Violent Women in Print Clare Bielby, 2012 West Germany's terrorist period of the 1970s is still a troubling and fascinating subject for Germans not least because of the high proportion of women involved

most notoriously Ulrike Meinhof The present study examines the West German print media of the 1960s and 1970s from the right wing Bild to the left leaning Der Spiegel to explore how violent women both terrorists and others were represented in image and text This is the first book to explore print media representations of German terrorism from an explicitly gendered perspective and one of very few books in English to address

The Feminist Encyclopedia of German Literature Friederike Eigler, Susanne Kord, 1997-02-28 Today a multiplicity of feminist approaches has become an integral part of the fields of German literary and cultural studies This comprehensive reference provides a much needed synthesis of the contribution women have made to German literature and culture In entries for more than 500 topics the volume surveys literary periods epochs and genres critical approaches and theories important authors and works female stereotypes laws and historical developments literary concepts and themes and organizations and archives relevant to women and women s studies Each entry offers a concise identification of the term a discussion of its significance and a bibliography of works for further reading Today a multiplicity of feminist approaches has become an integral part of the fields of German literary and cultural studies While biographical works on women writers exist this is the first reference to synthesize the wealth of feminist scholarship in German studies While existing reference works focus exclusively on women authors this volume contains numerous topical entries and covers the role of women in German literature and culture from the Middle Ages to the present day Included are alphabetically arranged entries on more than 500 topics While some entries are provided for important women writers and other individuals the bulk of the volume provides information on literary periods epochs and genres critical approaches and theories female stereotypes laws and historical developments literary concepts and themes and organizations and archives relevant to women and women s studies Each entry includes a brief identification of the subject a discussion of feminist thought on the topic and a brief bibliography Entries are written by numerous contributors and reflect a range of critical theoretical approaches

Queering the Canon Christoph Lorey, John L. Plews, 1998 This collection of essays exposes points of queerness marginality and alterity present in the German canon and introduces further deviation from traditional German literature and culture in the form of openly lesbian and gay works It provides new queer analyses of texts by canonical authors such as Goethe Schiller Thomas and Klaus Mann Ingeborg Bachmann Christa Reinig and Elfriede Jelinek yet discusses works that have seldom received scholarly attention It also breaks the traditional limitation of Germanistik to the study of literature by including essays on aspects of German culture such as music film fine art and art history and politics and law

Thamyris Vol.1 No.1 Nanny M. W. de Vries, Jan Best, Contemporary Women's Writing in German Brigid Haines, Margaret Littler, 2004-09-23 Six key texts by contemporary women writers are read afresh by leading critics using insights from poststructuralist and new materialist feminist theory Ingeborg Bachmann Christa Wolf and Elfriede Jelinek have long been prominent in the fields of Austrian modernism GDR writing and avant garde Austrian literature The innovative work of Anne Duden Herta and Pauline Heller and Emine Sevgi Zaimar sets out to challenge dominant models of German identity Focusing on the body and suffering they explore textual representations of trauma national identity and displacement Haines and Littler s readings of these distinguished and complex female authors offer new avenues for discussion Both critics and their subjects cast a sceptical eye over existing notions of subjectivity in relation to language gender and race Together they spark controversy and comment in an increasingly important debate Who's Who in Contemporary Gay and Lesbian History Robert Aldrich, Garry Wotherspoon, 2020-10-28 First published in 2004 With subjects drawn from politics the arts and popular culture Who s Who in Contemporary Gay Lesbian History includes 500 entries from a large team of expert international contributors The geographical scope takes in the whole of the Western world Includes fascinating information about little known figures as well as cult icons from World War II to the present day
