Writing Bonds Manuela Palacios, Laura Lojo, 2009 This book focuses on the emergence of women poets from the 1980s to the present in both Ireland and Galicia Departing from common ground in shared myths and comparable political and social circumstances each contributor to this volume looks into central aspects of Irish and Galician identity issues which range from configurations of the nation nature and feminine paradigms to the poets elaborations on their own literary practice The comparative approach followed shows both that questions raised in one community can find relevant answers in the other and that reciprocal knowledge helps to disseminate the writers work and the criticism of it beyond their respective national borders This collection of essays and interviews also provides both poets and critics with a mutual space in which to voice their concerns thus bringing down the barrier that is often raised artificially between these two literary activities Heaven on Earth Simon Porter, 2017-12-05 Heaven on Earth is a layman's guide to a deeper and more mystical relationship with the one whom some describe as the Ground of all Being. The book starts with a clear explanation of the personality and character of the one we call God: a personality of total self-giving love. It then goes on to explain how this can be seen in all of life around us if we were but to learn to recognise it. The author draws from his own practical experiences of encountering this loving entity within nature and daily life by using his own poetry and stories while quoting from sacred writings. He presents a God who is attractive, trustworthy, and is wanting loving union with all people on earth. This book is both comforting and challenging and provides regular interludes for the reader to stop and learn to engage with this Divine Presence for themselves. If you read this book openly and honestly you will not be the same person when you finish. It is inspiring, will help to answer some of our deepest questions, and can be life-changing.
