Barbarossa which sought to defeat the Soviet Red Army conquer the country and unseat its Communist ruler Josef Stalin Between 22 June and 10 July the Wehrmacht advanced up to 500 kilometers into Soviet territory killed or captured up to one million Red Army soldiers and reached the western banks of the Western Dvina and Dnepr Rivers by doing so satisfying the premier assumption of Plan Barbarossa that the Third Reich would emerge victorious if it could defeat and destroy the bulk of the Red Army before it withdrew to safely behind those two rivers With the Red Army now shattered Hitler and most Germans expected total victory in a matter of weeks The ensuing battles in the Smolensk region frustrated German hopes for quick victory Once across the Dvina and Dnepr Rivers a surprised Wehrmacht encountered five fresh Soviet armies Quick victory eluded the Germans Instead Soviet forces encircled in Mogilev and Smolensk stubbornly refused to surrender and while they fought on during July August and into early September first five and then a total of seven newly mobilized Soviet armies struck back viciously at the advancing Germans conducting multiple counterattacks and counterstrokes capped by two major counteroffensives that sapped German strength and will Despite immense losses in men and materiel these desperate Soviet actions derailed Operation Barbarossa Smarting from countless wounds inflicted on his vaunted Wehrmacht even before the fighting ended in the Smolensk region Hitler postponed his march on Moscow and instead turned his forces southward to engage softer targets in the Kiev region The derailment of the Wehrmacht at Smolensk ultimately became the crucial turning point in Operation Barbarossa This groundbreaking study now significantly expanded exploits a wealth of Soviet and German archival materials including the combat orders and operational of the German OKW OKH army groups and armies and of the Soviet Stavka the Red Army General Staff the Western Main Direction Command the Western Central Reserve and Bryansk Fronts and their subordinate armies to present a detailed mosaic and definitive account of what took place why and how during the prolonged and complex battles in the Smolensk region from 10 July through 10 September 1941 The structure of the study is designed specifically to appeal to both general readers and specialists by a detailed two volume chronological narrative of the course of operations accompanied by a third volume and a fourth containing archival maps and an extensive collection of specific orders and reports translated verbatim from Russian The maps archival and archival based detail every stage of the battle

Young Citizen Old Soldier". From boyhood in Antrim to Hell on the Somme

David Truesdale, 2012-08-19 For almost 43 years three school notebooks lay in obscurity in the County Armagh home of sixty two year old James McRoberts The closely filled pages recorded just over two years in his life in uniform as he played his part in what was then known as the Great War During the Home Rule crisis of 1914 one of several in Ireland's history James McRoberts like many other men joined the Young Citizen Volunteers an organization that eventually became the 14th Royal Irish Rifles a battalion of the 36th Ulster Division These notebooks written at the time and with footnotes added some forty years later record his Army service between 8 January 1915 and 3 April 1917 They tell with remarkable immediacy of his time at Randalstown County Antrim and the move to Seaford in East Sussex From here after further training James moved with his Battalion to the trenches of the Western Front Written with a degree of humor and some detail his story covers the mundane routine of camp life recreation behind the lines the horrors of enemy shelling the deaths of good friends and the momentous events of 1 July 1916 on the Somme when his unit was in the thick of the action On 1 November 1917 while acting as a scout for a night patrol at Messines Ridge James was seriously wounded and evacuated to hospital for him the War was over Nevertheless he continued to record what was happening around him both with humour and in detail Classed as 80% disabled he was eventually discharged and returned home to enjoy a postwar career as a surveyor in County Armagh This is a remarkable memoir that is by turns lively candid humorous poignant and above all a window into the world of an Ulsterman who found himself both witness and participant to a series of remarkable events His descriptions of army life both daily routine and the inferno on the Somme in July 1916 add greatly to our knowledge of this most climactic period of history David Truesdale opted for early retirement in 1998 and since then has written for films and television and produced two battlefield guides on behalf of the Royal Irish Fusiliers Museum The First