Entangling Alliances How The Third World Shapes Our Lives:

Entangling Alliances John Maxwell Hamilton, Nancy Morrison, 1990 Explores the ties that bind everyday people in the United States with those in seemingly distant developing lands Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1990-10 Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1990-10 Seminar Guide to Entangling Alliances John Maxwell Hamilton, Elise Storck, Joan H. Joshi, Panos Institute, 1990 The Debt Boomerang Susan George, 2019-07-09 This book examines six major Debt Connections six ways in which the third world Debt Boomerang strikes the North as it flies back from the South environmental destruction drugs costs to taxpayers lost jobs and markets immigration pressures and heightened conflict and war Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1991-06 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1991-06 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1993-11 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world Adventures in Chaos Douglas J. Macdonald, Robert James Nelson, 1992 Can or should the United States try to promote reform in client states in the Third World This question which reverberates through American foreign policy is at the heart of Adventures in Chaos A faltering friendly state in danger of falling to hostile forces presents the U S with three options withdraw bolster the existing government or try to reform it Douglas Macdonald defines the circumstances that call these policy options into play combining an analysis of domestic politics in the U S cognitive theories of decision making and theories of power relations drawn from sociology economics and political science He examines the conditions that promote the reformist option and then explores strategies for improving the success of reformist intervention in the future In order to identify problems in this policy and to propose solutions Macdonald focuses on three case studies of reformist intervention in Asia China 1946 1948 the Philippines 1950 1953 and Vietnam 1961 1963 Striking similarities in these cases suggest that such policy dilemmas are a function of the global role played by the U S especially during the Cold War Though this role is changing Macdonald foresees future applications for the lessons his study offers A challenge to the conventional wisdom on reformist intervention Adventures in Chaos through extensive archival research displays a theoretical and historical depth often lacking in treatments of the subject Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists ,1993-11 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world International Perspectives on Social Work Karen Lyons, Kathleen Manion, Mary

Carlsen,2017-09-16 As social work is fundamentally being altered by the Internationalization of social problems this book examines the implications for students and practitioners Arguing that social professionals working locally need an understanding of global mechanisms and cross cultural issues it includes both local level and international examples A Core Bibliography on Global Issues Related to Environment, Resources, Population, and Sustainable Development ,1991

The Ethics of Aid and Trade Paul B. Thompson,1992-07-31 This book 1991 about the principles of the US agricultural policy and foreign aid focuses on protectionist challenges to foreign aid and development assistance programmes practitioners providing a sound foundation for future academic and career exploration Global Order Lynn H Miller, 2018-03-05 A survey of international relations this benchmark text explains concepts of global order from the Westphalian system to current issues in international relations In this latest edition Lynn Miller covers new developments in ethnic violence economic development human rights intervention and environmental issues and discusses the potential developments and choices in the post Cold War era posing alternative new world order scenarios that emphasize improving the world's ability to engage in peacekeeping in light of the Gulf War and other recent conflicts The text advocates critical world order values and proposes means for minimizing violence maximizing economic well being enhancing human rights and protecting the environment Hunger 1992 ,1991 Bread for the World Institute on Hunger Development The report co sponsored by other anti hunger groups illustrates through ten case studies of specific projects programs ideas that work to alleviate U S world hunger or that have shown enough promise to justify further pursuit Each essay examines the pitfalls involved whether success can be duplicated elsewhere Topics include the green revolution sustainable participatory development U S domestic food programs international food aid reforming economies without hurting poor people demilitarization citizen advocacy The report updates information presented in the previous volume Hunger 1990 on hunger in North South America Africa Asia the Middle East features statistical tables bibliography glossary topical index A new section examines the Soviet Union Eastern Europe Contributors include John Mellor Patricia Kutzner Don Reeves Remy Jurenas Gayle Smith Barbara Murock Patience Elabor Idemudia the editors other Bread for the World Institute Staff Intended for concerned citizens secondary school college instructors students opinion shapers policy makers Journalism's Roving Eye John Maxwell Hamilton, 2011-08-15 In all of journalism nowhere are the stakes higher than in foreign news gathering For media owners it is the most difficult type of reporting to finance for editors the hardest to oversee Correspondents roaming large swaths of the planet must acquire expertise that home based reporters take for granted facility with the local language for instance or an understanding of local cultures Adding further to the challenges they must put news of the world in context for an audience with little experience and often limited interest in foreign affairs a task made all the more daunting because of the consequence to national security In Journalism's Roving Eye John Maxwell Hamilton a historian and former foreign correspondent provides a sweeping and definitive history of American foreign news reporting from its inception to the present day and chronicles the economic and technological advances that have influenced overseas coverage as well as the cavalcade of colorful personalities who shaped readers perceptions of the world across two centuries From the colonial era when newspaper printers hustled down to wharfs to collect mail and periodicals from incoming ships to the ongoing multimedia press coverage of the Iraq War Hamilton explores journalism's constant and not always successful efforts at dishing the foreign news as James Gordon Bennett put it in the mid nineteenth century to describe his approach in the New York Herald He details the highly partisan coverage of the French Revolution the early emergence of special correspondents and the challenges of organizing their efforts the profound impact of the non yellow press in the run up to the Spanish American War the increasingly sophisticated machinery of propaganda and censorship that surfaced during World War I and the golden age of foreign correspondence during the interwar period when outlets for foreign news swelled and a large number of experienced independent journalists circled the globe From the Nazis intimidation of reporters to the ways in which American popular opinion shaped coverage of Communist revolution and the Vietnam War Hamilton covers every aspect of delivering foreign news to American doorsteps Along the way Hamilton singles out a fascinating cast of characters among them Victor Lawson the overlooked proprietor of the Chicago Daily News who pioneered the concept of a foreign news service geared to American interests Henry Morton Stanley one of the first reporters to generate news on his own with his 1871 expedition to East Africa to find Livingstone and Jack Belden a forgotten brooding figure who exemplified the best in combat reporting Hamilton details the experiences of correspondents editors owners publishers and network executives as well as the political leaders who made the news and the technicians who invented ways to transmit it Their stories bring the narrative to life in arresting detail and make this an indispensable book for anyone wanting to understand the evolution of foreign news gathering Amid the steep drop in the number of correspondents stationed abroad and the recent decline of the newspaper industry many fear that foreign reporting will soon no longer exist But as Hamilton shows in this magisterial work traditional correspondence survives alongside a new type of reporting Journalism s Roving Eye offers a keen understanding of the vicissitudes in foreign news an understanding imperative to better seeing what lies ahead Economic Globalisation as Religious War Michael McKinley, 2007-06-28 Using a critical theory approach to analyze the globalization of the world economy this provocative and topical new book presents economic globalization not as a recent development but rather as a familiar process that has occurred throughout history Michael McKinley argues that it is ultimately a self serving arbitrary and destructive imperial project that should be viewed as a religious war Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations for 1993: Testimony of members of Congress and other interested individuals and organizations United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs, 1992
