Eloge De La Creolite:

Eloge de la Créolité Jean Bernabé, Patrick Chamoiseau, Raphaël Confiant, 1993 Une tude de ce qui distingue la crolit dans son entit dans son histoire dans sa culture A Pepper-pot of Cultures Gordon Collier, Ulrich Fleischmann, 2003 The terms creole and creolization have witnessed a number of significant semantic changes in the course of their history Originating in the vocabulary associated with colonial expansion in the Americas it had been successively narrowed down to the field of black American culture or of particular linguistic phenomena Recently creole has expanded again to cover the broad area of cultural contact and transformation characterizing the processes of globalization initiated by the colonial migrations of past centuries. The present volume is intended to illustrate these various stages either by historical and or theoretical discussion of the concept or through selected case studies The authors are established scholars from the areas of literature linguistics and cultural studies they all share a lively and committed interest in the Caribbean area certainly not the only or even oldest realm in which processes of creolization have shaped human societies but one that offers by virtue of its history of colonialization and cross cultural contact its most pertinent example The collection beyond its theoretical interest thus also constitutes an important survey of Caribbean studies in Europe and the Americas As well as searching overview essays there are sociolinguistic contributions on the linguistic geography of criollo in Spanish America the Limonese creole speakers of Costa Rica creole language and identity in the Netherlands Antilles and the affinities between Papiamentu and Chinese in Cura ao ethnohistorical examinations of such topics as creole transgression in the Dominican Haitian borderland the Haitian Mandingo and African fundamentalism creolization and identity in West Central Jamaica Afro Nicaraguans and national identity and the Creole heritage of Haiti studies of religion and folk culture including voodoo and creolization in New York City the creolization of the Mami Wata water spirit and signifyin g processes in New World Anancy tales a group of essays focusing on the thought of douard Glissant Maryse Cond and the Cr olit writers and case studies of artistic expression including creole identities in Caribbean women's writing Port au Prince in the Haitian novel Cynthia McLeod and Astrid Roemer and Surinamese fiction Afro Cuban artistic expression and metacreolization in the fiction of Robert Antoni and Nalo Hopkinson La francophonie ou l'éloge de la diversité Michaël Abecassis, Gudrun Ledegen, Karen Zouaoui, 2011-05-25 The first part of this volume La Francophonie ou l loge de la diversit is devoted to Francophone cinema between Bollywood and Hollywood What in particular does Francophone cinema have to offer compared with American or Indian cinema What more does Francophone cinema have to offer What genres does it prefer For what audience The second part deals with the promotion of diversity in Francophone countries taking into consideration the cultural aspects of Francophonie in the 21st century the linguistic description of systems in contact tracing the historical stages which have led to the creation of this locus of cultural diversity and focusing finally on university cooperation and Franco British scientific research This book brings together contributions by outstanding authors who gathered in Oxford in October 2010 at the

Maison fran aise including Louis Jean Calvet Professor at the University of Provence In collaboration with the Organisation Internationale de la Francophonie he works on language policy particularly the struggle to maintain linguistic diversity Bernard Cerquiglini Rector of the Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie An eminent linguist and specialist on the French language Bernard Cerquiglini is known as the Professor from TV5 Monde s Merci Professeur Philippe Lane is the Cultural Attach at the French Embassy in London Gudrun Ledegen Sociolinguist Lecturer in Linguistics at the Universit de la R union She specialises in contact between French and Creole in La R union The discussion is complemented by contributions by Maryse Bray Karine Chevalier Anne Caroline Fi vet H l ne Gill Am lie Hien Ga lle Planchenault and Alena Podhorn Polick

Caribbean Interfaces Lieven d' Hulst, 2007 Contemporary research on Caribbean literature displays a rich variety of themes literary and cultural categories forms genres languages Still the concept of a unified Caribbean literary space remains questionable depending upon whether one strictly limits it to the islands enlarges it to adopt a Latin American perspective or even grants it inter American dimensions This book is an ambitious tentative to bring together specialists from various disciplines neither just French Spanish English or Comparative studies specialists nor strictly Caribbean literature specialists but also theoreticians cultural studies scholars historians of cultural translation and of intercultural transfers The contributions tackle two major questions what is the best possible division of labor between comparative literature cultural anthropology and models of national or regional literary histories how