics During the Twilight of the Cultural Revolution, 1972-1976

Frederick C Teiwes, Warren Sun, 2014-12-18 This book launches an ambitious reexamination of the elite politics behind one of the most remarkable transformations in the late twentieth century As the first part of a new interpretation of the evolution of Chinese politics during the years 1972-82 it provides a detailed study of the end of the Maoist era demonstrating Mao s continuing dominance even as his ability to control events ebbed away The tensions within the gang of four the different treatment of Zhou Enlai and Deng Xiaoping and the largely unexamined role of younger radicals are analyzed to reveal a view of the dynamic of elite politics that is at odds with accepted scholarship The authors draw upon newly available documentary sources and extensive interviews with Chinese participants and historians to develop their challenging interpretation of one of the most poorly understood periods in the history of the People s Republic of China Early

Developments in Mathematical Economics Reghinos D. Theocharis, 1983-06-18 Welfare States in Transition Gøsta Esping-Andersen, 1996-05-21 This wide ranging comparative analysis of contemporary and future changes in welfare states looks at the different trajectories of the welfare states of Europe North America the Antipodes and the emerging scenarios in Latin America East Asia and Central and Eastern Europe Leading experts on each of these regions examine the current structures of social protection consider the causes of the current welfare state crisis and highlight evolving trends for welfare policy Different welfare states are shown to manifest different forms of crisis Among the symptoms of crisis Welfare States in Transition suggests that the effect of population ageing is exaggerated and an at least equally fundamental challenge lies in the revolution of the modern family and the changing economic role of women The contributors are sceptical about the neo liberal formula for reform not only because it increases inequality but also because it does not address the growing need for an active social investment policy to ensure against entrapment in poverty or low paid jobs Economic Policy and Performance in the Arab World Paul Rivlin, 2001 An exploration of the domestic and international pressures that affect economic policy and performance in the Arab states Paul Rivlin finds that during the last decade of the 20th century these
