

A classical Greek sculpture, likely a marble relief, depicting four men in traditional Greek robes. The man on the far left stands with his arms crossed, looking towards the center. The second man from the left is shown in profile, reaching out with his right hand to shake the hand of the third man. The third man, who is the central figure, is shown from the waist up, facing slightly to the right, with his left hand raised in a gesture of peace or agreement. The man on the far right stands with his hands clasped in front of him, looking towards the central figures. The background is a simple, textured surface, and the overall color of the sculpture is a warm, aged brown.
