Essays in Ecumenical Theology I Ivana Noble, 2018-11-26 In the first volume of Essays in Ecumenical Theology Ivana Noble depicts differences between what she calls a sectarian outlook and one which engages in the search for common roots dialogical relationships and shared mission in a world that has largely become post Christian but often also post secular Drawing on both Western and Orthodox scholarship and expressing her own positions Noble sketches what ecumenical theology is how it is linked to spirituality the methods it uses how it developed during the twentieth century and the challenges it faces Specific studies deal with controversial interpretations of Jan Hus Catholic Modernism the problematic heritage of the totalitarian regimes and responses to the current humanitarian crisis Historical Dictionary of Ecumenical Christianity Ans Joachim van der Bent, 1994-12-01 This historical dictionary covers the major trends in the 20th century ecumenical movement until today It deals with developments in the realms of church unity mission and evangelism laity women in church and society and many other ecumenical subjects It also covers many programs and activities of the World Council of Churches since its inception in 1948 The longer articles survey important theological themes while short articles provide quick reference on a precise question The bibliography is not exhaustive some 50 000 titles have been published since the beginning of this century but very helpful for major bibliographical information The dictionary is particularly strong in American subjects and includes a great number of ecumenical personalities which cannot be found in other reference works This publication is not only an indispensable tool of research for university and seminary libraries but also for individual persons belonging to whatever Christian church who are interested in knowing more about reflections relations and activities in the several regions of the ecumenical world A helpful description of the most important ecumenical assemblies and conferences is provided To take stock of the past to interpret the present and to look forward into the third millennium of Christian existence are exciting and challenging enterprises Postcolonial Biblical Interpretation Jeremy Punt, 2015-01-08 In Postcolonial Biblical Interpretation Jeremy Punt reflects on the nature and value of the postcolonial hermeneutical approach as it relates to the interpretation of biblical and in particular Pauline texts Showing when a socio politically engaged reading becomes postcolonial but also what in the term postcolonial both attracts and also creates distance exegesis from a postcolonial perspective is profiled The book indicates possible avenues in how postcolonial work can be helpful theoretically to the guild of biblical scholars and to show also how it can be practiced in exegetical work done on biblical texts Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa Private Development Aid in Transition Fons van der Valden, 2002 Study with particular reference to Dutch economic assistance to India      Reframing the House Jennifer Marie Buck,2016-06-02 Reframing the House continues the conversation of global theology as the future of the church Jennifer Buck tells how women s voices from Africa Asia and Latin America serve as a critique of Evangelical theology of the church in the West Three voices are highlights here from the Majority world Mercy Oduyoye a Ghanaian feminist theologian as representative of Africa Kwok Pui lan a Chinese feminist theologian as representative of Asia and Maria Pilar Aquino a Mexican feminist theologian representative of the Americas Working with these women along with Quaker political and feminist voices this work presents a constructive global ecclesiology exploring areas such as salvation sin peacemaking and more      Weep Not for Your Children Lisa Isherwood,Rosemary Radford Ruether,2016-06-16 Violence remains endemic in today s society Religious morality and social prejudice can lead to many acts of violence going unnoticed Weep Not for Your Children presents a selection of essays that examine the ways in which religion and violence interconnect The presence of violence in the origins of cultural and religious norms is examined The essays cover a wide range of examples of violence from the Holocaust to domestic violence and from the violence created by economic systems to that created by the construction of gender itself Weep Not for Your Children challenges and provokes the reader to think beyond traditional associations of good and evil
