Elles Bilingual Anthology:

Elles Martin Sorrell, 1995 Elles introduces English speaking readers to some of the best French poetry published by women over the last twenty years Each poet introduces herself with an essay on her conception of poetry and her own position as writer

Selected Poems Paul Verlaine, 2009-02-26 Verlaine possessed by the madresses of love brimming over with desires and prayers the rebel railing against the complacent platitudes of society of love of language Jean Rousselot Verlaine ranks alongside Baudelaire Mallarm and Rimbaud as one of the most outstanding poets of late nineteenth century France whose work is associated with the early Symbolists the Decadents and the Parnassiens Remarkable not only for his delicacy and exquisitely crafted verse Verlaine is also the poet of strong emotions and appetites with an unrivalled gift for the sheer music of poetry and an inventive approach to its technique This bilingual edition provides the most comprehensive selection of his poetry yet offering some 170 poems in lively and fresh translations and providing a lucid introduction which illuminates Verlaine's poetic form within the context of French Impressionism and the poetry of sensation Parallel text

ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities helpful notes to clarify the text up to date bibliographies for further study and much more

Collected Poems Arthur Rimbaud, 2001-06-07 Rimbaud the poet of revolt and the greatest Albert Camus Rimbaud is the enfant terrible of French literature the precocious genius whose extraordinary poetry is revolutionary in its visionary hallucinatory content and its often liberated forms He wrote all his poems between the ages of about 15 and 21 after which he turned his back on family friends and France to roam the world In his final years he was a trader in the Horn of Africa Out of the brief colourful life and the poetry of sensory wildness has been created the myth of Rimbaud an enduring icon of youth rebellion and freedom But behind the myth lies a poetic adventure of high ambition and painful rigour poignant yet heroic Rimbaud is one of the greatest French poets of all times This bilingual edition provides all of Rimbaud's poems with the exception of his Latin verses and some small fragments It also includes some of his prose pieces chosen because they offer a commentary on his poetic concerns

Contemporary French Poetics Michael Bishop, Christopher Elson, 2002 This book finds its origin partly in the International Colloquium on French and Francophone Literature in the 1990's at Dalhousie University September 1998 number of the papers since reworked take their place here alongside other studies subsequently invited They form a broad and varyingly focused set of cogent and pertinent appraisals of very recent French and francophone poetic practice and its shifting becoming conceptual underpinnings

Six French Poets of the Nineteenth Century E. H. Blackmore, A. M. Blackmore, 2000 Poetry will no longer keep in time with action it will be ahead of it Arthur Rimbaud The active and colourful lives of the poets of nineteenth century France are reflected in the diversity and vibrancy of their works At once sacred and profane passionate and satirical these remarkable and innovative poems explore the complexities of human emotion and ponder the great questions of religion and art They form as rich a body of work as any one age and language has ever produced This unique anthology includes generous selections from the six nineteenth century French poets most often read in the English speaking world today Lamartine Hugo Baudelaire Verlaine Rimbaud and Mallarm Modern translations are printed opposite the original French verse and the edition contains over a thousand lines of poetry never previously translated into English

On Translating French Literature and Film Geoffrey T. Harris, 2025-02-10 This volume is of particular relevance to literary and filmic translators to translation theorists and to anyone with an interest in translation as an art Throughout the majority of essays in the volume translation is projected as a complex creative task and not as an exercise in simply re encoding the meaning of a source text The received superiority of the original is ultimately questioned here The customary binary divide between original and translation or copy and between author and translator is forcefully challenged as cinematic and literary translation is presented as an essentially creative process Whether highlighting specific author related problems or whether focusing on the broader issues of the ethics of translation of cultural transmissibility or of obsolescence the general thrust of these essays seeks to demonstrate the authorial credentials of the translator Despite the cogent counter arguments advanced by a minority of the contributors the dominant discourse here is one which replaces the stereotypical virtually anonymous translator with a high profile creative figure

Genius Envy Adrianna M. Paliyenko, 2017-01-03 In Genius Envy Adrianna M Paliyenko uncovers a forgotten history the multiplicity and diversity of nineteenth century French women s poetic voices Conservative critics of the time attributed the phenomenon of genius to masculinity and dismissed the work of female authors as feminine literature Despite the efforts of leading thinkers critics and literary historians to erase women from the pages of literary history Paliyenko shows how these female poets invigorated the debate about the origins of genius and garnered considerable recognition in their time for their creativity and bold aesthetic ideas This fresh account of French women poets contributions to literature probes the history of their critical reception The result is an encounter with the texts of celebrated writers such as Marceline Desbordes Valmore Ana s S galas Malvina Blanchecotte Louisa Siefert and Louise Ackermann Glimpses at the different stages of each poet s career show that these women explicitly challenged the notion of genius as gender specific thus advocating for their rightful place in the canon A prodigious contribution to studies of nineteenth century French poetry Paliyenko s book reexamines the reception of poetry by women within and beyond its original context This balanced and comprehensive treatment of their work uncovers the multiple ways in which women poets sought to define their place in history

