From Environmental to Comprehensive Security Arthur H. Westing, 2013-07-01 This work presents the evolution of the traditional concept of national security as military security to additionally embrace environmental security and then necessarily also social societal security thence to be termed comprehensive human security It accomplishes this primarily by presenting 11 of the author's own benchmark papers published between 1983 and 2010 additionally providing bibliographic citations to a further 36 of the author's related publications during that period The work stresses the importance of transfrontier regional cooperation and also recognizes global overpopulation as a key impediment to achieving comprehensive human security

Peace Studies in the Chinese Century Alan Hunter, 2017-05-15 The rise of China is probably the most significant shift in the international power structure this generation China's leaders have so far committed themselves to a peaceful rising but serious tensions are inevitable in such a rapid transformation Dialogue on peace and conflict issues at this juncture is invaluable This volume focuses on developments in peace research in a number of key countries and in particular introduces for the first time in English the perspectives of a number of Chinese scholars who have started to engage with peace studies agendas Comparisons are drawn from the UK USA Mexico Japan and South Africa to provide a better understanding of the debates on a global level and the discussion among different countries Some of the outstanding peace researchers who contribute to the volume include Andrew Rigby Johan Galtung who is generally considered to have founded the discipline in its current form and

Ursula Oswald The volume is a valuable and unique contribution to the contemporary peace research agenda and will appeal to an interdisciplinary readership in peace studies sociology politics international relations religious studies philosophy and Asian studies      Social Mobilization Beyond Ethnicity Chiara Milan, 2019-11-20 This book offers an in depth investigation of the emergence and spread of social mobilizations that transcend ethnicity in societies violently divided along ethno national lines Using Bosnia Herzegovina as a case study the book explores episodes of mobilization which have superseded ethno nationalist cleavages Bosnia Herzegovina emerged from the 1992 95 war brutally impoverished and deeply ethnically divided representing a critical and strategic case for the examination and understanding of the dynamics of mobilization in such divided societies Despite difficult circumstances for civic based collective action social mobilizations in the country have grown in size number and intensity in recent years Marked by citizen demand for accountable governance responsive urbanism and access to basic human rights these protests have been driven by economic social and political problems which cut across religious and ethnic divides Examining the variation in spatial and social scale of contention the book investigates movements formation their organizational structures and networking strategies and advances research on divided societies and social movements This volume will be of interest to scholars and researchers of Southeastern Europe and those examining political dissent social movements and mobilization in divided societies as well as practitioners in civil society grassroots groups and political activists      Environmental Change and Security Project Report , 1997

Responding to Environmental Conflicts: Implications for Theory and Practice Eileen Petzold-Bradley, Alexander Carius, Árpád Vincze, 2012-12-06 A comprehensive tour d horizon of the debate on the environment and security focusing on the various policy options for building peace and preventing environmental conflict Experts from the areas survey the key environmental challenges in Eastern and Central European states and those of the former Soviet Union extending the debate to such regions as the Balkans the Black Sea and Central Europe This is the first time such extensive case study research has been reported for these regions Both practical and theoretical approaches to the debate are presented within a multi disciplinary framework the contributors ranging from academic experts involved with peace and conflict research to actual policy makers active in the fields of environmental and security policy Readership Experts already working in the relevant disciplines both academic and governmental as well as those seeking an introduction to the various policy fields A graduate level study text excellent survey for policy makers and an academic contribution to ongoing studies      Dichotomy of Power Richard A. Matthew, 2002-01-01 Dichotomy of Power studies the future of the nation state as the world s basic political organization and the foundation of modern international relations Richard A Matthew argues that this Hegelian construct once championed as the rational and preferred basis for global order developed through a series of dichotomies the cut and thrust of realism mediated by idealism coercive power politics balanced by a constitutive mode of power and a collaborative search for a just society The book analyzes the conceptualization of the nation state in the Western tradition of political thought from the classical bifurcation of politics to the postmodern debate about the nation state as the ideal mechanism for organizing power in a new global age

