Embracing Earth Catholic Approaches To Ecology

Robert R. Redfield

Embracing Earth Catholic Approaches To Ecology:

Embracing Earth Albert J. LaChance, John Edward Carroll, 1994 Embracing Earth brings together original and seminal contributions by contemporary Catholic spiritual and mystical writers who explore the Christian view of nature and our place in it Their writings address not only theological philosophical and spiritual parameters but specific concrete issues as well

Catholic Moral Theology in the United States Charles E. Curran, 2008-04-11 In this magisterial volume Charles E Curran surveys the historical development of Catholic moral theology in the United States from its 19th century roots to the present day He begins by tracing the development of pre Vatican II moral theology that with the exception of social ethics had the limited purpose of training future confessors to know what actions are sinful and the degree of sinfulness Curran then explores and illuminates the post Vatican II era with chapters on the effect of the Council on the scope and substance of moral theology the impact of Humanae vitae Pope Paul VI s encyclical condemning artificial contraception fundamental moral theology sexuality and marriage bioethics and social ethics Curran s perspective is unique For nearly 50 years he has been a major influence on the development of the field and has witnessed first hand the dramatic increase in the number and diversity of moral theologians in the academy and the Church No one is more qualified to write this first and only comprehensive history of Catholic moral theology in the United States

Green Witness Laura Ruth Yordy, 2010-04-29 A call for the reappraisal of why Christians can and should work towards the wholeness of the biophysical environment Green Witness explores the church s role as exemplar in striving towards the fulfillment of God s promise of peace health and diversity to his Kingdom An insightful work in theological ethics

Tongues and Trees Aaron Jason Swoboda, 2019-05-21 This book develops a Pentecostal ecological theology ecotheology by utilizing key pneumatological themes that emerge from the Pentecostal tradition It examines the salient Pentecostal and Charismatic voices that have stimulated ecotheology in the Pentecostal tradition and situates them within the broader context of Christian ecumenical ecotheologies Roman Catholic Orthodox Protestant and Ecofeminist The author advances a novel approach to Pentecostal ecotheology through a pneumatology of the Spirit baptized creation the charismatic creational community the holistic ecological Spirit and the eschatological Spirit of ecological mission Significantly this book is the first substantive contribution to a Pentecostal pneumatological theology of creation with a particular focus on the Pentecostal community and its significance for the broader ecumenical community Furthermore it offers a fresh theological approach to imagining and sustaining earth friendly practice in the twenty first century Pentecostal church

Deep Ecology and World Religions David Landis Barnhill, Roger S. Gottlieb, 2010-03-29 Bringing together thirteen new essays on the important relationship between traditional world spirituality and the contemporary environmental perspective of deep ecology this landmark book explores parallels and contrasts between religious values and those proposed by deep ecology In examining how deep ecologists and the various religious traditions can both learn from and critique one another the following traditions are considered indigenous cultures

Hinduism Buddhism Taoism Confucianism Judaism Catholicism Islam Protestantism Christian ecofeminism and New Age spirituality A Theology of Land Christopher Gerard Sexton, 2019-07-01 On the face of things the spirituality of Australia's Aboriginals is hard to reconcile with a spirituality of Christian theology with its human centrism apt to a Son of God in Man made flesh in Jesus Christ Nevertheless this author Christopher Sexton a Sydney based lawyer drew on his deep Catholic theological beliefs and intense dialogue with Aboriginal elders to find a surprisingly common ground and in abundance The creation stories of each lay emphasis on humanity's stewardship for the search and its mystical riches Here is a book by a Christian lawyer who consulted widely and deeply with our First People's He found more in common between our distinct spiritualities than might be expected Proving once again that listening deeply to each other will often yield common ground

