(Re)Constructing Memory: Textbooks, Identity, Nation, and State James H. Williams,Wendy D.

Bokhorst-Heng,2016-07-08 This book engages readers in thirteen conversations presented by authors from around the world regarding the role that textbooks play in helping readers imagine membership in the nation Authors voices come from a variety of contexts some historical some contemporary some providing analyses over time But they all consider the changing portrayal of diversity belonging and exclusion in multiethnic and diverse societies where silenced invisible marginalized members have struggled to make their voices heard and to have their identities incorporated into the national narrative The authors discuss portrayals of past exclusions around religion ethnicity sexual orientation as they look at the shifting boundaries of insider and outsider This book is thus about who we are not only demographically but also in terms of the past especially how and whether we teach discredited pasts through textbooks The concluding chapters provides ways forward in thinking about what can be done to promote curricula that are more inclusive critical and positively bonding in increasingly larger and more inclusive contexts China's Environmental Crisis: An Enquiry into the Limits of National Development Vaclav Smil,2016-09-16 In 1982 Vaclav Smil turned upside down traditional perceptions of China as a green paradise in The Bad Earth a disturbing book This new volume drawn on a much broader canvas updates and expands on the basic arguments and perceptions of The Bad Earth This book is not a systematic litany of what went wrong and how much but rather an inquiry into the fundamental factors needs prospects and limits of modern Chinese society all seen through the critical environmental constraints and impacts Asylum, Welfare and the Cosmopolitan Ideal Lydia Morris,2010-04-05 Asylum Welfare and the Cosmopolitan Ideal A Sociology of Rights puts forward the argument that rights must be understood as part of a social process a terrain for strategies of inclusion and exclusion but also of contestation and negotiation Engaging debate about how cosmopolitan principles and practices may be transforming national sovereignty Lydia Morris explores this premise through a case study of legal activism civil society mobilisation and judicial decision making The book documents government attempts to use destitution as a deterrent to control asylum numbers and examines a series of legal challenges to this policy spanning a period both before and after the Human Rights Act Lydia Morris shows how human rights can be used as a tool for radical change and in so doing proposes a multi layered model for understanding rights This incorporates political strategy public policy civil society mobilisation judicial decision making and their public impact and advances a dynamic understanding of rights as part of the recurrent encounter between principles and politics Rights are therefore seen as both a social product and a social force Candid thoughts; or, An enquiry into the causes of national discontents and misfortunes since the commencement of the present reign Candid thoughts,1781 Older Citizens and End-of-Life Care Malcolm Payne,2017-02-22 Older people are like younger people citizens in the communities of the nations in which they live This book sees ageing as a life journey that incorporates a process of citizenizing in which people build their identity as part of their family and community But the social experience of illness frailty disability and reaching the end of life may de citizen older people by devaluing the social identity that comes from continuing social engagement We de citizen older people by emphasizing dependence on services and their cost to public expenditure instead of valuing the interdependence of participation and mutual respect This book argues that older people retain full citizenship for the whole of their lives up to the moment of death but what does this mean for health and social care In this groundbreaking book Malcolm Payne argues that social work with older people must build re citizenizing practice strategies to value both the common and the special aspects of the citizenship of older people Current models of social care and social work create dependency rather than relying on values of participative interdependence The failure to recognize the end of life as a crucial element in all social care and social work for older people means that the lessons learned in providing palliative and end of life care in healthcare have not been transferred to social care and the priorities of end of life care have not been adequately encompassed in social work with older people An Enquiry Into the Principles of Free Trade John Alexander Neale,1884 EU Citizenship Law and Policy Dora Kostakopoulou,2020-09-25 This theoretically ambitious work combines analytical institutional and critical approaches in order to provide an in depth panoramic and contextual account of European Union citizenship law and policy England's Citizenship Education Experiment Lee Jerome,2012-12-06 A thorough exploration and analysis of England s citizenship education policy drawing together a variety of perspectives Resource Support Pack Lee Jerome,2001-09-11 Developed to answer the need for teaching material in this area this three book series with a wide range of additional resources is an innovative and practical approach to Citizenship at KS3 Citizens, Elections, Parties Stein Rokkan,2009-10-01 Stein Rokkan became one of the central figures of European comparative politics and political sociology in the post war decades Citizens Elections Parties remains the most complete guide to Rokkan s work up to 1970 and it is for this that Rokkan is most widely known today The core question at the heart of this seminal work is what explains the political behaviour of citizens The book brings together a series of studies some conceptual and theoretical others empirical and statistical of processes of political development in industrialising and industrialised societies

