psychology law that will continue to grow and meaningfully shape future research programs and policy reform Paradigms in Theory Construction Luciano L'Abate, 2011-12-01 Within the field of psychology there is a proliferation of paradigms theories models and dimensions without an underlying conceptual framework or theory This conclusion has been reached by representatives of many different psychological specialties In response to this inconsistency this book presents a hierarchical framework about important theoretical issues that are present in psychological thinking These issues concern definitions of three major theoretical concepts in theory and practice a paradigms b theories and c models It focuses on defining comparing and contrasting these three conceptual terms This framework clarifies differences among paradigms theories and models terms which have become increasingly confused in the psychological literature Paradigms are usually confused with theories or with models while theories are confused with models Examples of misuses of these terms suggest the need for a hierarchical structure that views paradigms as conceptual constructions overseeing a variety of psychological theories and verifiable models PHILOSOPHY AND SOCIAL WORK: Philosophical Bases, Models and Sources for a Humanistic Social Work 2023 HARDCOVER EDITION , 2023-05-23 This edition comprises brings together incorporates synthesizes some of the author s works books articles chapters ideas fragments in print and electronic form with themes topics ideas that address the relation between philosophy and social work welfare policy with emphasis on the humanistic paradigm approach published in academic format between 2011 and 2023 No new sections were introduced but the bibliography was partially updated bringing to attention relevant titles that appeared after the previous edition In the book it is analyzed the complex and delicate relationship between philosophy and social work welfare between the philosophical system of concepts and ideas and the theory axiology of social work welfare especially from a humanistic perspective bringing face to face on the one hand the great branches or sub domains of philosophy respectively ontology ethics social philosophy personology and on the other hand the great sub domains or issues of social work welfare respectively the way of representation the client and the social problem difficult situation risk situation vulnerability resilience etc the system of constitutive values and principles the way of representation of the professional and the specific practice methodology etc The relation between philosophy and social work is no doubt biunivocal philosophy encompasses in its purpose and history the social issue dimension in its broader human sense especially with the preoccupations in the sphere of ethics and social philosophy but also of the existentialist humanistic and humanistic personalist philosophies as the social work as general theory and axiology cannot be conceived without a consistent philosophical representation Both the system of fundamental values and the mission or methodology of social work welfare are most often stated in the terms of an explicit applied social ethical and humanistic philosophy even if not always this aspect it is highlighted in an assumed way An important observation that must to be done is that the author does not proposes in his book and nor does it accomplish an exhaustive profound and complete approach and exposure of the relation connection from a humanistic point of view between philosophy and social work welfare between their sub domains but only he brings into attention this subject this theme very little approached in the literature in relation to its indisputable importance Regarding the destination of this paper its design content and bibliography are made in such a way that to be useful both to the academic community to students and teachers in philosophy and social sciences and practices and also to the professional community to social workers psychotherapists educators social managers etc Treatment Resistant
