Ensuring Effective Regulation In The Eu Report With Evidence 9th Report Of Session 2005 06:

Ensuring Effective Regulation in the EU Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,HMSO,2005-09-08 In March 2005 the European Commission issued a Communication designed to improve the EU regulatory environment in order to promote competition and trade and facilitate job creation The Committee's report examines the proposals for better regulation including the regulation tools of impact assessment simplification and consultation the position of small and medium sized enterprises SMEs the case for a new regulatory body to oversee regulation in the EU the Inter Institutional Agreement on Better Law making and the role of Member States the ambitions and activities of the UK presidency of the EU in this area The Committee welcomes the initiatives and the attitudinal change that seems to be filtering through the Commission but highlights the need for full implementation and assessment and also calls on the UK Government to ensure the issue is placed at the top of the EU political agenda The Commission's Green Paper, "A European Strategy for Sustainable, Competitive and Secure Energy" Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,2006-07-25 The Committee's report examines the European Commission's Green Paper policy document A European Strategy for Sustainable Competitive and Secure Energy details of which are available at http://ec.europa.eu/energy/green_paper/energy_index_en.htm Issues discussed include i whether the Commission's three EU energy policy priorities sustainability competitiveness and security and six key action areas are the most important priorities for energy policy and whether they can be fully achieved and ii the rationale for a single European energy policy European Union Committee Annual Report 2005 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,2006-02-27 Each year the Government deposits 1200 European policy documents for scrutiny some of which are cleared straight away whilst others are reserved for further scrutiny These are normally considered by one of seven policy based sub committees and this report summarises the work undertaken by the Committee through its sub committees also reports on UK's Presidency of the EU and looks ahead to likely developments in 2006 Television without frontiers? Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,2007-02-05 The draft Audiovisual Media Services AMS Directive published in December 2005 was met with some alarm It sought to extend the existing Television without Frontiers Directive to new services which were seen to be competing for audience and revenue In doing so it would have introduced inappropriate regulation on the new media sector There have now been some changes to the original draft and a tightening of the definition of television like services Although an improvement the Committee is concerned that there is still not enough legal certainty They are also worried about the need to defend the Country of Origin approach to single market legislation and reject the idea that regulators should act to preserve the market dominance of existing players from new entrants They are also unconvinced of the need for any quantitative restriction on advertising Better Regulation Stephen Weatherill,2007-06-28 The discourse of Better Regulation is a hot topic intimately associated with the drive for cost savings and a more efficient economy In the UK and in the EU rule makers have lately endeavoured to achieve a more satisfactory balance between the demands of proper protection from market failure and inequity on the one hand and commercial freedom and the potential for innovation on the other But who is the regulator listening to and what effect does this have on the regulatory pattern governing the integrating EU market What is best practice in the matter of regulatory assessment The essays in this collection explore these and other questions and will foster greater understanding of UK and EU regulation the accountability issues involved and problems of enforcement It is no coincidence that since efforts to construct a Constitution for Europe have stalled the attention of policy makers politicians and the business community has turned instead to the quest for Better Regulation or perhaps it might be said a Better European Union

Impact assessments in the EU Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,2010-03-09 This inquiry was launched in summer 2009 in order to investigate the progress of the EU Better Regulation agenda The agenda has been running since 2005 with the aim of cutting red tape reducing administrative burdens and improving the legislative process by means of impact assessment In January 2009 new Impact Assessment Guidelines were issued which among other things introduced the inclusion of an SME test that is an assessment of the particular impact any likely legislation would have on small businesses to the standard Commission impact assessment This report focuses to a large extent on the impact assessment process in particular how IAs are produced the role of the Impact Assessment Board in monitoring their quality and their subsequent use by the European Institutions The intention of this report is to take the views of various stakeholders in EU better regulation and to suggest areas where further examination might be necessary It does seem to be the case that the Council of Ministers and the European Parliament are not making as full use of impact assessments as they might Certain other areas have been highlighted where the situation is unclear and further investigation might be warranted These include the conformity of IAs to the Guidelines the production and use of IAs on comitology proposals the adequacy of consultation exercises in the preparation of assessments whether the SME test is working and the use of ex post evaluation

The EU reform treaty Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,2007-11 This progress report presents evidence taken by the Committee during the summer recess on the draft EU Reform Treaty on which negotiations have been proceeding in the Inter Governmental Conference IGC as well as correspondence raising questions with the Minister for Europe The Committee sets out its plan for further in depth analysis of the impact of the reform Treaty on the UK and discusses specific questions of the role of national parliaments The report notes the tight mandate given to the IGC has had the effect that its work has been largely technical and asks the Government to report to the House on the impact of this procedure The Stationery Office Annual Catalogue 2005 Stationery Office,2006-08-10 No public library discount on this title Remaining Government responses session 2004-05 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,2007-11-02 The Government is expected to respond to all reports from the Committee within two months of publication The Committee then makes them available to the House and publishes them as required This report makes 35 such responses available

