Enterprise and National Development Glenn Porter, Robert D. Cuff, 1973 Essays in the History of Canadian Law: In honour of R.C.B. Risk Philip Girard, Osgoode Society, 1981-01-01 The collected essays in this volume represent the highlights of legal historical scholarship in Canada today All of the essays refer back in some form to Risk s own work in the field

Essays in the History of Canadian Law George Blain Baker, Jim Phillips, 1999-12-15 This volume in the Osgoode Society's distinguished series on the history of Canadian law is a tribute to Professor R C B Risk one of the pioneers of Canadian legal history and for many years regarded as its foremost authority The fifteen original essays are by notable scholars some of whom were students of Professor Risk and represent some of the best and most original work in the area of Canadian legal history They cover a number of important topics that range from the form of the criminal trial in the eighteenth century to debates over the meaning of property in the nineteenth and to lawyer poet Tom MacInnes s views on the law of aboriginal title in the twentieth century The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy Daniel Drache, Wallace Clement, 1985-01-01 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy is a handy reference to the vast range of research and writing that political economists in Canada have completed to the date of publication The book is divided into twenty five subject bibliographies each one compiled and introduced by an expert in the field The overall range of subjects includes economic development in Canada Canada s external economic relations regional disparities and regional development social and economic classes women Native peoples politics and the Canadian state nationalism culture and political thought The book is indexed by author and includes a helpful shortlist of the staples in Canadian political economy Published in 1985 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy remains a useful reference to some of the classic literature of the discipline Canadian History: Confederation to the present Martin Brook Taylor, Doug Owram, 1994-01-01 In these two volumes which replace the Reader's Guide to Canadian History experts provide a select and critical guide to historical writing about pre and post Confederation Canada with an emphasis on the most recent scholarship From Politics to Profit Minko Sotiron, 1997-01-15 Sotiron describes how in their drive to maximize profits Cover publishers abandoned partisan politics and adopted sensationalistic journalism to build audiences for advertisers He analyses the changes newspapers underwent in both content and appearance as the number of fluff pieces increased and hard news stories decreased headlines became larger prose became simpler and illustrations and photographs became more abundant From Politics to Profit highlights the increasingly powerful role of the press barons Lord Atholstan John Ross Robertson Joseph Atkinson Walter Nichol Clifford Sifton and the Southam family Sotiron provides a case study of the first Canadian newspaper chain which formed the basis for modern mass communication empires and shows how the Southams contributed to the disappearance of independent newspapers in Canada Essays in Honour of Michael Bliss Elsbeth A. Heaman, Alison Li, Shelley McKellar, 2008-03-22 A leading public intellectual Michael Bliss has written prolifically for academic and popular audiences and taught at the University of Toronto from 1968 to 2006 Among his publications are a comprehensive history of the discovery of insulin and major biographies of Frederick Banting William Osler and Harvey Cushing The essays in this volume each written by former doctoral students of Bliss with a foreword by John Fraser and Elizabeth McCallum do honour to his influence and at the same time reflect upon the writing of history in Canada at the end of the twentieth century The opening essays discuss Bliss s career his impact on the study of history and his academic record Bliss himself contributes an autobiographical essay that strengthens our understanding of the business of scholarship teaching and writing In the second section the contributors interrogate public mythmaking in the relationship between politics and business in eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth century Canada Further sections investigate the relationship between fatherhood religion and historiography as well as topics in health and public policy A final section on Medical Science and Practice deals with subjects ranging from early endocrinology lobotomy the mechanical heart and medical biography as a genre Going beyond a collection of dedicatory essays this volume explores the wider subject of writing social and medical history in Canada in the late twentieth century

