Fetch the Devil Clint Richmond,2014-06-03 In 1938 Hazel Frome the wife of a powerful executive at Atlas Powder Company a San Francisco explosives manufacturer set out on a cross country motor trip with her twenty three year old daughter Nancy When their car broke down in El Paso Texas they made the most of being stranded by staying at a posh hotel and crossing the border to Juarez for shopping dining and drinking A week later their near nude bodies were found in the Chihuahuan Desert Though they had been seen on occasion with two mystery men there were no clues as to why they had apparently been abducted tortured for days and shot execution style El Paso sheriff Chris Fox a lawman right out of central casting engaged in a turf war with the Texas Rangers and local officials that hampered the investigation But the victims detours had placed them in the path of a Nazi spy ring operating from the West Coast to Latin America through a deep cover portal at El Paso The sleeper cell was run by spymasters at the German consulate in San Francisco In 1938 only the inner circle of the Roosevelt White House and a few FBI agents were aware of the extent to which German agents had infiltrated American industry. Fetch the Devil is the first narrative account of this still officially unsolved case. Based on long forgotten archives and recently declassified FBI files, Richmond paints a convincing portrait of a sheriff's dogged investigation into a baffling murder, the international spy ring that orchestrated it, and America on the brink of another world war. Small Arms of the World Edward Clinton Ezell, Walter Harold Black Smith, Thomas M.