Conflicts over Marine and Coastal Common Resources

Karen A. Alexander, 2019-07-09 This book explores the types of conflicts that occur over marine and coastal resources the underlying causes and attempts to prevent them Despite the emergence of various marine and coastal governance approaches to address the effects of human activities within the marine environment conflict continues In this book the author outlines the reasons conflicts can and do arise in the marine and coastal environment Drawing on case studies from both the northern and southern hemispheres the book takes a broad view of how we interact with our environment of how and why conflict is perpetuated as a political and cultural phenomenon and how this varies or remains constant across space and place The case studies explore not only the underlying perceptions and needs of those involved in marine and coastal conflict and the types of conflicts that arise in oceanic and coastal areas but also the underpinning reasons for these conflicts Marine and coastal resource conflicts have the potential to derail conservation efforts and blue growth policies as well as the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals Thus it is imperative we understand the drivers and exacerbating factors of marine and coastal conflict Arguing that there is an urgent need for renewed thinking and focus on conflict prevention the author develops a theory of marine and coastal conflict which allows us to understand those factors and the means to help prevent such conflicts arising in the first place This book will be of interest to students and researchers of coastal and marine science and environmental management as well as those working in the field of marine resource management including coastal zone managers and fisheries managers     Johan Galtung Johan Galtung, Dietrich Fischer, 2013-05-29 This is the first ever anthology of key articles by Johan Galtung widely regarded as the founder of the academic discipline of peace studies It covers such concepts as direct structural and cultural violence theories of conflict development civilization and peace peaceful conflict transformation peace education mediation reconciliation a life sustaining economy macro history deep culture and deep structure and social science methodology Galtung has contributed original research concepts and theories to more than 20 social science disciplines including sociology international relations and future studies and has also applied his new insights in practice The book is a valuable resource for researchers and practitioners and can serve as a supplemental textbook for graduate and upper undergraduate courses in peace studies and related fields     Integrated Peacebuilding Craig Zelizer, 2018-04-19 Integrated Peacebuilding addresses the importance of weaving peacebuilding methods into diverse sectors including development humanitarian assistance gender business media health and the environment areas where such work is needed the most Incorporating peacebuilding approaches in these fields is critical for transforming today's protracted conflicts into tomorrow's sustainable peace Covering both theory and practice Dr Zelizer and his team of leading academics and practitioners present original essays discussing the infrastructure of the peacebuilding field outlining key actors donors and underlying motivations as well as the ethical dilemmas created by modern conflict Exploring both the challenges and lessons to be found in this emerging field Integrated Peacebuilding is perfect for courses on peacebuilding conflict resolution international development and related fields     GLOBAL SECURITY AND INTERNATIONAL POLITICAL ECONOMY - Volume IV P. Bilgin, P. D. Williams, M. Sekiguchi, J. K. Galbraith, S. T. Inayatullah, J. Wiener, R. A. Schrire, I. L. Murphy, 2010-09-19 Global Security and International Political Economy is a component of Encyclopedia of Social Sciences and Humanities in the global Encyclopedia of Life Support Systems EOLSS which is an integrated compendium of twenty one Encyclopedias This 6 volume set contains several chapters each of size 5000 30000 words with perspectives issues of great relevance to our world such as Global Security Global Security and the International System The Regional Dimension of Global Security The National Dimension Of Global Security The Societal Dimension Of Global Security The Human Security Agenda In World Politics History Of Empires And Conflicts The Myth Of The Clash Of Civilizations In Dialogical Historical Context Causes And Prevention Of Armed Conflict International Development Policies And Global Security Environment And Global Security Political Economy Of International Security Political Issues In Human Resource Development Globalization And The Consumer Society These volumes are aimed at the following five major target audiences University and College students Educators Professional practitioners Research personnel and Policy analysts managers and decision makers and NGOs     The Role of Regional Organizations in the Context of Climate Change Michael H. Glantz, 2013-06-29 The past two decades have seen a remarkable broadening of interest in global warming from a research concern on the part of a limited number of scientists to a political problem on a worldwide scale The nature of this transformation would itself be a fruitful study for a mixed team of social scientists and natural scientists It would be valuable to assess the differing nature of the staging posts along this road the First World Climate Conference in 1979 which was a meeting of scientists talking to scientists the Villach Assessment of 1985 which was a meeting of scientists whose report was given attention by the policy advisers of a number of governments the Second World Climate Conference of 1990 which consisted of a scientific meeting followed by a Ministerial Meeting and the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change of 1992 signed by 158 countries at the UN Conference on Environment and Development in June 1992 The present publication is a welcome contribution of the followup to UNCED By focusing on a specific problem it avoids the pitfall of undue generalization and provides the basis for fruitful discussion between natural scientists social scientists and policymakers To choose as the area of concentration a particular scale also helped to produce meaningful discussion likely to lead to action Global Resources and International Conflict Stockholm International Peace Research Institute,1986 This study evaluates the influence of geographical distribution of natural resources and differential population growth on strategic and military policymaking and presents an expanded environmentally based view of international security China's Challenges to Human Security Guoguang Wu,2012-11-27 This book looks at human security in China s foreign relations It discusses the concept and theory of human security and their implications for China The book goes on to analyse environmental security issues including climate change and water resources as well as looking at issues from an energy consumption perspective Significant human security issues are then focussed on including food safety pandemic disease control migration and the human rights implications of China s overseas investment Maritime Security of India Dr. Suresh R,2014-02-01 This book focuses on various aspects of maritime security of India Starting with the changing dimensions of national security it addresses the issues such as non traditional threats to security the threat posed by non state actors the causes of insecurity and also the imperatives of tackling the human security challenges The need for a comprehensive change in India s security policy is well exposed and certain policy prescriptions are also given The oceans are generally meant for better inaction among nations especially in the era of accelerated pace of globalization With regard to the coastal security of India the role of coastal community is significant The needs for inculcating awareness among the coastal community on coastal security matters as well as infrastructure development along the coastal area are also emphasized It is very important to look into the basic problems of coastal people as they face many human security challenges When we look into the coastal security a convergence of the national security concerns and human security concerns is visible The overall development of the coastal area would lead to better human security and better human security would result in enlisting the support of the coastal community to ensure national security programme especially the coastal security In short coastal security is not only about protecting the coastal terrain and territorial waters from direct attacks by the state actors or non state actors but also safeguarding the interests of all stake holders Rethinking National Security Frances Scott,1990
