One of a class of gunboats known as mighty midgets, LCS 52 carried an arsenal equal to ships twice its size. Yet its shallow draft enabled it to maneuver to within a few hundred feet of any beach. Packed inside the tiny craft, the diverse crew were farmers, students, cooks, and teachers. They ranged from age 17 to middle-aged; a few had seen combat in the Atlantic and the Pacific. This book tells the story of the ship's extensive service in World War II's Pacific Theater. Most of the crew survived the war, as did LCS 52 itself, serving in the U S Navy and Japanese Maritime Self Defense Force until 1958 when it was decommissioned and used for artillery practice. A roll call of crew members is included with biographical information when available. Aircraft Nose Art Andretta Schellinger, 2016-02-26 Since World War I nose art has adorned military aircraft around the world. Intended for friendly rather than enemy eyes, these images with a wide range of artistic expression are part of the personal and unit histories of pilots and aircrews. As civilian and military attitudes and rationales for war change from one conflict to the next, changes can also be seen in the iconography of nose art. This analysis from a cultural perspective