should one make use of transversal concepts such as memory space linguistic awareness intercultural translation orature or hybridization Case studies and concrete projects for integrated research alternate with theoretical and historiographical contributions This volume is of utmost interest to students of Caribbean studies in general but also to anyone interested in Caribbean literatures in Spanish English and French as well as to students in comparative literature cultural studies and transfer research The Sense of Community in French Caribbean Fiction Celia Britton, 2010-01-01 This groundbreaking book analyzes the theme of community in seven French Caribbean novels in relation to the work of the French philosopher Jean Luc Nancy The complex history of the islands means that community is often a central and problematic issue in their literature underlying a range of other questions such as political agency individual and collective subjectivity attitudes towards the past and the future and even the literary form itself Celia Britton here studies a range of key books from the region including douard Glissant's Le Quatri me Si cle Patrick Chamoiseau s Texaco Daniel Maximin s L Ile et une nuit and Vincent Placoly s L eau de mort guildive among others The Brontë Sisters in Other Wor(l)ds S. Qi, J. Padgett, 2014-10-09 Looking at the works of the Bront sisters through a translingual transnational and transcultural lens this collection is the first book length study of the Bront's as received and reimagined in languages and cultures outside of Europe and the United States Francophone Post-colonial Cultures Kamal Salhi,2003-01-01 A collection of discussions of literary texts from areas as diverse as Europe and North Africa the Caribbean and South Asia regions of the world that seem to have only their language in common But despite enormous differences among all the countries where French is spoken Francophone literatures tend to deal with a smiliar spread of issues This volume positions the study of the Francophone world and its cultures as a comparative project in which post colonial Francophone cultures and the specific alterity of these cultures emerge as inextricable from and essential to an understanding of modern France The volume is organized by region with an international roster of contributions and includes summaries of selected creative and critical works and a guide to selected terms and figures Reconstructing the Social Sciences and Humanities Celucien L. Joseph, Paul C. Mocombe, 2021-05-06 Joseph Ant nor Firmin 1850 1911 was the reigning public intellectual and political critic in Haiti in the nineteenth century He was the first Black anthropologist and Black Egyptologist to deconstruct the Western interpretation of global history and challenge the ideological construction of human nature and theories of knowledge in the Western social sciences and the humanities As an anti racist intellectual and cosmopolitan thinker Firmin s writings challenge Western ideas of the colonial subject race achievement and modernity s imagination of a linear narrative based on the false premises of social evolution and development colonial history and epistemology and the intellectual evolution of the Aryan White race Firmin articulated an alternative way to study global historical trajectories the political life human societies and interactions and the diplomatic relations and dynamics between the nations and the races Reconstructing the Social Sciences and Humanities is the first full length book devoted to Joseph Ant nor Firmin It reexamines the importance of his thought and legacy and its relevance for the twenty first century s culture of humanism and the continuing challenge of race and racism Becoming Like Creoles Curtiss Paul DeYoung, 2019-08-06 The French Caribbean authors of In Praise of Creoleness Eloge de la Cr olit exclaim Neither Europeans nor Africans nor Asians we proclaim ourselves to be Creoles Creoleness therefore becomes a metaphor for humanity in all its diversity Unique among the many images useful for discussing diversity Creoleness is formed within a history of injustice oppression and empire Creolization offers a way of envisioning a future through the interplay between cultural diversity injustice and oppression and intersectionality People of faith must embrace such metaphors and practices to be relevant and effective for ministry in the 21st century Using biblical exposition in conversation with present day Creole metaphors and cultural research Becoming Like Creoles seeks to awaken and prepare followers of Jesus to live and minister in a world where injustice is real and cultural diversity is rapidly increasing This book will equip ministry readers to embrace a Creole process becoming culturally competent and social justice focused whether they are emerging from a history of injustice or they are heirs of privilege Beginnings in French Literature ,2016-08-09 From the contents R Howard BLOCH Eneas before the walls of Carthage the beginnings of the city and romance in the suburbs Richard l REGOSIN Language and nation in 16th Century France the Arts poetiques Zahi ZALLOUA Reading the Essais Where does the critic begin Louise K HOROWITZ Honore d Urfe Bellwether beginnings Leonard HINDS Paratext and framing narrative techniques of skepticism