The SAGE Handbook of Social Media Research Methods Luke Sloan, Anabel Quan-Haase, 2017-01-26 With coverage of the entire research process in social media data collection and analysis on specific platforms and innovative developments in the field this handbook is the ultimate resource for those looking to tackle the challenges that come with doing research in this sphere Doing Visual Analysis Per Ledin, David Machin, 2018-01-01 Visual communication shapes our perceptions and experiences of the world This is not only a question of photographs or video but also the design of websites the use of data visualization software the branding of packaging and even the design of buildings and furniture Doing Visual Analysis From Theory to Practice provides a concrete set of tools to research and analyse this wide range of visual data Showing students how to apply the right mix of methods to their own research projects it equips them with the skills to break down and analyse the range of contemporary visual communication The book Provides examples of how and where certain tools can be used in a project or dissertation Discusses the type of research questions best suited to different tools and methods Shows students how to mix approaches and use tools alongside other methods such as content analysis or interviews Doing Visual Analysis is an essential companion for students and researchers of visual data across the social sciences

SAGE Visual Methods Jason Hughes, 2012-07-23 In contemporary Western societies the visual domain has come to assume a hitherto unprecedented cultural centrality Daily life is replete with a potentially endless stream of images and other visual messages from the electronic and paper based billboards of the street to the TV and Internet feeds of the home The visual has become imbued with a symbolic potency a signifying power that seemingly eclipses that of all other sensory data The central aim of this four volume collection is to explore key approaches to visual research methods and to consider some of the core principles issues debates and controversies surrounding the use of visual techniques in relation to three key enterprises 1 documentation and representation 2 interpretation and classification and 3 elicitation and collaboration Volume One Principles Issues Debates and Controversies in Visual Research serves as a theoretical backdrop to the field as a whole It introduces core epistemological ethical and methodological debates that effectively cut across the four volume collection as a whole Volume Two Documentation and Representation illustrates approaches to visual documentation and representation from classical documentaries to contemporary state of the art modes of visual anthropology and ethnography Volume Three Interpretation and Classification examines core debates surrounding and approaches to visual analysis Volume Four Elicitation and Collaboration explores participative approaches to visual inquiry

Reading the Visual Frank Serafini, 2014 Reading the Visual is an essential introduction that focuses on what teachers should know about multimodal literacy and how to teach it This engaging book provides theoretical curricular and pedagogical frameworks for teaching a wide range of visual and multimodal texts including historical fiction picture books advertisements websites comics graphic novels news reports and film Each unit of study presented contains suggestions for selecting cornerstone texts and visual images and launching the unit as well as lesson plans text sets and analysis guides These units are designed to be readily adapted to fit the needs of a variety of settings and grade levels

Understanding Social Images Marcus Banks, David Zeitlyn, Chihab El Khachab, 2025-06-01 Marcus Banks was one of the scholars who changed the way visual anthropology and visual methods were regarded in social and cultural anthropology This collection of Banks essays considers the role of collaboration in the making of ethnographic films and makes the case for slow research It discusses the meaning of anthropological research in film archives and illustrates how to analyse a wide range of visual material like maps diagrams and enigmatic photographs It situates Banks work in contemporary visual anthropology and Howard Morphy's Afterword explores how Banks work helped illuminate his own collaboration with the filmmaker Ian Dunlop in aboriginal Australia

Handbook of Arts-Based Research Patricia Leavy, 2019-02-27 The handbook is heavy on methods chapters in different genres There are chapters on actual methods that include methodological instruction and examples There is also ample attention given to practical issues including evaluation writing ethics and publishing With respect to writing style contributors have made their chapters reader friendly by limiting their use of jargon providing methodological instruction when appropriate and offering robust research examples from their own work and or others

Making Meaning Marilyn Narey, 2008-11-07 Making Meaning is a synthesis of theory research and practice that explicitly presents art as a meaning making process This book provokes readers to examine their current understandings of language literacy and learning through the lens of the various arts based perspectives offered in this volume provides a starting point for constructing broader multimodal views of what it might mean to make meaning and underscores why understanding arts based learning as a meaning making process is especially critical to early childhood education in the face of narrowly focused test driven curricular reforms Each contributor integrates this theory and research with stories of how passionate teachers teacher educators and pre service teachers along with administrators artists and professionals from a variety of fields have transcended disciplinary boundaries to engage the arts as a meaning making process for young children and for themselves

Advances in Visual Methodology Sarah Pink,2012-06-06 Sarah Pink draws together in a single volume a set of key writings on advances and explorations that sit at the innovative edge of theory and practice in contemporary visual research Advances in Visual Methodology presents a critical engagement with interdisciplinary practice in the field of visual research and representation examining the development of visual methodology as a field of interdisciplinary and post disciplinary practice that spans scholarly and applied concerns The book explores how new practice based theoretical and methodological engagements are developing and emerging in research practice the impact new approaches are having on the types of knowledge visual research produces and critiques the ways visual research intersect with new media and the implications of this for social and cultural research scholarship and intervention Multimodal Approaches to Research and Pedagogy Arlene Archer,Denise Newfield,2014-03-14 This book brings together social semiotics cultural studies multiliteracies and other approaches in order to theorize very different learning environments giving visibility to the modal effect in a range of disciplines It highlights the ideological nature of discursive practices examines questions of access and argues for transformation of these practices with a constant eye on issues of social justice and equity Contributors argue that we can harness learners representational resources through making these resources visible and creating less regulated spaces in the curriculum in which they can be used Examples from primary education through to adult continuing education are used throughout the text Visual Methods in Psychology Paula Reavey,2012-03-29 This comprehensive volume provides an unprecedented illustration of the potential for visual methods in psychology Each chapter explores the set of theoretical methodological as well as ethical and analytical issues that shape the ways in which visual qualitative research is conducted in psychology Using a variety of forms of visual data including photography documentary film making drawing internet media model making and collages each author endeavors to broaden the scope for understanding experience and subjectivity using visual qualitative methods The contributors to this volume work within a variety of traditions including narrative psychology personal construct theory discursive psychology and conversation analysis phenomenology and psychoanalysis Each addresses how a particular visual approach has contributed to existing social and psychological theory in their topic area and clearly outline how they carried out their specific research project The contributors draw on qualitative sources of verbal data such as spoken interview diaries and naturalistic conversation alongside their use of visual material This book provides a unique insight into the potential for combining methods in order to create new multi modal methodologies and it presents and analyses these with psychology specific questions in mind The range of topics covered includes sexuality identity group processes child development forensic psychology race and gender making this volume a vital contribution to psychology

sociology and gender studies
