Hollow Men Susan Gaylard, 2013-04-02 Analyzes texts and art objects from the 15th to the late 16th centuries to show that Renaissance theories of emulating classical heroes generated a deep skepticism about representation as these theories forced men to construct a public image that seemed fixed but could adapt to changing circumstances Cimelia Sir Egerton Brydges, 1823 Bookseller's catalogues . 19 catalogues of early printed books and manuscripts, issued 1905-1916. Enenkel, Konrad Adriaan Ottenheim, 2019-09-16 This monograph studies the constructions of impressive historical descent manufactured to create national regional or local antiquities in early modern Europe 1500 1700 especially the Netherlands This was a period characterised by important political changes and therefore by an increased need for legitimation a need which was met using historical claims Literature scholarship art and architecture were pivotal media that were used to furnish evidence of the impressively old lineage of states regions or families These claims related not only to Classical antiquity in the generally known sense but also to other periods that were regarded as periods of antiquity such as the chivalric age The authors of this volume analyse these intriguing early modern constructions of appropriate antiquities and investigate the ways in which they were applied in political intellectual and artistic contexts in Europe especially in the
