List of Documents and Publications in the Field of Culture, 1989-1991, 1992     Falangist and National Catholic Women in the Spanish Civil War (1936-1939) Angela Flynn, 2020-03-11 Although there is an established historiography on women's roles during the Spanish Civil War 1936-9 little has been written on Nationalist women in the Republican held zones Women were the anti Republican resisters of the first hour in the capital but they have been largely overlooked in the historical record During the bitter civil conflict a sector of dissident women helped to create a subversive and clandestine national Catholic space in the heart of Republican Madrid By examining the vital and invisible role played by women within

Madrid's fifth column this monograph offers a new contribution to the gender historiography of the Spanish Civil War and re-evaluates the significance of women in the Nationalist war effort. It explores how and why a sector of Falangist and Catholic women decided to mobilise against the legally constituted Popular Front government in support of an undemocratic military coup. While women's subversive activities often involved the transgression of traditional gender norms, their social and political agency arose within the conditions and precepts of Catholicism and was conceptualised and imagined within new national Catholic discourses of holy Crusade.

Afrocubanas Devyn Spence Benson, Daisy Rubiera Castillo, Inés María Martiatu Terry, 2020-05-22. Originally published in Spanish and edited by Cuban historian Daisy Rubiera Castillo and playwright and theater critic Inés María Martiatu Terry, this ground-breaking edited collection is the first work of its kind. It places the experiences of black and mulata women at the center of Cuban history. Including essays from a mix of well-known and newly published Cuban authors, the volume examines the lives of Afro-Cubanas from the late nineteenth century to the present. The volume's contributors collect and interrogate the voices of black Cuban women and the political, cultural, social, and ideological contributions they have made to the history of their nation. One of the unique qualities of Afrocubanas is that the text is the product of a grassroots community working group in Havana. A number of antiracist organizations emerged to fight racial inequality in light of Cuba's new economic challenges after the fall of its chief trading partner, the Soviet Union, in 1991. But the Afrocubanas Project, founded in the mid-2000s, is one of the few groups that challenges racism and sexism together. The members of the Afrocubanas Project hail from a variety of professions, ages, and sexual orientations. They share a collective interest in challenging negative stereotypes about black women. This volume merges their activism and scholarship to offer a counter-discourse to existing narratives about black women in Cuba while also creating and disseminating new knowledge about Afro-Cubanas. There is no other published work in English devoted to analyzing the political and intellectual dimensions of black Cuban women's thought across the island's history. This text is essential reading for scholars and students of African Studies, Afro-Latin American Studies, Caribbean history, and courses focusing on black women in the Atlantic region.

Winner of the Victor Villaseor Best Latino Focused Nonfiction Book Award, English, from the 2022 International Latino Book Awards. What defines the boundary between fact and fabrication, fiction and nonfiction, literature and journalism? Latin American Documentary Narratives unpacks the precarious testimonial relationship between author and subject where the literary journalist, rather than the subject being interviewed, can become the hero of a narrative in its recording and retelling. Latin American Documentary Narratives covers a variety of nonfiction genres from the 1950s to the 2000s that address topics such as social protests, dictatorships, natural disasters, crime, and migration in Latin America. This book analyzes and includes an appendix of interviews with authors who have not previously been critically read together from the early and emblematic