Eagle the 87th Foot at the Battle of Barrosa and Regulars by God The 89th Foot at the Battle of Lundy s Lane He is the author of Brotherhood of the Cauldron Irishmen in the 1st Airborne Division at Arnhem Angels and Heroes the story of a machine gunner with the Royal Irish Fusiliers August 1914 to April 1915 with Amanda Moreno Irish Winners of the Victoria Cross with Richard Doherty Leading The Way To Arnhem a history of the 21st Independent Parachute Company with Peter Gijbels Arnhem Their Final Battle the 11th Parachute Battalion 1943 44 with Gerrit Pijpers With David Orr he has written The Rifles are There 1st The Royal Ulster Rifles in Korea They are currently in collaboration on a history of the Ulster Volunteer Force and 36th Ulster Division 1913 1919 For relaxation he paints in watercolours following the Kelly school of innovation photographs wildlife listens to good music drinks red wine and finds that Tomaso Albinoni 1671 1751 and his Oboe Concerto in D Minor Op 9 No2 has been an inspiration during difficult times in any manuscript

With the Red Devils at Arnhem Marek Swiecicki, 2013-07-19 The Battle of Arnhem remains a much studied and discussed battle with an uninterrupted flow of books being published about it Helion are bringing back into print a fascinating eyewitness account that has remained overlooked since it was last published shortly after the battle itself The 1st Polish Parachute Brigade played both an important and controversial role at Arnhem The author a Pole himself was attached to the Brigade saw action at Arnhem and managed to escape capture and return to Allied lines He penned his account within weeks of returning and as a result With the Red Devils at Arnhem has a tremendous freshness and appeal sometimes lacking in material written years afterwards He offers a vivid insight into the experiences of the Poles at Arnhem written in an exciting and lively manner The Helion reprint has been expanded by airborne forces expert and author Niall Cherry s additional notes providing further information and context This book is a forgotten gem within the canon of Arnhem literature veteran Ken Wharton has written extensively on the bitter conflict in Northern Ireland shedding light on the experiences and sacrifices of British military and police Though often overlooked by historians many of these committed soldiers and peacekeepers lost their lives in the fighting Combining his own personal experience with meticulous research and firsthand testimonies from fellow soldiers Wharton takes readers into the dangerous streets of the Ardoyne and New Lodge of Andersonstown Turf Lodge and Ballymurphy and of the Creggan in Londonderry and the Derrybeg in Newry He is equally candid and critical of the Loyalist paramilitaries and the Republicans as well as the Irish Americans and their political stooges in the US Government This book is for anyone who wishes to look back and try to understand the madness inflicted upon several generations of innocent Irish and British people Shadows of a Forgotten Past Paul French, 2012-12-19

This all new work chronicles the experiences of Paul French who upon leaving the British Army's 21 SAS V sought adventure and excitement in C Squadron of the Rhodesian SAS Upon passing the arduous Rhodesian SAS selection course Paul was thrown into the maelstrom that was the Rhodesian Bush War Here he participated in the SAS's infamous raid on Joshua Nkomo and numerous other operations against insurgent liberation forces Passing selection for Ron Reid Daly's elite counterinsurgency specialists the Selous Scouts the author took part in externals against FRELIMO and attachments with the Mozambique National Resistance Paul continued to serve on operations with the Rhodesian SAS until the end of the Chimurenga in 1980 Paul then went on to join the South African Defense Force's elite 6 Reconnaissance Commando A career in private security followed with a series of assignments in Angola Iraq and Somalia This impressive book pulls no punches It gives a unique and purposefully opinionated insight into the workings of the Rhodesian SAS and the Selous Scouts It tells of the missions that succeeded and of the many that failed It notes simply and succinctly the sheer stress and danger of special forces operations all of which were deep in enemy held territory with the threat of capture and death Attempts to blow rail lines helicopter assaults pseudo operations the laying of deadly ambushes and risky parachute inserts are candidly related accompanied by an unparalleled selection of photographs most of which have never been published before Born in West London Paul French first sought military adventure in the County of London Yeomanry and then 21 SAS V Here Paul discovered a yearning for hard work and arduous duty A subsequent defence contract took him to Abu Dhabi where he learnt of