Theology for Earth Community Dieter T. Hessel, 2003-08-18 This volume brings together original essays by both seasoned professionals and emerging scholars who examine state of the art scholarship and pedagogy in ecologically alert theology Authors assess what various theologians have to offer and draw implications for reshaping religious and environmental studies as well as preparing the next generations of church leaders or pastoral workers What needs to be done these authors ask to bring biblical studies systematics social ethics practical theology spiritual formation and liturgy up to speed with eco justice thought and action on environmental questions The Universal Christ Richard Rohr, 2019-03-05 NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER From one of the world's most influential spiritual thinkers a long awaited book exploring what it means that Jesus was called Christ and how this forgotten truth can restore hope and meaning to our lives Anyone who strives to put their faith into action will find encouragement and inspiration in the pages of this book Melinda Gates In his decades as a globally recognized teacher Richard Rohr has helped millions realize what is at stake in matters of faith and spirituality Yet Rohr has never written on the most perennially talked about topic in Christianity Jesus Most know who Jesus was but who was Christ Is the word simply Jesus's last name Too often Rohr writes our understandings have been limited by culture religious debate and the human tendency to put ourselves at the center Drawing on scripture history and spiritual practice Rohr articulates a transformative view of Jesus Christ as a portrait of God's constant unfolding work in the world God loves things by becoming them he writes and Jesus's life was meant to declare that humanity has never been separate from God except by its own negative choice When we recover this fundamental truth faith becomes less about proving Jesus was God and more about learning to recognize the Creator's presence all around us and in everyone we meet Thought provoking practical and full of deep hope and vision The Universal Christ is a landmark book from one of our most beloved spiritual writers and an invitation to contemplate how God liberates and loves all that is The Greening of Faith John E.

Carroll, Paul Brockelman, 2016-10-04 The recent release of Pope Francis's much discussed encyclical on the environment Laudato Si On Care for Our Common Home has reinforced environmental issues as also moral and spiritual issues This anthology twenty years ahead of the encyclical but very much in line with its agenda offers essays by fifteen philosophers theologians and environmentalists who argue for a response to ecology that recognizes the tools of science but includes a more spiritual approach one with a more humanistic holistic view based on inherent reverence toward the natural world Writers whose orientations range from Buddhism to evangelical Christianity to Catholicism to Native American beliefs explore ways to achieve this paradigm shift and suggest that the environment is not only a spiritual issue but the spiritual issue of our time

Biodiversity Conservation Ethics in Major Religions H. S. A. Yahya, 2010-10 Covering three broader issues biodiversity conservation religious doctrine and environment the book Biodiversity Conservation Ethics in Major Religions is the result of a unique approach It attempts to initiate scientific discourse through the fabric of religions Spread across 15 chapters the book covers the essence of 10 religions on biodiversity encompassing a wide range of issues related to conservation The book promises to be a useful resource for biodiversity students researchers and protected area managers and also for religious scholars who are invited to look at the broader themes of religions beyond theology

Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa

All Creation is Groaning Carol J. Dempsey, Russell A. Butkus, 2015-03-06 This multi academic perspective on contemporary environmental issues reminds us of our oneness with the natural world and what that calls us to as moral creatures Fashioned as a series of stories based on the model of biblical narrative these seemingly multivalent voices and perspectives are joined together with biblical stories references and theological reflection to create in All Creation Is Groaning a seamless story that is both provocative and revelatory All Creation Is Groaning provides a clear Vision of living life in a sacred universe This Vision is linked to the biblical Vision of justice and righteousness for all of creation and humankind s responsibility to hasten the Vision through a call to ethical practice Critical and hermeneutical this book reflects an interdisciplinary approach so as to build bridges of understanding between the Bible and contemporary disciplines Chapters are Stories from the Heart New Ways of Knowing and Being Known An Islamic Perspective on the Environment Christian Values Technology and the Environment Crisis Feeding the Hungry and Protecting the Environment Mental Cartography in a Time of Environmental Crisis Toward an Understanding of International Geopolitics and the Environment Sustainability An Eco Theological Analysis The Stewardship of Natural and Human Resources Development of Environmental Responsibility in Children An Ecological View of Elders and Their Families Needs for the Twenty First Century Symphonies of Nature Creation and Re creation A Sense of Place and Hope Amidst Crisis A Prophetic Vision of Cosmic Redemption

Personal Transformation and a New Creation Delio, Ilia , 2016-08-18 Top scholars examine the theories of Pierre Teilhard de Chardin through the lens of Beatrice Bruteau s pioneering work on evolution and consciousness Contributors include Cynthia Bourgeault Ursula King Barbara

