Theologies Elizabeth Stuart, 2017-09-08 Gay and lesbian theology has been one of the most distinctive voices to have emerged in Christian theology in the last 30 years It has placed lesbian and gay experience at the heart of the theological process Elizabeth Stuart one of the most prominent theologians in this field presents the first critical survey of gay and lesbian theology arguing that its emergence was nothing short of miraculous Gay and lesbian theologians managed to take a dominant Christian discourse which rendered them sinful sick and harmful to the common good and transform it into a theology which argued that a person's sexuality provided the point of contact between God and themselves Stuart argues that miraculous though this was gay and lesbian theology has revealed itself to be bankrupt incapable of providing universally convincing reasons for the inclusion of lesbian and gay people and their relationships in the Church and unable to deal with the defining experience of lesbian and gay communities in the late twentieth century AIDS Stuart concludes that lesbian and gay people and their opponents in the Church have too easily bought into modern constructions of sexual identity and cut themselves off from a Christian tradition which is far more queer in that it refuses to accept the stability of gender and sexual desire Stuart argues that the only way out of the current deadlock on the issue of homosexuality in the Churches is for both sides to embrace this ancient queer tradition a Christian tradition which teaches that in the end gender and sexual identities have no ultimate importance The Exile's Trust, a Tale of the French Revolution, and Other Stories Frances

Browne,1869      Remembering Home in a Time of Mobility Maja Mikula,2017-06-23 Memory nostalgia and melancholy have attracted considerable scholarly attention in recent decades Numerous critics of globalisation transnationalism and cosmopolitanism have posited an overwhelming feeling of homelessness not only among people who have been displaced from their original home lands but also among those who feel estranged from their places of origin due to rapid social change or environmental decline Arguably homesickness is prevalent in today s developed world and can be and sometimes indeed is felt even for times and places unrelated to someone s personal roots Memory has been mobilised to justify recent conflicts to question mainstream interpretations of past events or to demand compensation for the suffering of earlier generations Nostalgia has been employed as a utopia in reverse revealing more about our unattainable ideal present than about the elusive lost past it invokes A corollary of nostalgia in the late modern politics of loss melancholy has been a way of disidentifying from both the horrors of recent history and the growing insecurities of the present The volume raises complex questions related to the ways people have coped with displacement and time space compression arguably the two most manifest symptoms of late modernity How do we grapple with the traumatic experience of the loss of home What strategies do we use and what is their underlying politics How do they intersect with identity positions such as gender class and sexuality How might they contribute to the preservation of national cultures How has our understanding of home changed in a time of mobility and flow Spanning multiple Eurasian and Northern American cultural contexts the book is of interest to an international academic readership within the fields of cultural studies memory studies gender studies literature art performance film and media studies      The Great Dechurching Jim Davis,Michael Graham,Ryan P. Burge,2023-08-22 We are currently experiencing the largest and fastest religious shift in US history It is greater than the First and Second Great Awakening and every revival in our country combined but in the opposite direction Yet precious little rigorous study has been done on the broad phenomenon of dechurching in America Jim Davis and Michael Graham have commissioned the largest and most comprehensive study of dechurching in America by renowned sociologists Dr Ryan Burge and Dr Paul Djupe The Great Dechurching takes the insights gleaned from this study to drill down on how exactly people are dechurching with respect to beliefs behavior and belonging This book gives the church in America its first ever deep dive into the dechurched phenomenon You ll learn about the dechurched through a detailed sketch of demographics size core concerns church off ramps historical roots and the gravity of what is at stake Then you ll explore what can be done to slow the bleed engage the pertinent issues winsomely and wisely and hopefully re church some of the dechurched      Working Toward Racial Equity in First-Year Composition Renee DeLong,Taiyon Coleman,Kathleen DeVore,Shannon Gibney,Michael Kuhne,Valerie Déus,2018-12-07 This book presents the authors attempts to interrogate the ways that white institutional pedagogical and curricular heteronormativity affects equity in writing instruction at Two Year Colleges Written from a wide range of subject and identity positions this volume explores issues that arise among students inside historically white dominant classrooms

Nomadic Modernisms and Diasporic Journeys of Djuna Barnes and Jane Bowles Pavlina Radia, 2016-09-07 This book traces the artistic trajectories of Djuna Barnes and Jane Bowles examining their literary representations of the nomadic ethic pervading the twentieth century expatriate movements in and out of America The book argues that these authors contribute to the nomadic aesthetic of American modernism its pastoral ideographies post colonial ecologies as well as regional and transcultural varieties Mapping the pastoral moment in different temporalities and spaces Barnes representing the 1920s expatriation in Europe while Bowles comments on the 1940s exodus to Mexico and North Africa this book suggests that Barnes and Bowles counter the critical trend associating American modernity primarily with urban spaces and instead locate the nomadic thrust of their times in the post colonial history of the American frontier
