Entretiens Avec Le Professeur Y:

Conversations with Professor Y Louis-Ferdinand Céline, 2006 So begins the imaginary interview that comprises this novel Professor Y the interviewing academic asks questions that allow C line a character in his own book the chance to rail against convention and defend his idiosyncratic methods In the course of their outrageous interplay C line comes closer to defining and justifying his poetics than in any of his other novels But this is more than just an interview As the book moves forward Professor Y reveals his real identity and the characters travel through the streets of Paris toward a bizarre climax that parodies the author the critic and most of all the establishment Entretiens avec le Professeur Y

Refiguring Les Années Noires Kathy Comfort, 2018-11-16 Through a close reading of seven literary memoirs of the Nazi Occupation of France Refiguring Les Ann es Noires Literary Representations of the Nazi Occupation shows how the memory of the period has been shaped by political and social factors An interdisciplinary study incorporating trauma theory history and folklore studies this book examines representations of the Occupation by a diverse group of writers ranging from a female Resistance fighter to one of the first French Roma novelists The methodological diversity of the volume brings to the fore each author's unique perspective and demonstrates that their works are at once historically and artistically significant Above all this book gives voice to groups whose experiences in occupied France have largely been forgotten The Post-War Experimental Novel Andrew Hodgson, 2019-10-31 Delving into how the traumatic experience of the Second World War formed or perhaps malformed the post war experimental novel this book explores how the symbolic violence of post war normalization warped societies perception of reality Andrew Hodgson explores how the novel was used by authors to attempt to communicate in such a climate building a memorial space that has been omitted from literatures and societies of the post war period Hodgson investigates this space as it is portrayed in experimental modern British and French fiction considering themes of amnesia myopia delusion and dementia Such themes are constantly referred back to and posit in narrative a motive for the very broken forms these books often take books in boxes of spare pages to be shuffled at the reader's will with holes in pages missing whole sections of the alphabet or books written and then entirely scrubbed out in smudged black ink Covering the works of B S Johnson Ann Quin Georges Perec Roland Topor Raymond Queneau and others Andrew Hodgson shows that there is method to the madness of experimental fiction and legitimizes the form as a prominent presence within a wider literary and historical movement in European and American avant garde literatures Adapted Voices Armelle Blin-Rolland, 2017-07-05 Voyage au bout de la nuit 1932 by Louis Ferdinand Celine 1894 1961 and Zazie dans le metro 1959 by Raymond Queneau 1903 1976 were two revolutionary novels in their transposition of spoken language into written language Since their publication they have been adapted into a broad range of media including illustrated novel bande dessinée film stage performance and recorded reading What happens to their striking literary voices as they are transposed into media that combine text and image sound and image or consist of sound alone In this study Armelle Blin Rolland examines adaptations sparked by these two seminal novels to understand what voice means in each medium and its importance in the process of adaptation The Cambridge Companion to the Literature of Paris Anna-Louise Milne, 2013-08-01 No city more than Paris has had such a constant and deep association with the development of literary forms and cultural ideas The idea of the city as a space of literary self consciousness started to take hold in the sixteenth century By 1620 where this volume begins the first in a long line of extraordinary works of the human imagination in which the city represented itself to itself had begun to find form in print This collection follows that process through to the present day Beginning with the salon followed by the hybrid culture of libertinage and the revolutionary hotbeds of working class districts it explores the continuities and changes between the pre modern era and the nineteenth century when Paris asserted itself as cultural capital of Europe It goes on to explore how this vision of Paris as a key capital of modernity has shaped contemporary literature Louis-Ferdinand Céline Merlin Thomas,1980 This book is neither an apology nor a defense it s a critical biography of the late French novelist The French Genealogy of The Beat Generation Vronique Lane,2017-10-19 The first critical study of the key role that modern French literature played in the formation and development of the oeuvres of the major American Beat writers in the mid 20th century Americanism, Media and the Politics of Culture in 1930s France David A. The Years of Alienation in Italy Alessandra Diazzì,Alvise Sforza Tarabochia,2019-06-11 The Years of Alienation in Italy offers an interdisciplinary overview of the socio political psychological philosophical and cultural meanings that the notion of alienation took on in Italy between the 1960s and the 1970s It addresses alienation as a social condition of estrangement caused by the capitalist system a pathological state of the mind and an ontological condition of subjectivity Contributors to the edited volume explore the pervasive influence this multifarious concept had on literature cinema architecture and photography in Italy The collection also theoretically reassesses the notion of alienation from a novel perspective employing Italy as a paradigmatic case study in its pioneering role in the revolution of mental health care and factory work during these two decades The Unspeakable Amy L. Hubbell,Névine El Nossery,2013-10-03 The Unspeakable Representations of Trauma in Francophone Literature and Art is situated at the crossroads of language culture and genre it contends that suffering transcends time space and cultural specificity Even when extreme trauma is silenced it often still emerges in surprising and painful ways This volume draws together examples from throughout the Francophone world including countries such as Algeria Morocco Lebanon Rwanda Cameroon Congo C te d Ivoire Haiti New Caledonia Quebec and France and across genres such as autobiography poetry theater film fiction and visual art to provide a cohesive analysis of the representation of trauma In addition to the survivors expression of trauma the witnesses and receivers are also taken into account By gathering studies that explore diverse bodily and psychological traumas through tropes such as repetition silence and working through it tackles ethical responsibility and interrogates how expressive forms evoke a terrible reality through the use of imagination The aim of this volume is not to question if suffering is representable but rather to examine to what extent art surpasses its own limitations and goes straight to its essence The Unspeakable hopes to provide models for the cultural translation of trauma because when represented and released from silence and isolation trauma can give way to the arduous process of healing

