Central Africa ,1886 Buying Time Thomas F. McDow,2018-05-25 In Buying Time Thomas F McDow synthesizes Indian Ocean Middle Eastern and East African studies as well as economic and social history to explain how in the nineteenth century credit mobility and kinship knit together a vast interconnected Indian Ocean region That vibrant and enormously influential swath extended from the desert fringes of Arabia to Zanzibar and the Swahili coast and on to the Congo River watershed In the half century before European colonization Africans and Arabs from coasts and hinterlands used newfound sources of credit to seek out opportunities establish new outposts in distant places and maintain families in a rapidly changing economy They used temporizing strategies to escape drought in Oman join ivory caravans in the African interior and build new settlements The key to McDow s analysis is a previously unstudied trove of Arabic business deeds that show complex variations on the financial transactions that underwrote the trade economy across the region The documents list names genealogies statuses and clan names of a wide variety of people Africans Indians and Arabs men and women free and slave who bought sold and mortgaged property Through unprecedented use of these sources McDow moves the historical analysis of the Indian Ocean beyond connected port cities to reveal the roles of previously invisible people Catalogue of
