King of the Moonshiners Bruce E. Stewart, 2008 Lewis R Redmond was an archetypal moonshiner On March 1 1876 the twenty one year old North Carolinian shot and killed a U S deputy marshal who tried to arrest him on charges of illicit distilling He then fled to Pickens County South Carolina where within three years he gained national notoriety as the King of the Moonshiners More than any other individual moonshiner in southern Appalachia Redmond captured the imagination of middle class Americans Then as now media coverage had a lot to do with his reputation Entwined Lives Nancy L. Feminist Ethics and Social and Political Philosophy: Theorizing the Non-Ideal Lisa Tessman, 2009-07-30

Feminist Ethics and Social and Political Philosophy: Theorizing the Non Ideal is a collection of feminist essays that self consciously develop non idealizing approaches to either ethics or social and political philosophy or both Characterizing feminist ethics and social and political philosophy as marked by a tendency to be non idealizing serves to thematize the volume while still allowing the essays to be diverse enough to constitute a representation of current work in the fields of feminist ethics and social and political philosophy Each of the essays either serves as an instance of work that is rooted in actual non ideal conditions and that as such is able to consider any of the many questions relevant to subordinated people or reflects theoretically on the significance of non idealizing as an approach to feminist ethics or social and political philosophy The volume will be of interest to feminist scholars from all disciplines to academics who are ethicists and political philosophers as well as to graduate students Not All Twins Are Alike Barbara Klein,2003-02-28 Even twins are unique Most people idealize twins fantasizing a close perpetually loving relationship Yet Klein herself an identical twin demonstrates that twins have complicated and intense relationships that range from over identification or excessive closeness to profound estrangement and conflict Most twins who are raised as individuals deal with the significant emotional pain of separation in adolescence or young adulthood yet as mature adults can come to love and respect each other as individuals As Klein makes clear the parenting that twins receive as infants and young children affects the relationships that they have with one another and with the world they choose to function in Because parenting is a critical determinant of psychological well being it should be treated as a serious but manageable challenge This book is a must read for twins their parents and scholars students and other researchers and professionals dealing with mental health and child development Twins William Viney,2021-05-05 Human twins have many meanings and different histories They have been seen as gods and monsters signs of danger death and sexual deviance They are taken as objects of wonder and violent repression the subjects of scientific experiment Now millions are born through fertility technologies Their history is often buried in philosophies and medical theories religious and scientific practices and countless stories of devotion and tragedy In this history of superstitions and marvels fantasies and experiments William Viney himself a twin shows how the use and abuse of twins has helped to shape the world in which we live This book has been written not just for twins but for anyone interested in their historical global and political impact