Passage through Hell David L. Pike, 2018-09-05 Taking the culturally resonant motif of the descent to the underworld as his guiding thread David L Pike traces the interplay between myth and history in medieval and modernist literature Passage through Hell suggests new approaches to the practice of comparative literature and a possible escape from the current morass of competing critical schools and ideologies Pike s readings of Louis Ferdinand C line and Walter Benjamin reveal the tensions at work in the modern appropriation of structures derived from ancient and medieval descents His book shows how these structures were redefined in modernism and persist in contemporary critical practice In order to recover the historical corpus of modernism he asserts it is necessary to acknowledge the attraction that medieval forms and motifs held for modernist literature and theory By pairing the writings of the postwar German dramatist and novelist Peter Weiss with Dante s Commedia and Christine de Pizan with Virginia Woolf Pike argues for a new level of complexity in the relation between medieval and modern poetics Pike s supple and persuasive reading of the Commedia resituates that text within the contradictions of medieval tradition He contends that the Dantean allegory of conversion altered to suit the exigencies of modernism maintains its hold over current literature and theory The postwar writers Pike treats Weiss Seamus Heaney and Derek Walcott exemplify alternate strategies for negotiating the legacy of modernism The passage through hell emerges as a way of disentangling images of the past from their interpretation in the present fantaisiste onirique et trangement discipliné d'énergies créatrices reconnues aujourd'hui comme tant exceptionnelles. Révisées, grossies d'formelles images hallucinées et en même temps soigneusement structurées, style d'bridé et pourtant sophistiqué, une thématique de la détresse qui accable et de l'ironie qui redynamise l'œuvre de Céline apocalyptique et bouffonne déploie une esthétique bien des gardes prophétiquement postmoderne même si la psychologie et l'éthique qui la sous-tendent gardent un caractère implicitement visionnaire hanté d'absolu. L'analyse de Jean-Louis Cornille, tonnamment riche, perspicace, nuancée réussit à pénétrer dans l'intimité de cet infiniment complexe réseau référentiel et intertextuel qui est l'univers imaginaire de Céline et donnant sa pleine valeur la très pertinente production des dernières années offre ce grand créateur la riche exploration critique, la fois intersubjective et objective qu'il mérite.