Fiand Kerrie Hide Gabrielle Stoner Kathleen Duffy John Shea Carla De Sola and Joshua Tysinger Poverty, Money, and Ecology as Pillars of Pope Francis' Pontificate (2013-2019) Pablo Alberto Baisotti, 2021-11 This book analyzes the Vatican policies of Francis during the first seven years of his pontificate in relation to some of the most urgent questions concerning humanity migrants and refugees the economy and ecology The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Ecology John Hart, 2017-03-24 In the face of the current environmental crisis which clearly has moral and spiritual dimensions members of all the world's faiths have come to recognize the critical importance of religion's relationship to ecology The Wiley Blackwell Companion to Religion and Ecology offers a comprehensive overview of the history and the latest developments in religious engagement with environmental issues throughout the world Newly commissioned essays from noted scholars of diverse faiths and scientific traditions present the most cutting edge thinking on religion's relationship to the environment Initial readings explore the ways traditional concepts of nature in Christianity Judaism Islam Buddhism and other religious traditions have been shaped by the environmental crisis Readings then address the changing nature of theology and religious thought in response to the challenges of protecting the environment Various conceptual issues and themes that transcend individual traditions climate change bio ethics social justice ecofeminism and more are then analyzed before a final section examines some of the immediate challenges we face in caring for the Earth while looking to the future of religious environmentalism Timely and thought provoking Companion to Religion and Ecology offers illuminating insights into the role of religion in the ongoing struggle to secure the future well being of our natural world With a foreword by Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew I and an Afterword by John Cobb The Church as the Extended Family of God Donatus Oluwa Chukwu, 2011-01-27 As Christianity in Africa is witnessing an unprecedented growth in membership the author argues that in order to sustain its momentous growth and deepen the faith particularly among Catholics the Church needs to acculturate an African model that resonates with Africans religiosity cultural consciousness and worldview The author contends that the model of the Church as the Extended family of God is best suited for an African ecclesiology and deepening the faith of African Christians The Natural History of Creation Michael Anthony Corey, 1995 The Natural History of Creation is the third and final installment in M A Corey's natural theology series This remarkable trilogy has worked in tandem with the findings of modern science to help spearhead the rebirth of the once dead natural theology movement In this detailed yet easy to read work the author focuses on the religious account of creation found in Genesis One and comes to the astonishing conclusion that there is indeed much scientific truth to be found in this ancient work Many other writers have also noticed the breathtaking parallels that exist between modern evolutionism and the creation account given in the Bible but nowhere will the reader find a more thorough description of them than in The Natural History of Creation Back cover The Architecture of the Soul Albert J. LaChance, 2005-12-08 The Architecture of the Soul introduces and maps out a model of the human person that represents a new way of interpreting and treating human and by extension

global dysfunction Arising from the transpersonal and integral schools of psychology this model provides an alternative to the view of the human person as a product of brain chemistry whose dysfunctional behavior can be treated through pharmaceuticals and traditional psychology Based on the author s years of clinical experience treating addiction the book posits a human psyche made up of three zones of awareness The first two are reached by present day psychology focusing on cognitive and affective disorders and therapies that treat addictive disorders The crucial third zone called Tertiary Awareness is the rudder of the human personality that contains deep bio and eco wisdoms that must be brought to consciousness and cultivated In explaining how to integrate self and spirit the author demonstrates how people must be made aware of this zone if we are to survive as a species and a planet Green Saints for a Green Generation Osgood, Libby, 2024-10-23 Sustainability and Spirituality John E. Carroll, 2012-02-16 This groundbreaking book explores the inherent interconnectedness of sustainability and spirituality acknowledging the dependency of one upon the other John E Carroll contends that true ecological sustainability in contrast to the cosmetic attempts at sustainability we see around us questions our society s fundamental values and is so countercultural that it is resisted by anyone without a spiritual belief in something deeper than efficiency technology or economics Carroll draws on the work of cultural historian and geologist Thomas Berry whose eco spiritual thought underlies many of the sustainability efforts of communities described in this book including particular branches of Catholic religious orders and the loosely organized Sisters of the Earth The writings of Native Americans on spirituality and ecology are also highlighted These models for sustainability not only represent the tangible link between ecology and spirituality but also more importantly a vision of what could be
