Entertaining Angels A Worship Anthology On Sharing Christs Hospitality:

Entertaining Angels Geoffrey Duncan, 2005 The ministry of Christ was characterised by hospitality often with the wrong kinds of people and the main focus of Christian worship is a table This new anthology reflects on the many groups of people that are often excluded and the surprises that may be in store if after all they turned out to be angels in disguise divine messengers with a word we need to hear Following Jesus teaching in Matthew 25 this anthology asks who in today's competitive world are the hungry the thirsty the stranger the naked the sick and the imprisoned It explores the opportunities we have for offering Christ's love and welcome and for bringing blessing for all Asylum-Seeking, Migration and Church

Susanna Snyder, 2016-04-15 Asylum Seeking Migration and Church addresses one of the most pressing issues confronting contemporary society How are we to engage with migrants Drawing on studies of church engagement with asylum seekers in the UK and critical immigration and refugee issues in North America Snyder presents an extended theological reflection on both the issue of asylum seeking and the fears of established populations surrounding immigration This book outlines ways in which churches are currently supporting asylum seekers encouraging closer engagement with people seen as other and more thoughtful responses to newcomers Creatively exploring biblical and theological traditions surrounding the stranger Snyder argues that as well as practising a vision of inclusive community churches would do well to engage with established population fears Trends in global migration and the dynamics of fear and hostility surrounding immigration are critically and creatively explored throughout the book Inviting more complex nuanced responses to asylum seekers and immigrants this book offers invaluable insights to those interested in Christian ethics practical theology social work mission and faith and social action as well as those working in the field of migration The Living Church, 1994

Boyer, 1995 Thirty six biblical accounts of angelic intervention and their importance for today Foreword by John Shea Angels We Have Heard Mary Lu Warstler, 2001-06 If you're looking for a fresh new approach to telling the old old story what better way to celebrate the Christmas message than to do it from the viewpoint of the angels From the promise to Abraham to its fulfillment in Bethlehem angels are a vital part of the story Angels We Have Heard is a beautiful service that combines many of the traditional elements of Christmas worship with brief dialogues between angels and a number of characters relating to the Christmas narrative Along with candlelight an optional communion celebration and many of the favorite carols we all love to sing the encounters described in the scriptures between angels and Abraham Zechariah Mary Joseph and the shepherds are paraphrased There's also a short closing exchange between an angel and a contemporary person that sheds light on the meaning of Christ's birth for our modern times This easy to use service is adaptable for any size congregation while a number of speaking parts are specified it's easy to combine parts and use just two readers allowing the participation of as many or as few as you wish There's also a convenient order of service for use in bulletin preparation And while designed for worship use the drama of the angels speaking with and to different people through the ages can be used in other settings such as youth meetings or church school Very little if any rehearsal is required this is a simple and versatile way to make the pageantry and drama of the biblical story come alive in your Christmas worship A pastor's wife Mary Lu Warstler herself became a United Methodist pastor who has served congregations in Akron and Bucyrus Ohio A graduate of the University of Akron and the Methodist Theological School in Ohio her sermons have appeared in Pulpit Digest and Clergy Journal This is Warstler's fourth CSS publication