Evidence from the Ambassador of Portugal on the priorities of the Portuguese presidency Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,2007-07-26 Evidence from the Ambassador of Portugal on the priorities of the Portuguese Presidency Report with evidence 29th report of Session 2006 07 A European Strategy for Jobs and Growth Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,2006-03-16 This report by the European Union Committee examines the progress of the European Union in initiating a strategy for jobs and growth across the Community as a whole The background to this report stems from the Spring European Council meeting in 2000 in Lisbon and the launch of an economic reform agenda The Committee observes that since the Lisbon Agenda little progress has been made and the performance of many of the larger European economies has been poor The Committee has noted that certain worrying signs of protectionist behaviour have developed especially regarding barriers of cross border mergers The EU has recognized this weak performance and the Agenda was relaunched in 2005 with a greater focus on the key economic priorities of more growth and jobs Also all Member States are now required to produce an annual National Action Plan highlighting the policies being pursued to improve economic growth and increase employment The Committee sets out a number of recommendations to further push forward the priorities of growth and jobs including that the Commission should seek to complete the progress towards an internal market that Member States should influence one another in the development of good practice through statistical comparison of their economic progress and agree on quantifiable targets that the format of the National Action Plans should include not only the successes but where countries are underperforming that the Agenda be given a higher public profile The Stationery Office Annual Catalogue Stationery Office (Great Britain),2006 The Further Enlargement of the EU Great Britain. Parliament. House of Lords. European Union Committee,2006 Evidence from the Minister for Europe - the European Council and the United Kingdom Presidency Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,2005-11-15 Evidence from the Minister for Europe the European Council and the United Kingdom Presidency Report with evidence 10th report of Session 2005 06 European Arrest Warrant - Recent Developments Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,2006-04-04 The European Arrest Warrant EAW is now widely used to secure the arrest and surrender of suspected criminals across the Union The EAW has a key role to play in the fight against terrorism and in bringing those accused of serious crime to justice This report draws attention to two recent developments relating to the EAW Firstly the EC Commission s recent report on the implementation of the EAW criticised Member States for inadequate or faulty implementation Secondly certain Member States constitutional courts have found incompatibility with safeguards provided for their nationals As a result some legal uncertainty now surrounds the EAW Until this is resolved the EAW may not be fully effective between Member States Further the adoption of other measures based on mutual recognition such as the European

Evidence Warrant may be delayed The report also makes available the written and oral evidence on these matters given by Mr Andy Burnham MP Parliamentary Under Secretary of State in the Home Office Impact Assessment in EU Lawmaking Anne C. M. Meuwese, 2008-01-01 Recent constitutional thinking has directed its attention to the profound impact of soft norms on the way legislation is made This book identifies the European Union's impact assessment regime as a source of these norms In 2002 the European Commission later followed by the European Parliament and the Council of Ministers committed to performing rigorous assessment of the economic social and environmental impacts of policy options before adopting legislative proposals Applying a constitutional lens to this regulatory topic Anne Meuwese examines both the details and the framework of IA in EU lawmaking to date drawing attention to its strengths its contradictions and its power to enhance the deliberative quality of legislative debates Integrating the perspectives of political scientists and economists with the concerns of legal scholars and practitioners Dr Meuwese describes and interrelates such aspects of the subject as the following the potential role of impact assessment as a catalyst of legal principles by emphasising or overriding norms that govern both the procedural and the substantive aspects of the EU legislative process the constitutional tasks of impact assessment as applied to European legislative proposals especially relating to subsidiarity proportionality and the precautionary principle the formal and informal extension of the scope of impact assessment beyond the co decision procedure the question whether impact assessment crosses the line between informing the legislator and fettering legislative discretion In the course of her analysis Dr Meuwese develops models for possible usages of IA in EU lawmaking analyses the implementation of impact assessment processes in the European Commission the European Parliament and the Council as well as the roles of relevant co actors and offers results of empirical research in the forms of a survey of EU legislative practice and in depth case studies of four EU legislative dossiers European Small Claims Procedure Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee, 2006-02-15 The European Commission has recently adopted a proposal for the a Regulation creating a European Small Claims Procedure which seeks to secure consumers access to justice and settlement of disputes in the single market The ESCP would provide a procedure available in the courts of all Member States to deal with cross border cases and simple enforcement across national boundaries In its examination of the Regulation the Committee identifies three main difficulties differences between the Commission and Member States most importantly on costs the need for the practicalities of the scheme to be given more attention lack of clarity in some parts of the text of the Regulation Index to Chairmen, 2006 Proposed European Institute for Gender Equality Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee, 2006-02-14 The European Commission want to set up a European Institute for Gender Equality to collect and analyse data carry out research and promote exchanges of information and good practice about gender issues in the EU The European Union Committee expresses the view that a separate body of this kind is not needed and that more consideration should be given to the case for incorporating gender equality work in the proposed European Fundamental Rights Agency The Committee also states that the establishment of such a body requires a good management structure along with adequate funding The Committee further states that the Government should take a clear and consistent line on the correct legal base for this and similar proposals Consumer Credit in the European Union Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee, 2006-07-05 This report looks at the proposal from the European Commission to replace the existing Directive on consumer credit and replace it with one that aims to offer a higher level of consumer protection and promote an internal market in cross border credit It concentrates on three questions will the proposed harmonisation achieve its objective will it provide a high level of consumer will it reduce the amount of protection offered by current UK legislation It identifies a number of concerns which it hopes will be addressed by further changes to the text of the draft Directive And recommends that the issue should be debated in the House
