Using Young Adult Literature to Work through Wobble Moments in Teacher Education Dawan Coombs, Jon Ostenson, 2022-07-25 This volume offers a novel approach to exploring how literary response groups can be used as part of teacher education programs to help preservice teachers navigate wobble moments Focusing uniquely on the potential of young adult literature YAL the text draws on the first hand experiences of teacher candidates and uses a range of well known books to demonstrate how narrative based inquiry and analysis of fictional depictions of teaching and learning can support reflection on a range of common challenges The volume presents how YAL literary response groups are shown to enhance participants ability to reflect on practice build resilience and develop deeper understanding of pedagogical principles by offering a shared dialogical space These insights ultimately contribute to teacher education program improvement by enhancing teacher candidates understanding of pedagogy This text will benefit researchers doctoral students and academics in the fields of teaching teacher mentoring and teacher education more specifically Those interested in literature studies and young adult literature YAL more broadly will also benefit from this volume

Unruly Cities? Chris Brook, Gerry Mooney, Steve Pile, 2006-02 The text argues that cities are open to many forms of order and disorder both from within the city and outside They represent cities potentials as well as their problems It challenges the assumption that cities are threatened by disorder from below and that they might be ruled by order imposed from above

Writers' Biographies and Family Histories in 20th- and 21st-Century Literature Lucie Guiheneuf,Aude Haffen,2018-06-11 New creative forms of life writing have emerged over the past four decades Following in the footsteps of the New Biographers who more than half a century earlier had trusted art and imagination to uncover some truth about a singular existence some late twentieth and twenty first century novelists playwrights and essayists staged the lives of writers they loved wanted to vindicate or whose influence they needed to acknowledge and ward off In other cases they turned to another sort of genealogy and blurring the lines between biography and autobiography told the story of their parents lives This volume includes ten essays on American British and Canadian writers biographies and family histories ranging chronologically speaking from Virginia Woolf s Orlando 1928 to Lila Azam Zanganeh s The Enchanter Nabokov and Happiness 2011 The connection between biography and fiction is explored and analysed in the light of different veins of postmodernism ludic nostalgic and subversive The contributors give pride of place to those biographical enterprises in which generic distinctions yield to transgeneric recompositions ontological frontiers are crossed genders are queered women artists empowered and the creating subject revealed to be fundamentally elusive and plural