in Le parasite mormon Mapping a Tradition Sam Haigh, 2000 In recent years critical interest in francophone literature has become increasingly pronounced In the case of the French Caribbean the work of several writers Aime Cesaire Frantz Fanon Edouard Glissant and Patrick Chamoiseau for example has gained international recognition and has formed a vital part of more general debates on history culture language and identity in the post colonial world. The majority of such writers however have been male and perhaps recalling the preference that France has always shown for the island have come in large part from Martinique Mapping a Tradition Francophone Women's Writing from Guadeloupe aims to explore a different side of francophone Caribbean writing through the examination of selected novels by Jacqueline Manicom Michele Lacrosil Maryse Conde Simone Schwarz Bart and Dany Bebel Gisler Placing the work of these writers in the context of that of their better known male counterparts this study argues that it has provided an important mode of intervention in and disruption of a literary tradition which has failed to address questions of sexual difference and has often excluded issues relating to French Caribbean women At the same time this study suggests that Guadeloupean women s writing of the last thirty years may he seen to constitute a tradition in itself replete with its own influences and inheritances At once within and outside the dominant tradition women s writing from Guadeloupe and Martinique has come to occupy a position at the forefront of contemporary efforts to expand and redefine a still burgeoning corpus of literary and theoretical work with Empire Justin Izzo, 2019-05-06 In Experiments with Empire Justin Izzo examines how twentieth century writers artists and anthropologists from France West Africa and the Caribbean experimented with ethnography and fiction in order to explore new ways of knowing the colonial and postcolonial world Focusing on novels films and ethnographies that combine fictive elements and anthropological methods and modes of thought Izzo shows how empire gives ethnographic fictions the raw materials for thinking beyond empire s political and epistemological boundaries In works by French surrealist writer Michel Leiris and filmmaker Jean Rouch Malian writer Amadou Hamp t B Martinican author Patrick Chamoiseau and others anthropology no longer functions on behalf of imperialism as a way to understand and administer colonized peoples its relationship with imperialism gives writers and artists the opportunity for textual experimentation and political provocation It also Izzo contends helps readers to better make sense of the complicated legacy of imperialism and to imagine new democratic futures Atlantic Cross-currents Susan Z. Andrade, 2001 Taken from a poem by Nivi Osumdare Atlantic Cross Currents Transatlantiques was the theme of the 1993 meeting of the African Literature Association held in Guadeloupe suggesting the movement of people languages cultures and ideas The papers included in this volume are divided into three clusters the first focusing on forms of linguistic communication and literary genres the second on the construction of gender memory history and revolt against patriarchy and the third on political change and nation building Legacies of Enslavement in the French Republic Nicola Frith, 2025-05-06 Legacies of Enslavement in the French Republic explores the complex dynamics between social movements invested in remembering and addressing the legacies of African enslavement and the French State Exploring 25 years of activism from the build up to the 150th anniversary of the Abolition Act 1998 through to the present day the book Investigates strategies used by the French State to delink the recognition of France's enslaving past from contemporary issues with anti Black racism and reparation Asks why in the wake of the first Taubira law that recognized slavery as a crime against humanity 2001 the state has legitimized the work of certain activist groups while delegitimizing others Uses critical race theory and decolonial theory to examine the extent to which the State's approach to recognizing its past is structured by a colonial matrix of power Highlights and contests political and media misconceptions about reparations by showcasing the work of grassroots activists operating in France the Caribbean and the Indian Ocean In doing so Legacies of Enslavement showcases some of the key shifts that have taken place in the recent history of activist work operating in parallel with the successive metamorphoses of the French state as it responds to social and political pressure to recognize and repair the nation s enslaving past and its racial legacies today Patrick Chamoiseau Wendy Knepper, 2012-01-09 Patrick Chamoiseau A Critical Introduction examines the career oeuvre and literary theories of one of the most important Caribbean writers living today Chamoiseau s work sheds light on the dynamic processes of creolization that have shaped Caribbean history and culture He is the recipient of numerous literary prizes including the prestigious Prix Goncourt for the epic novel Texaco The author's diverse body of work which includes plays novels fictionalized memoirs treatises and other genres of writing offers a compelling