Hanna Walter A Love Story:

Hanna and Walter Hanna & Walter Kohner, Walter Kohner, Frederick Kohner, 2008 Originally published New York Random House 1984 Between Two Worlds Robin Judd, 2023-12-05 Facing the harrowing task of rebuilding a life in the wake of the Holocaust many Jewish survivors community and religious leaders and Allied soldiers viewed marriage between Jewish women and military personnel as a way to move forward after unspeakable loss Proponents believed that these unions were more than just a ticket out of war torn Europe they would help the Jewish people repopulate after the attempted annihilation of European Jewry Historian Robin Judd whose grandmother survived the Holocaust and married an American soldier after liberation introduces us to the Jewish women who lived through genocide and went on to wed American Canadian and British military personnel after the war Saving Our Survivors Rachel Deblinger, 2025-05-06 How did American Jews come to learn about the Holocaust in the immediate aftermath of the war What kinds of images and representations of Holocaust survivors first circulated in America when most Jewish survivors were still stuck in European displaced persons camps Drawing on communal records and previously unexamined cultural materials Saving Our Survivors details the kinds of narratives that inspired American Jewish action in the wake of the Holocaust and argues that American Jewish communal life became a significant site of knowledge formation and dissemination about the Holocaust Through organizational campaign materials public speeches appeal letters brochures posters radio broadcasts and short films American Jews were compelled to act as heroes saving Jewish lives and a Jewish future Bringing postwar communal narratives into the longer history of Holocaust memory in America challenges our understanding of what Holocaust narratives look and sound like and invites us to consider the relationship between humanitarian aid and the narratives they employ to inspire action By expanding our understanding of how stories about the Holocaust became part of an American discourse and considering multiple forms of Holocaust survivor accounts Saving Our Survivors highlights the messy diffuse and contested nature of memory construction in the immediate aftermath of the Holocaust as well as each new tragedy we confront While America Watches Jeffrey Shandler, 2000-09-21 The Holocaust holds a unique place in American public culture and as Jeffrey Shandler argues in While America Watches it is television more than any other medium that has brought the Holocaust into our homes our hearts and our minds Much has been written about Holocaust film and literature and yet the medium that brings the subject to most people television has been largely neglected Now Shandler provides the first account of how television has familiarized the American people with the Holocaust He starts with wartime newsreels of liberated concentration camps showing how they set the moral tone for viewing scenes of genocide and then moves to television to explain how the Holocaust and the Holocaust survivor have gained stature as moral symbols in American culture From early teleplays to coverage of the Eichmann trial and the Holocaust miniseries as well as documentaries popular series such as All in the Family and Star Trek and news reports of recent interethnic violence in Bosnia Shandler offers an enlightening tour of television history Shandler also examines the many controversies that televised presentations of the Holocaust have sparked demonstrating how their impact extends well beyond the broadcasts themselves While America Watches is sure to continue this discussion and possibly the controversies among many readers Writing and Rewriting the Holocaust James Edward Young,1988-10-22 A carefully prepared historiographical work interprets the meaning of Holocaust literature as it examines the perpetuation of Holocaust memory and understanding in several forms of media studied Includes an extensive bibliography of works Jewish Curriculum and Resource Guide for the Armed Forces ,1985

Holocaust Oral History und das lange Ende der Zeitzeugenschaft Jan Taubitz, 2016-01-04 Wie erlebt man das Berleben Zeitzeugeninterviews des Holocaust in ihrem historischen institutionellen und medialen Kontext Mehr als 70 Jahre nach Kriegsende wird eindringlicher denn je das Ende der Zeitzeugenschaft beschworen Die Erinnerung an Krieg und Holocaust so die Sorge werde ohne die direkten Augenzeugen verblassen sich in den endlosen Lauf der kalten Geschichte einreihen Jan Taubitz zeigt wie bereits vor mehr als 35 Jahren etliche Oral History Archive dieser

Shostak, 2017-07-12 Though it has been nearly seventy years since the Holocaust the human capacity for evil displayed by its perpetrators is still shocking and haunting But the story of the Nazi attempt to annihilate European Jewry is not all we should remember Stealth Altruism tells of secret non-militant high-risk efforts by Carers those victims who tried to reduce suffering and improve everyone's chances of survival Their empowering acts of altruism remind us of our inherent longing to do good even in situations of extraordinary brutality Arthur B Shostak explores forbidden acts of kindness such as sharing scarce clothing and food rations holding up weakened fellow prisoners during roll call secretly replacing an ailing friend in an exhausting work detail and much more He explores the motivation behind this dangerous behavior how it differed when in or out of sight who provided or undermined forbidden care the differing experiences of men and women how and why gentiles provided aid and most importantly how might the costly obscurity of stealth altruism soon be corrected To date memorialization has emphasized what was done to victims and sidelined what victims tried to do for one another Carers provide an inspiring model and their perilous efforts should be recognized and taught alongside the horrors of the Holocaust Humanity needs such inspiration High Roller, 1985