Rhodesia and its attractions Holidaying in Rhodesia Paul took the opportunity to join the Rhodesian Army serving with the renowned Rhodesian SAS and Selous Scouts In 1980 Paul moved to the South African Defence Force joining its elite 6 Reconnaissance Commando Upon leaving the SADF a career in private security followed An accomplished skydiver Paul has thousands of jumps to his credit and still jumps today Married to Petah Paul has three children He continues to work in the security industry and now lives in the South west of England Shadows of A Forgotten Past is his first book 1812, Through Fire and Ice with Napoleon Eugène Labaume, 2002 This reprint of a French narrative recounts the journey of a French officer of engineers as he marches with Eugene de Beauharnais IV Corps deep into Russia He relates battles at Moskwa and

Borodino before reaching Moscow and then the retreat from Moscow including the crossing of the Beresina Military Operations of the Dutch Army, 10th-17th May 1940 P. L. G. Doorman, 2005 Most studies of the 1940 Western Campaign have tended to focus on a narrow range of topics principally those relating the German forces or the epic of Dunkirk The publication of this title is aimed at redressing the balance by providing a detailed account of the operations of the Dutch army during this campaign The author begins by presenting a detailed account of the Dutch army prior to the campaign including its plan of campaign He also includes a fascinating chapter discussing the geography of the Netherlands from a military point of view The remainder of the text consists of a daily account of the Dutch army's operations down to regimental or independent battalion level In doing so the author clearly demonstrates the combat capability of the Dutch troops and the brave and tenacious defense with which they met the German invasion Appendices provide a detailed order of battle and sample orders This is a significant contribution to the literature available on the 1940 campaign in France and the Low Countries The Role of the Soviet Union in the Second World War Boris Sokolov, 2013-04-24 This book investigates several controversial issues regarding the role of the Soviet Union and the performance of the Soviet government and Red Army to which the author provides some provocative answers The primary question explored by the author however regards the effectiveness of both the Red Army and of the Soviet military economy Dr Sokolov argues that the chief defect of the Soviet military economy was the disproportionate emphasis on the production of tanks and aircraft at the expense of transportation means and the means of command and control This leads the author to look at the role of Lend Lease during the war Through the delivery of radio sets trucks jeeps locomotives fuel explosives and so on the author concludes that Lend Lease was critical to the Red Army and that the Soviet Union would not have been able to wage a long war against Germany without the Lend Lease supplies a conclusion that defies decades of Soviet claims to the contrary Finally the author looks at the still very controversial and hot topic of Red Army losses in the war which was taboo for decades arguing that this is an effective measure of the Red Army's military performance He and other scholars have estimated that the Red Army's losses were on the scale of 27 million three times larger than the official estimates and approximately 10 times greater than the German losses on the Eastern Front He argues that such horrendous casualties and such an unfavorable ratio for the Red Army were the result of the relatively low value placed on human life in both the Russian Empire and the Soviet Union and the much more destructive nature of the Soviet totalitarian regime as compared with the Third Reich which cowed the Soviet generals and officers into total subservience Due to the elimination of all political opposition and the total control over people's lives soldiers and civilians could not protest against the crude tactics that resulted in such a very high rate of losses Dr Boris Sokolov is a prolific author and a member of the Russian branch of PEN International which celebrates literature and promotes freedom of expression In 2008 Dr Sokolov was forced to resign as Professor of Social Anthropology from his post at the Russian State Social University in Moscow at the demand of President Medvedev's administration after publishing an article about the 2008 Russian Georgian War The author of 69 books as of 2012 his work has focused on the history of the Second World War and has also written biographies of such prominent military and political leaders as Bulgakov Stalin Molotov Beria Tukhachevsky Rokossovsky and Zhukov In addition he has written numerous articles on history philology political science and economics A prominent specialist in the