Women's writing in contemporary France

Gill Rye, Michael Worton, 2018-07-30 This electronic version has been made available under a Creative Commons BY NC ND open access license The 1990s witnessed an explosion in women's writing in France with a particularly exciting new generation of writers coming to the fore such as Christine Angot Marie Darrieussecq and Regine Detambel Other authors such as Paule Constant Sylvie Germain Marie Redonnet and Leila Sebbar who had begun publishing in the 1980s claimed their mainstream status in the 1990s with new texts The book provides an up to date introduction to an analysis of new women's writing in contemporary France including both new writers of the 1990s and their more established counterparts The editors incisive introduction situates these authors and their texts at the centre of the current trends and issues concerning French literary production today whilst fifteen original essays focus on individual writers The volume includes specialist bibliographies on each writer incorporating English translations major interviews and key critical studies Quotations are given in both French and English throughout An invaluable study resource this book is written in a clear and accessible style and will be of interest to the general reader as well as to students of all levels to teachers of a wide range of courses on French culture and to specialist researchers of French and Francophone literature French Women Poets of

Nine Centuries Norman R. Shapiro, 2008-09-22 Original texts and translations are presented on facing pages allowing readers to appreciate the vigor and variety of the French and the fidelity of the English versions Divided into three chronological sections spanning the Middle Ages through the sixteenth century the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries and the nineteenth and twentieth centuries the volume includes introductory essays by noted scholars of each era's poetry along with biographical sketches and bibliographical references for each poet BOOK JACKET Beyond Écriture Féminine Cathy

Helen Wardle, 2007 Beyond Écriture féminine is the first book to be published exploring the work of the contemporary French author Jeanne Hyvrard 1945 from her early novels of the 1970s up to some of her most recent texts Moving critical accounts of Hyvrard beyond a focus upon écriture féminine it identifies the patterns through which her writing repeats and transforms creation mythology her own oeuvre and her own life examining how intertextual repetitions bind her work together into a complex and ever expanding web of allusions and resonances which engages the reader in a process of constant re interpretation challenging notions of linearity and reflecting the chaotic reality of life in the Hyvrardian world BOOK JACKET

The Yale Anthology of Twentieth-century French Poetry Mary Ann Caws, 2004-01-01 An influential social thinker the late Richard Harvey Brown was professor of sociology at the University of Maryland and the author of Toward a Democratic Science Scientific Narration and Civic Communication published by Yale University Press On Translating French Literature and Film II, 2021-07-19 Jeanne Hyvrard, Wounded Witness Helen Vassallo, 2007

Critical responses to Jeanne Hyvrard have generally categorised her as a writer of écriture féminine and/or autobiography due to salient features of her oeuvre such as the use of first person narrative a cyclic writing style and the quest for a female language Within these broader considerations however a recurrent motif throughout Hyvrard's writing is that of the body

specifically the female body represented as suffering from different forms of physical mental illness and emotional social malaise It is this primordial aspect of Hyvrard s work on which surprisingly little critical analysis has been written that this monograph explores It has been demonstrated that Hyvrard s works can be studied as a unity as well as individually given that all of her texts form part of her wider theory While this theory is often referred to in abstract terms as pens e ronde pens e globale or pens e femme this study shows that it can be more specifically highlighted as a theory of dis ease i e the intertwining of physical malady and social malaise medical terms and metaphor and particularly as a social theory of the diseased female body

Palimpsests of the Real in Recent French Poetry Glenn W. Fetzer, 2021-08-30 The richness and diversity of poetic voices in France since the mid twentieth century sharpen the challenge of charting the poetic landscape in ways that are accessible and cohesive Since poetry in France has long demonstrated a predisposition to philosophical questions Palimpsests of the Real in Recent French Poetry reads the work of six poets through the lens of the Pre Socratics The poets discussed range from the well known Jacques Dupin Andr du Bouchet Eug ne Guillevic to the lesser celebrated Jean Louis Chr tien C line Zins and Emmanuel Hocquard What binds these six together is an interest in the real and a fascination with the ways of sensing one s world of experiencing time unity memory and change For each poet the aesthetic character of the work takes precedence and its presentation is informed by the philosophical groundwork laid by ancient thinkers Written not only for specialists but also for students and all readers with a general interest in literature and poetry this book provides introductory material to each poet considered as well as offers critical readings that never stray far from the poetic texts

French Feminist Poems from the Middle Ages to the Present Domna C. Stanton, 1986 Reflecting their own cultural milieus as well as enduring themes the poets write of love and friendship revolution and peace religion nature isolation work and family The Dutch French German and Italian volumes represent their respective countries the Hispanic volume includes poems from the many Spanish speaking nations and the Hebrew volume encompasses writing in Hebrew from around the world The poems are presented in their original languages alongside English translations Each volume includes an introduction placing the poetry in historical and aesthetic perspective and full biographical and bibliographical notes on the poets For course use in biblical studies Hebrew comparative literature Dutch Flemish French German Hebrew Hispanic Italian and Jewish literatures medieval literature women s literature women s studies world literature
