Emancipation's Diaspora Leslie A. Schwalm,2009-07-15 Most studies of emancipation's consequences have focused on the South Moving the discussion to the North Leslie Schwalm enriches our understanding of the national impact of the transition from slavery to freedom Emancipation's Diaspora follows the lives and experiences of thousands of men and women who liberated themselves from slavery made their way to overwhelmingly white communities in Iowa Minnesota and Wisconsin and worked to live in dignity as free women and men and as citizens Schwalm explores the hotly contested politics of black enfranchisement as well as collisions over segregation civil rights and the more informal politics of race including how slavery and emancipation would be remembered and commemorated She examines how gender shaped the politics of race and how gender relations were contested and negotiated within the black community Based on extensive archival research Emancipation s Diaspora shows how in churches and schools in voting booths and Masonic temples in bustling cities and rural crossroads black and white Midwesterners women and men shaped the local and national consequences of emancipation Women's Emancipation Writing at the Fin de Siecle Elena V. Shabliy,Dmitry Kurochkin,O'Donnell Karen,2018-12-07 This work investigates women s emancipation writing in the second half of the nineteenth and the early twentieth centuries Many novelists in various national literatures touched upon the theme of an emancipated woman in the long nineteenth century and at the fin de si cle Philosophers poets writers and journalists were concerned with this problem and began popularizing wholeheartedly the so called burning questions The new femininity was represented not only in the Christian context many other traditions and cultures opened the discussion about the women s lot This volume analyzes women s literary voices from different parts of the world Turkey England the U S Italy Russia Spain and others Imagination as it is believed has no borders and is dialogical in its nature American Women's History Melissa E. Afro-Caribbean Women's Writing and Early American Literature LaToya Jefferson-James, 2022-08-09 Afro Caribbean Women s Writing and Early American Literature is both pedagogical and critical The text begins by re evaluating the poetry of Wheatley for its political commentary demonstrates how Hurston bridges several literary genres and geographies and introduces Black women writers of the Caribbean to some American audiences It sheds light on lesser discussed Black women playwrights of the Harlem Renaissance and re evaluates the turn of the century concept Noble Womanhood in light of the Cult of Domesticity

America Set Free Hermann Graf von Keyserling, 1929 Space in America Klaus Benesch, Kerstin Schmidt, 2005

America s sense of space has always been tied to what Hayden White called the narrativization of real events If the awe inspiring manifestations of nature in America Niagara Falls Virginia s Natural Bridge the Grand Canyon etc were often used as a foil for projecting utopian visions and idealizations of the nation s exceptional place among the nations of the world the rapid technological progress and its concomitant appropriation of natural spaces served equally well as David Nye argues to promote the dominant cultural idiom of exploration and conquest From the beginning American attitudes towards space were thus utterly contradictory if not paradoxical a paradox that scholars tried to capture in such hybrid concepts as the middle landscape Leo Marx an engineered New Earth Cecelia Tichi or the technological sublime David Nye Not only was America s concept of space paradoxical it has always also been a contested terrain a site of continuous social and cultural conflict Many foundational issues in American history the dislocation of Native and African Americans the geo political implications of nation building immigration and transmigration the increasing division and clustering of contemporary American society etc involve differing ideals and notions of space Quite literally space and its various ideological appropriations formed the arena where America s search for identity national political cultural has been staged If American democracy as Frederick Jackson Turner claimed is born of free land then its history may well be defined as the history of the fierce struggles to gain and maintain power over both the geographical social and political spaces of America and its concomitant narratives The number and range of topics interests and critical approaches of the essays gathered here open up exciting new avenues of inquiry into the tangled contentious relations of space in America Topics include Theories of Space Landscape Nature Technoscape Architecture Urban Utopia Literature Performance Film Visual Arts

Freedom Narratives of African American Women Janaka Bowman Lewis, 2017-12-21 Stories of liberation from enslavement or oppression have become central to African American women s literature Beginning with a discussion of black women freedom narratives as a literary genre the author argues that these texts represent a discourse on civil rights that emerged earlier than the ideas of racial uplift that culminated in the late 19th and early 20th centuries An examination of the collective free identity of black women and their relationships to the community focuses on education individual progress marriage and family labor intellectual commitments communities seeking education and fighting for their civil rights This book sheds light on the multifaceted roles women played in rebuilding their lives and communities in the aftermath of the Civil War From the domestic sphere to the public arena they were agents of change working tirelessly to heal the wounds of the past and forge a better future for themselves and their families Their stories encompass tales of resilience strength and determination They established schools and churches provided mutual aid and support to their communities and nurtured a rich cultural heritage that continues to inspire generations Their voices echoed in legislative halls and resonated in the hearts of countless individuals leaving an indelible mark on the course of history Bound by Freedom is a testament to the indomitable spirit of women who refused to be defined by their circumstances It is a celebration of their achievements and a recognition of the profound impact they had on shaping the Carolinas and the nation Through their stories we gain a deeper understanding of the challenges and triumphs they faced during this transformative era in American history This book is a tribute to the legacy of these remarkable women whose struggles and triumphs continue to inspire us today It is a must read for anyone interested in African American history women s history and the enduring quest for equality and justice If you like this book write a review

Mary Mills Patrick's Cosmopolitan Mission and the Constantinople Woman's College Carolyn McCue

Goffman,2021-01-28 Mary Mills Patrick s Constantinople Woman s College was one of the most influential institutions of higher learning for women in the Middle East in the last decades of the Ottoman Empire Patrick arrived in the 1870s to evangelize but she gradually distanced herself from Christian proselytism in order to create a cosmopolitan college for all Ottoman women Patrick was president of the Constantinople Woman s College for 34 years protecting the institution through the Balkan Wars World War One the British occupation of Constantinople the demise of the Ottoman Empire and the founding of the Turkish Republic Just as the late Ottoman Empire underwent extraordinary changes so did Patrick transform herself and the Constantinople College to meet the demands of a twentieth century Muslim state ultimately sacrificing her cosmopolitan heterogeneous student body to an ethnically homogeneous one that reflected the newly racialized nationalism of the Turkish Republic Mary Mills Patrick s Cosmopolitan Mission and the Constantinople Woman s College explores Patrick s career from the 1870s to the 1930s tracking her personal religious struggle and her professional transformation from Protestant evangelist to feminist educator to advocate for Muslim women to finally supporter of Turkish nationalism