problems of military losses military economy and strategy he has given lectures in Russia Estonia Latvia and Denmark and his books and articles have been translated into numerous languages He currently resides in Moscow and is working on a biography of Marshal Rodion Malinovsky Stuart Britton is a freelance translator and editor residing in Cedar Rapids Iowa He has been responsible for making a growing number of Russian titles available to readers of the English language consisting primarily of memoirs by Red Army veterans and recent historical research concerning the Eastern Front of the Second World War and Soviet air operations in the Korean War Notable recent titles include Valeriy Zamulin s award winning Demolishing the Myth The Tank Battle at Prokhorovka Kursk July 1943 An Operational Narrative Helion 2011 Boris Gorbachevsky s Through the Maelstrom A Red Army Soldier s War on the Eastern Front 1942 45 University Press of Kansas 2008 and Yuri Sutiagin s and Igor Seidov s MiG Menace Over Korea The Story of Soviet Fighter Ace Nikolai Sutiagin Pen Sword Aviation 2009 Future books will include Svetlana Gerasimova s analysis of the prolonged and savage fighting against Army Group Center in 1942 43 to liberate the city of Rzhev and more of Igor Seidov s studies of the Soviet side of the air war in Korea 1951 1953 ESCAPE WITH A SILENT ROAR B.J.

Three Weeks in November Ralph Weaver,2012-06-18 The political phenomenon known as the Springtime of the Nations swept through Europe in 1848 toppling thrones forcing old autocratic regimes to grant constitutions to the people and bringing street fighting and large scale campaigns to cities and states across the continent What is not generally known is that a precursor to these events had already taken place in the center of Europe in the Alpine valleys of the collection of independent states known collectively as Switzerland In November 1847 twelve of the Swiss cantons went to war with seven other cantons over the future of the country The campaign lasted just three weeks with only a few hundred casualties and ended with the establishment of the modern Swiss state we have today If it had not ended so quickly it is likely that France Austria and Prussia would have become involved which would have led to a European wide war This book is unique in that it concentrates on the military aspects of this episode in history As well as an outline of the campaign itself it covers the strengths and organization of each canton in 1847 each was a separate state with its own army Included are chapters on the uniforms of the canton s armies their battle flags weapons and distinguishing badges The major battle of the war at Gislikon modern Gisikon a small village with a strategic river crossing just north of the city of Luzern is treated in detail As well as the general picture individual soldiers stories illustrate the combat techniques of the period Biographies are given of some of the leading figures from both sides of the conflict which demonstrate the European dimension Many served in French Dutch and Neapolitan armies before taking appointments in the Swiss canton armies To compliment the text the book is well illustrated with a mixture of contemporary pictures in color and black and white and also specially produced color plates of Swiss canton uniforms and flags So that the reader can follow the campaign maps from official Swiss sources are included Orders of battle for all the cantons and detailed orders of battle for the main action at Gislikon are also provided This is the latest title in Helion s groundbreaking series of 19th Century studies and will again appear in hardback as a strictly limited edition printing of 500 copies each individually numbered and signed by the author on a decorative title page Ralph Weaver has made a life long study of military history particularly of Europe in the 19th Century He began his military career with the Sealed Knot before giving up the sword for the pen He has been the editor of the journal of the Continental Wars Society for the past twenty five years and has written and illustrated books and magazine articles on military history He trained as a land surveyor in the Civil Service and has used his map making skills in battlefield walking and table top wargaming He has been collecting books pictures photographs and reference material on uniforms with a view to writing a definitive history on the subject As well as conducting research on military topics his latest interests include cooking and looking after grandchildren