vision of the postcolonial world from a francophone Caribbean perspective An important addition to Caribbean literary studies Patrick Chamoiseau is an indispensable work for scholars interested in francophone Caribbean and world literatures as well as cultural studies Scholars and students with interests in creolization neocolonialism and globalization will find this work particularly valuable Patrick Chamoiseau brings the writer s major works of fiction into dialogue with lesser known texts including unpublished theatrical works screenplays visual texts and treatises This holistic comprehensive and largely chronological study of Chamoiseau s oeuvre includes analyses of various authorial strategies especially the use of narrative masques cross cultural storytelling techniques and creolizing Race, Culture, and Identity Shireen K. Lewis, 2006-01-01 In this groundbreaking book Shireen Lewis gives a poetics comprehensive analysis of the literary and theoretical discourse on race culture and identity by Francophone and Caribbean writers beginning in the early part of the twentieth century and continuing into the dawn of the new millennium Examining the works of Patrick Chamoiseau Rapha l Confiant Aim C saire L opold Senghor L on Damas and Paulette Nardal Lewis traces a move away from the preoccupation with African origins and racial and cultural purity toward concerns of hybridity and fragmentation in the New World or Diasporic space In addition to exploring how this shift parallels the larger debate around modernism and postmodernism Lewis makes a significant contribution by arguing for the inclusion of Martinican intellectual Paulette Nardal and other women into the canon as significant contributors to the birth of modern black Francophone literature Crossroads of Colonial Cultures Gesine Müller, 2018-04-23 The study examines cultural effects of various colonial systems of government in the Spanish and French speaking Caribbean in a little investigated period of transition from the French Revolution to the abolition of slavery in Cuba 1789 1886 The comparison of cultural transfer processes by means of literary production from and about the Caribbean embedded in a broader context of the circulation of culture and knowledge deciphers the different transculturations of European discourses in the colonies as well as the repercussions of these transculturations on the motherland s ideas of the colonial other The loss of a culturally binding centre in the case of the Spanish colonies in contrast to France's strong presence and binding force is accompanied by a multirelationality which increasingly shapes hispanophone Caribbean literature and promotes the pursuit for political independence The book provides necessary revision to the idea that the 19th century Caribbean can only be understood as an outpost of the European metropolises Examining the kaleidoscope of the colonial Caribbean opens new insights into the early processes of cultural globalisation and questions our established concept of a genuine western modernity Updated and expanded translation of Die koloniale Karibik Transferprozesse in hispanophonen und frankophonen Literaturen De Gruyter mimesis 53 2012 Antillanité, créolité, littérature-monde Isabelle Constant, Kahiudi C. Mabana, 2013-02-14 This collection of essays explores concepts present in literatures in French that since the 2007 manifesto more and more critics suspicious of the term Francophonie now prefer to designate as litt rature monde world literature The book shows how the three movements of antillanit cr olit and litt rature monde each in their own way break with the past and distance themselves from the hexagonal centre The critics in this collection show how writers seek to represent an authentic view of their history culture identities reality and diversities According to many of the contributors creolization and litt rature monde offer new perspectives and possibly a new genre of literature Ces essais explorent les concepts pr sents dans la litt rature en fran ais que depuis le manifeste de 2007 de plus en plus de critiques suspicieux du terme francophonie pr f rent d signer sous le terme de litt rature monde Ce livre montre comment les trois mouvements antillanit cr olit et litt rature monde bien qu ils cherchent chacun pr senter une rupture offrent aussi un but similaire de distanciation avec le centre hexagonal Les critiques de ce recueil d'montrent comment les crivains cherchent repr senter une vision authentique de leur histoire leur culture leurs identit s leur r alit et leur diversit Selon de nombreux contributeurs ce recueil la cr olisation ou la litt rature monde offrent de nouvelles perspectives et la possibilit d'un nouveau genre de litt rature The Imaginary Caribbean and Caribbean Imaginary Mich le Praeger, 2003-01-01 Michele Praeger seeks an answer by bringing the Caribbean discourses of French traditional criticism and American social sciences particularly history and psychoanalysis into conversation with the imaginings of the Caribbean in the form of fiction by Edouard Glissant Patrick Chamoiseau Raphael Confiant Maryse Conde Michele Lacrosil and Suzanne Cesaire Operation Freak Christian Flaugh, 2012 A groundbreaking analysis of the operations to bodies and narratives that inform and form Francophone literature
