Jean Delville Brendan Cole,2014-11-10 This book is the first full length study of the art and writings of Jean Delville As a member of the younger generation that emerged during the end of the nineteenth century he was a dynamic leader of a group of avant garde artists who sought to establish a new school of Idealist Art in Belgium He was one of the most talented painters of his generation producing a vast body of works that in both scale and technical accomplishment is unsurpassed amongst his contemporaries In his extensive writings in contemporary journals and books he pursued a singular vision for the purpose of art to serve as a vehicle for social change as well as to inspire individuals to be drawn to a higher spiritual reality Delvilles thinking is heavily indebted to the hermetic and esoteric philosophy that was widely popular at the time and his paintings poetry and writings reformulate the main tenets of this tradition in a contemporary context In this regard his aesthetic and artistic goals are similar if not identical to those found in the writings and art of Kandinsky and Mondrian during the early twentieth century

Human Rights Law and the Marginalized Other William Paul Simmons,2011-09-26 This is a groundbreaking application of contemporary philosophy to human rights law that proposes significant innovations for the progressive development of human rights Drawing on the works of prominent philosophers of the Other including Emmanuel Levinas Gayatri Chakravorti Spivak Judith Butler and most centrally the Argentine philosopher of liberation Enrique Dussel this book develops an ethics based on concrete face to face relationships with the Marginalized Other It proposes that this should inspire a human rights law that is grounded in transcendental justice and framed from the perspective of marginalized groups This would continuously deconstruct the original violence found in all human rights treaties and tribunals and promote preferential treatment for the marginalized It would be especially attentive to such issues as access to justice voice representation agency and responsibility This differs markedly from more conventional theories that prioritize the autonomy of the ego state sovereignty democracy and or equality The Postmodern Saints of France Colby Dickinson,2013-07-25

Holocaust Film Terri Ginsberg,2009-03-26 This timely new monograph takes as its starting point the provocative contention that Holocaust film scholarship has been marginalized academically despite the crucial role Holocaust film has played in fostering international awareness of the Nazi genocide and scholarly understandings of cinematic power The book suggests political and economic motivations for this seeming paradox the ideological parameters of which are evident in debates and controversies over Holocaust films themselves and around Holocaust culture in general Lending particular attention to four exemplary Holocaust art films Korczak Poland 1990 The Quarrel Canada 1990 Entre Nous France 1983 and Balagan Germany 1994 this book breaks disciplinary ground by drawing critical connections between public and scholarly debates over Holocaust representation and the often sophisticated cinematic structures lending aesthetic shape to them in today s global arena Rush Martin Popoff, 2017-05 Treats fans to an unparalleled look back at