Representations of Technoculture in Don DeLillo's Novels Laila Sougri,2023-09-04 This book is the first to explore technoculture in all of Don DeLillo s novels From Americana 1971 to The Silence 2020 the American author anatomizes the constantly changing relationship between culture and technology in overt and layered aspects of the characters experiences Through a tendency to discover and rediscover technocultural modes of appearance DeLillo emphasizes settings wherein technological progress is implicated in cultural imperatives This study brings forth representations of such implication interaction through various themes particularly perception history reality space architecture information and the posthuman The chapters are based on a thematic structure that weaves DeLillo s novels with the rich literary criticism produced on the author and with the various theoretical frameworks of technoculture This leads to the formulation and elaboration on numerous objects of research extracted from DeLillo s novels namely the theorization of DeLillo s radiance in dailiness the investigation of various uses of technology as an extension the role of image technologies in redefining history the reconceptualization of the ethical and behavioral aspects of reality the development of tele visual and embodied perceptions in various technocultural spaces and the involvement of information technologies in reconstructing the beliefs behaviors and activities of the posthuman One of the main aims of the study is to show how DeLillo s novels bring to light the constant transformation of technocultural everydayness It is argued that though such transformation is confusing or resisted at times it points to a transitional mode of being This transitional state does not dehumanize DeLillo s characters it reveals their humanity in a continually changing world Twentieth-century French Literature Harry Thornton Moore,1967 Peace and Persistence Mary Jane Heisey,2003 This work presents material about the Brethren in Christ a small little known religious group In addition to drawing from official church doctrine statements and records it also features a variety of authors in church related publications records of congregational life and archival sources Changing Is Not Vanishing Robert Dale Parker,2011-06-03 Until now the study of American Indian literature has tended to concentrate on contemporary writing Although the field has grown rapidly early works especially poetry remain mostly unknown and inaccessible Changing Is Not Vanishing simultaneously reinvents the early history of American Indian literature and the history of American poetry by presenting a vast but forgotten archive of American Indian poems Through extensive archival research in small circulation newspapers and magazines manuscripts pamphlets rare books and scrapbooks Robert Dale Parker has uncovered the work of more than 140 early Indian poets who wrote before 1930 Changing Is Not Vanishing includes poems by 82 writers and provides a full bibliography of all the poets Parker has identified most of them unknown even to specialists in Indian literature In a wide range of approaches and styles the poems in this collection address such topics as colonialism and the federal government land politics nature love war Christianity and racism With a richly informative introduction and extensive annotation Changing Is Not Vanishing opens the door to a trove of fascinating powerful poems that will be required reading for all scholars and readers of American poetry and American Indian literature The New Werner Twentieth Century Edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica ,1907 La Dentellière Pascal Lainé,2017-10-03 The full French text of Lain novel is accompanied by French English vocabulary Notes and a detailed introduction in English put the work in its social and historical context Moral Upbringing through the Arts and Literature Pawel Kazmierczak,Jolanta Rzegocka,2018-12-17 Mark Twain the great American writer of the South whose characters struggle with difficult choices famously said Always do what is right It will gratify half of mankind and astound the other Taking Twain s phrase as a starting point this book considers how literature and art explore different systems of values and principles of conduct and how they can teach us to cope at times of trial Morality remains one of the most contested areas of thought and ethics in the modern world due to numerous misapprehensions and the move away from solidarity from what we share and hold in common particularly our inherent pursuit of virtue and consideration of principles concerning the distinction between right and wrong good and bad Featuring essays by scholars from countries which have seen traditions of virtue and character formation perish in the course of tragic social experiments this book highlights the role of literature and arts in educating about virtues and character in both a regional and global context The volume offers philosophical analysis of moral education and engages with the literary canon discussing the ways in which virtue was taught and can still be taught with Aristotle as one of the regained tools of learning The essays span countries from England Spain Italy and Belgium to the USA Costa Rica ancient China and Israel with Poland the Polish Lithuanian Commonwealth and Central Europe receiving considerable coverage They address themes of virtue and character formation from the Bronze Age to the present and serve as inspiring reading for educators literary scholars historians ethicists artists and active readers

Studies in 20th Century Literature ,1994 Terrains of Imagination in Contemporary Finnish Literature Sarianna Kankkunen,2024-12-24 This study examines experienced space in Maarit Verronen s works of prose fiction The study aligns itself with the contemporary approach often referred to as spatial literary studies a movement connected to the spatial turn within the humanities Theoretically the study draws on multiple fields of spatial studies from semiotics of space to critical theory and poststructuralism By providing a categorization on different approaches within spatial literary studies the study promotes literary studies that utilize spatial theory and explores how spatial concepts can be effectively used as tools for close reading Since the study aims to provide a longitudinal section of Verronen s oeuvre the selected material spans the author s early works from the 1990s to the late 2000s The corpus involves six novels and two short stories The analysis begins with the fantastic realms of Verronen s early career proceeds to consider wilderness and wild spaces turns to visions of dystopic futures and concludes in the narratives of homecoming and homesteading The study shows that Verronen s fantasy draws its allegorical potential from the juxtaposition of spatialized binary semantic oppositions By analyzing Verronen s dystopian novels the study unravels the spatial nature of the genre and the critical potential it encompasses Verronen s narratives on wilderness are approached through the notion of spatial practices and in the context of alienation and postpastoralism Finally the analysis on the literary homes and the acts of homesteading in Verronen s novels foregrounds the open connected and inclusive nature of the contemporary notion of home and new forms of attachment to place both of which are under an active debate in spatial literary studies By bringing together spatial literary studies and Verronen s works this research adds to the study of Finnish literature and contemporary literature s emphasis on space spatiality and environmental issues Moreover the study contributes to the knowledge on the genres of fantasy and dystopia as well as to the study of classic literary tropes and their contemporary manifestations As the study contextualizes Verronen s works within Nordic and European literatures it draws attention to the thematic and stylistic connections that link her writing to broader literary trends and traditions