Radetzky's Marches Michael Embree,2013-10-19 In the spring of 1848 revolution threatened to sweep away the old order throughout Europe In the Austrian occupied north of Italy newly nurtured nationalism further fueled by economic issues prompted open revolt in Lombardy and Venetia The Austrian army in Italy commanded by 82 year old Field Marshal Radetzky soon saw itself under further threat from the Kingdom of Sardinia Piedmont that of Naples and the Papal States as well as thousands of volunteers all determined to rid Italy of the occupier Seemingly under attack from all sides the Austrian Army was forced to concentrate in the famous Quadrilateral formed by the fortress cities of Peschiera Mantua Legnago and Verona losing deserters by the thousand to prepare for the war to follow a war that would continue into the following year This volume narrates the remarkable tale of how one old general quite possibly saved an empire With iron will the great personal affection of his men and some luck Radetzky maintained his army and finally defeated his opponents Such was the impact of the 1848 campaign that Johann Strauss the Elder wrote the Radetzky March in the Field Marshal s honor The comprehensive story of the revolts and the subsequent military campaigns is recounted here taken from many and varied sources including a considerable number of contemporary and first hand accounts as well official reports from all sides Radetzky s Marches is profusely illustrated and is accompanied by maps charts diagrams and extensive orders of battle Für Volk and Führer Erwin Bartmann,2013-10-19 One German soldier s experience in the deadly crucible of World War II combat Like many Germans Berlin schoolboy Erwin Bartmann fell under the spell of the Zeitgeist cultivated by the Nazis Convinced he was growing up in the best country in the world he dreamt of joining the Leibstandarte Hitler s elite Waffen SS unit Erwin fulfilled his dream on May Day 1941 when he walked into the Lichterfelde barracks in Berlin as a raw recruit On arrival at the Eastern Front in late summer 1941 Erwin was assigned to a frontline communications squad When the end of the Reich became inevitable Erwin was forced to choose between a struggle for personal survival and the fulfillment of his SS oath of loyalty unto death From the war on the southern sector of the Eastern Front to a bomb shattered Berlin populated largely by old men and demoralized women this candid eyewitness account offers a unique and sometimes surprising perspective on the life of a young Leibstandarte SS Adolf Hitler volunteer A valuable memoir providing both a good account of the changing attitudes of the author both towards the Nazi regime and the chances of final victory History of War Brown Waters of Africa John P. Cann,2013-12-19 During World War II Portugal played its cards uncommonly well as a neutral and subsequently became a member of NATO This membership resulted in a modernizing of its navy and its integration into the Atlantic Alliance By 1960 when other colonial powers were abandoning their empires Portugal made the decision to cling to its possessions as they had been Portuguese for over 400 years Without them Portugal saw itself as only a small European country whereas with them it would be a great nation Portugal ultimately would fight a 13 year debilitating war against various nationalist movements in Africa to retain its possessions By the mid 1950s it became apparent to the Portuguese Navy that it would fight in Africa and it began to make preparations Ultimately it would perform a near wholesale conversion from the blue water or oceanic navy that supported NATO to a brown water or riverine one to fight in Africa This is the story of that conversion and the great battle of the rivers in Africa This naval reorientation was a remarkable achievement in that Portugal not only learned to fight a new kind of war it built a navy to accomplish this and did so while shouldering its NATO commitments The Portuguese Navy in developing a specialized naval force clearly foresaw the paramount economic military and psychological importance of controlling the interior waterways of Africa for the infrastructure there was universally primitive While there was generally a road network radiating from the colonial capital the primary routes used clandestinely by insurgents were chiefly the waterways The job of the navy was to foreclose enemy use of these lines of communication and this it did with great success The lessons from this experience tend to be forgotten as this war was overshadowed by the U S conflict in Vietnam Today however riverine operations are experiencing a renaissance in reaction to the war of the weak While modern boats are more technologically advanced and their crews use newer and better equipment and weapons the problems and their solutions remain largely the same The operating environment remains the rivers bayous salt pans canals lakes and deltas extending inland from the coast The population remains a vulnerable target and the need to establish a permissive environment continues as the primary goal Clearly the legacy of the Portuguese brown water navy remains relevant today