The fourteen studies presented in the volume focus on three central themes in the comparative sociology of national development first the extension of citizenship to hitherto underprivileged strata of each territorial population second the mobilisation of the new masses through the institutionalisation of elections and the formation of parties and popular movements and third the reactions of the mobilised masses to the alternatives presented to them by the inherited national regime by the parties and by the new media of communication Rokkan's work as represented in Citizens Elections Parties remains alive today his analysis of the structural underpinnings of citizen behaviour was innovative and highly ambitious in its day and still remains relevant with many of the questions he raised still not receiving an adequate answer This edition includes a new introduction by Alan Renwick G.K.'s Weekly, 1928 Civil Rights and EU Citizenship Sybe de Vries, Henri de Waele, Marie-Pierre Granger, 2018-10-26 The process of European integration has had a marked influence on the nature and meaning of citizenship in national and post national contexts as well as on the definition and exercise of civil rights across Member States This original edited collection brings together insights from EU law human rights and comparative constitutional law to address this underexplored nexus Split into two distinct thematic parts it first evaluates relevant frameworks of civil rights protection with special attention on enforcement mechanisms and the role of civil society organisations Next it engages extensively with a series of individual rights connected to EU citizenship Comprising detailed studies on access to nationality the right to free movement non discrimination family life data protection and the freedom of expression this book maps the expanding role of European law in the national sphere It identifies a number of challenges to core civil rights that the current supranational framework is at pains to address The contributors suggest and develop several new ideas on how to take the EU integration project forward Civil Rights and EU Citizenship provides an innovative perspective on both the conceptual dimensions and the actual realities of rights based citizenship which will be of interest to legal scholars practitioners and policy makers alike Contributors include S Adamo P J Blanco S de Vries H de Waele T Dudek M P Granger K Irion E Menendez J Morijn P Phoa O Salat H van Eijken J G Vega For We Are Young And . . . ? Sally Beadle, Roger Holdsworth, Johanna Wyn, 2011-03-15 For we are young and offers a provocative perspective on Australia's young people against a global and local backdrop of uncertainty and change It asserts the importance of a critically informed and positive approach to youth moving beyond seeing young people through the lens of shortcomings and problems to be solved For we are young and draws directly on the work of the Youth Research Centre at The University of Melbourne and its legacy of innovative and significant research on young Australians Opening with the theoretical context of youth research the book draws on contemporary examples to discuss new conceptual and research approaches the ways in which young people participate in change and the challenges and possibilities that are presented by current conditions For we are young and identifies emerging issues and future directions for youth research policy and professional practice A Post-Colonial Enquiry into Europe's Debt and Migration Crisis Ranabir Samaddar, 2016-10-10 This important and topical volume is composed around the debt and migration crisis in Europe in 2015 known as the Greece crisis and written almost concurrently as the two crises developed in quick succession The central argument here is that Europe's present crisis suggests a post colonial bind or to put in stronger terms a post colonial destiny of Europe The European situation bears remarkable similarity with the post colonial condition elsewhere in the world and suggests a strong bond between Europe's present situation and the post colonial bind in which much of the world finds itself The purpose of this volume is to examine in the light of 21st century capitalism notions such as debt crisis rupture dialogue mobilization neo liberalism war and migration and the old never to be settled question of ideology The volume ends with reflections on Europe's migration crisis and reinforces the point that a critical post colonial sense of history accumulation globalization and the resilience of the nation form will help us reflect on the present European crisis and draw appropriate lessons
