The House on Lorri Lane: A Family Haunting Elizabeth Trombley, 2010-04-20 Old houses always have a history either good or bad Faint traces are left behind of events that occurred while people lived and died in these houses A sound smell or a feeling reminds us that we are in the same space they once occupied just a different time period Usually nothing of concern but sometimes an event is so heinous that even death can not put to rest the sights and sounds that permeate the structure and eventually a haunting will take place Is it a cry for help or merely a residual sequence once uttered and now sealed in the walls forever I believe that loving spirits do indeed stay around us and if we are open and listen we will encounter many in our lifetime It should be a comfort to know that we are never alone without support and love Blessings are abundant for those who believe

Lady in Waiting Susan Meissner, 2010-09-07 Love is a choice you make every day Content in her comfortable marriage of twenty two years Jane Lindsay never expected to watch her husband Brad pack his belongings and walk out the door of their Manhattan home But when it happens she feels powerless to stop him or the course of events that follow Brad s departure Jane finds an old ring in a box of relics from a British jumble sale and discovers a Latin inscription in the band along with just one recognizable word Jane Feeling an instant connection to the mysterious ring bearing her namesake Jane begins a journey to learn more about the ring and perhaps about herself In the sixteenth century Lucy Day becomes the dressmaker to Lady Jane Grey an innocent young woman whose fate seems to be controlled by a dangerous political and religious climate one threatening to deny her true love and pursuit of her own interests As the stories of both Janes dovetail through the journey of one ring it becomes clear that each woman has far more influence over her life than she once imagined It all comes down to the choices each makes despite the realities they face
