Latin American Studies Association ... International Congress Latin American Studies Association. International Congress,1997 Women and Democracy Jane S. Jaquette,Sharon L. Wolchik,1998-10-07 A unique look at the political experiences of women in two regions of the world Latin American and Eastern and Central Europe which have moved from authoritarian to democratic regimes By examining various political attitudes and efforts of women as they learn to participate in the political process contributors offer important new insights into democratic consolidation Feminist Economics

Today Marianne A. Ferber,Julie A. Nelson,2020-05-22 The 1993 publication of Marianne A Ferber and Julie A Nelson's Beyond Economic Man was a landmark in both feminist scholarship and the discipline of economics and it quickly became a handbook for those seeking to explore the emerging connections between the two A decade later this book looks back at the progress of feminist economics and forward to its future offering both a thorough overview of feminist economic thought and a collection of new high quality work from the field's leading scholars Reorganizing Popular Politics Ruth Berins Collier,Samuel Handlin,2015-10-29 A historic shift has occurred in the organizational structures through which the lower classes in Latin America express voice and find political representation With the political and economic reforms of the 1980s and 1990s networks of community based associations and nongovernmental organizations replaced party affiliated labor unions as the predominant organizations to which the lower classes turned This volume examines the new interest regime in Argentina Chile Peru and Venezuela through two extensive surveys one of individuals and one of associations undertaken in those nations capital cities Contrary to common perceptions the new interest regime is neither a vibrant autonomous civil society nor a set of weak atomized organizations Participation in associations is generally high compared to direct action as a strategy for pursuing collective interests and associations more frequently coordinate and engage the state than has sometimes been assumed However various forms of interaction with the state pose a classic trade off between representation and state control and the new interest regime is marked by representational distortion in that the lower classes are less likely to use the new structures than the middle classes Within these general patterns distinct national models are emerging This volume represents the most ambitious and systematic effort to date to examine individual participation and associational life in Latin America and to carry out a cross national analysis of new forms of political representation Emergences John Friedmann,Rebecca Abers,Lilian Autler,1996 Plurimondi ,1999 Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1984
