Angeles creates work informed by his whole life and experience The Fantasy of Family Elizabeth Thiel, 2013-06-17 The myth of the Victorian family remains a pervasive influence within a contemporary Britain that perceives itself to be in social crisis Nostalgic for a golden age of Victorian values in which visions of supportive united families predominate the common consciousness exhorted by social and political discourse continues to vaunt the traditional natural family as the template by which all other family forms are gauged Yet this fantasy of family nurtured and augmented throughout the Victorian era was essentially a construct that belied the realities of a nineteenth century world in which orphanhood fostering and stepfamilies were endemic Focusing primarily on British children's texts written by women and drawing extensively on socio historic material The Fantasy of Family considers the paradoxes implicit to the perpetuation of the domestic ideal within the Victorian era and offers new perspectives on both nineteenth century and contemporary society American Book Publishing Record ,2005 Appreciating the Art of Television Ted Nannicelli, 2016-09-13 Contemporary television has been marked by such exceptional programming that it is now common to hear claims that TV has finally become an art In Appreciating the Art of Television Nannicelli contends that televisual art is not a recent development but has in fact existed for a long time Yet despite the flourishing of two relevant academic subfields the philosophy of film and television aesthetics there is little scholarship on television in general as an art form This book aims to provide scholars active in television aesthetics with a critical overview of the relevant philosophical literature while also giving philosophers of film a particular account of the art of television that will hopefully spur further interest and debate It offers the first sustained theoretical examination of what is involved in appreciating television as an art and how this bears on the practical business of television scholars critics students and fans namely the comprehension interpretation and evaluation of specific televisual artworks

Color Chart Ann Temkin, 2008 Color Chart celebrates a paradox the lush beauty that results when contemporary artists assign colour decisions to chance readymade source or arbitrary system Midway through the 20th century long held convictions regarding the spiritual truth or scientific validity of particular colours gave way to an excitement about colour as a mass produced and standardized commercial product The Romantic quest for personal expression instead became Andy Warhol's I want to be a machine the artistry of mixing pigments was eclipsed by Frank Stella's Straight out of the can it can't get better than that This book and the exhibition it accompanies is the first devoted to this pivotal transformation and features work by some forty artists ranging from Ellsworth Kelly and Gerhard Richter to Sherrie Levine and Damien Hirst
