written by a group of experienced middle grade psychiatrists and is designed to provide easy access to the information required by psychiatry trainees on the wards or on call. It closely follows the familiar format of the other Oxford Handbooks and provides coverage that is comprehensive, evidence based and practical. The content of the handbook is written in the concise note based style characteristic of the series with topics confined to single pages. The book is divided into four sections: Fundamentals of Psychiatric Practice, General Adult Psychiatry, Psychiatric Subspecialties and Useful Reference Material. Within each chapter topics are covered in a clear logical manner. For the clinical disorders there is detailed information on the etiology, epidemiology, clinical features, common differential diagnoses, assessment, investigation, management and prognosis. There is an in depth coverage of psychiatric assessment, psychopathology, evidence based practice, mental health legislation in the UK, therapeutic issues, transcultural psychiatry and eponyms in psychiatry. The book is internally cross referenced and has both key references to important papers and to further information resources. As well as being indexed alphabetically it is also indexed by ICD 10, DSM IV codes and there is a quick index for acute presentations. This Handbook is practical and directive in style designed to provide portable reassurance to doctors beginning psychiatry. There is helpful advice for the management of difficult and urgent situations and the text is peppered with clinical observations on the practice of clinical psychiatry and guidance based upon the experience of the authors.

Publishing, Books & Reading in Sub-Saharan Africa Hans M. Zell, 2008. Published in dual print and electronic formats, this is a new substantially recast and fully updated edition of a bibliography published over ten years ago. The previous edition was published as Publishing and Book Development in Sub-Saharan Africa: An Annotated Bibliography (London: Hans Zell Publishers/Bowker Saur, 1996). Covering both print and online resources, it charts the growth of publishing and book development in the countries of Africa south of the Sahara as well as including a very large number of entries on many other topics as they relate to books and reading in Africa. With almost 3 000 critically annotated citations, it is the definitive bibliography and the most complete documentation resource on the current state of the book on the African continent.