Business and Social Reform in the Thirties Alvin Finkel, 1979-01-01 This book challenges the commonly accepted view that governments enacted social reforms in the 1930s in response to demands for more equitable redistribution of wealth in a time of trouble robbing from the rich to give to the poor Alvin Finkel demonstrates conclusively that Canadian big business was overwhelmingly in favour of more state intervention during the Thirties in the economic and social sphere Private enterprise in Canada has always depended on government aid capital grants high tariffs the repression of organized labour and in the 1930s the corporations need for help was more acute than ever before They realized that the capitalist system could not survive without legislated structural reforms that would provide safeguards for private investment and profit under the guise of social welfare Examining the emergence of an unprecedented intertwining of business and government management during the Depression Business and Social Reform in the Thirties analyzes an inordinant concentration of power that remains with us today Literary History of Canada Carl F. Klinck, Alfred G. Bailey, Claude Bissell, Roy Daniells, Northrop Frye, Desmond Pacey, 1976-12-15 Hailed as a landmark in Canadian literary scholarship when it was originally published in 1965 the Literary History of Canada is now being reissued revised and enlarged in three volumes This major effort of a large group of scholars working in the field of English language Canadian literature provides a comprehensive up to date reference work It has already proven itself invaluable as a source of information on authors genres and literary trends and influences It represents a positive attempt to give a history of Canada in terms of writings which deserve attention because of significant thought form and use of language Volume 3 has been newly written for this edition of the History and covers the years from about 1960 to 1974 The contributors to this volume are Claude Bissell Desmond Pacey Lauriat Lane ir Michael S Cross Thomas A Goudge John Webster Grant John H Chapman William E Swinton Henry B Mayo Malcolm Ross Brandon Conron Clara Thomas Sheila A Egoff John Ripley William H New George Woodcock and Northrop Frye Why Did We Choose to Industrialize? Robert C.H. Sweeny, 2015-07-01 The choice to industrialize has changed the world more than any other decision in human history And yet the three prevailing explanations the technical new energy sources the Marxist new social relations and the neo liberal people became more industrious are inadequate in making sense of this fundamental change In mid nineteenth century Montreal as in other early industrializing societies change occurred as a result of the choices people made when faced with unprecedented opportunities and constraints Montreal was the first colonial city to industrialize Its overlapping French and English legal traditions mean that people s actions were exceptionally well documented for a North American city Robert Sweeny's novel reading of sources like city directories ordinance surveys monetary protests and apprenticeship contracts leads him to develop important critiques of both mainstream and progressive historiography He shows how the choice to industrialize was tied to the development of completely new ways of thinking about the world on three inter related levels how should we relate to each other to property and to nature In Montreal as in all the other early industrializing societies thought preceded action Sweeny illuminates the personal and familial decisions that tens of thousands of people made by the mid nineteenth century which already prefigured much of what industrialized Montreal would look like in 1880 At a moment when global conflict is tied to resources and climate change Sweeny shows how fundamental decision making can determine widespread social change Informed by four decades of scholarship Why Did We Choose to Industrialize Is a politically engaged argument about history a sustained reflection on sources and method in historical practice and a singular vantage point on the ideas that have shaped historical understandings of industrialization Kingdom of the Mind Peter E. Rider, 2006-04-05 Many Canadians with a Scottish background still feel the pull of their Gaelic origins During the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Scots dominated Montreal and by extension the rest of the country Their habits and attitudes influenced business education science and medicine the military and even the way Canadians imagined themselves Nation Maker Richard J. Gwyn, 2012-08-21 1 NATIONAL BESTSELLER John A Macdonald Canada's first and most important prime minister is the man who made Confederation happen who built this country over the next quarter century and who shaped what it is today From Confederation Day in 1867 where this volume picks up Macdonald finessed a reluctant union of four provinces in central and eastern Canada into a strong nation despite indifference from Britain and annexationist sentiment in the United States But it wasn t easy Gwyn paints a superb portrait of Canada and its leaders through these formative years and also delves deep to show us Macdonald the man as he marries for the second time deals with the birth of a disabled child and the assassination of his close friend Darcy McGee and wrestles with whether Riel should hang Indelibly Gwyn shows us Macdonald s love of this country and his ability to joust with forces who would have been just as happy to see the end of Canada before it had really begun creating a must read for all Canadians Argentina Australia And Canada Guido Di, D C Platt, 1985-02-18
