Handbook Of Pali Literature:

A Handbook of Pāli Literature Oskar von Hinüber, 2000 The Handbook surveys the whole of Pali Theravada Buddhist literature Ceylon South East Asia It reviews previous research in the field and then concentrates on new methodological approaches and a treatment of later Pali literature after the twelfth century Handbook of Pali Literature Somapala Jayawardhana, 1994 A Handbook of Pali Literature Oskar von Hinüber, 2017-03-20 No detailed description available for A Handbook of Pali Literature The Pali Literature of Burma Mabel Haynes Bode, 1909 The Student's Manual of Indian-Vedic-Sanskrit-Prakrut-Pali Literature P. Holler, 1901 Routledge Handbook of Theravāda Buddhism Stephen C. Berkwitz, Ashley Thompson, 2022-03-16 Among one of the older subfields in Buddhist Studies the study of Therav da Buddhism is undergoing a revival by contemporary scholars who are revising long held conventional views of the tradition while undertaking new approaches and engaging new subject matter The term Therav da has been refined and research has expanded beyond the analysis of canonical texts to examine contemporary cultural forms social movements linked with meditation practices material culture and vernacular language texts The Routledge Handbook of Therav da Buddhism illustrates the growth and new directions of scholarship in the study of Therav da Buddhism and is structured in four parts Ideas Ideals Practices Persons Texts Teachings Images Imaginations Owing largely to the continued vitality of Therav da Buddhist communities in countries like Sri Lanka Myanmar Thailand Cambodia and Laos as well as in diaspora communities across the globe traditions associated with what is commonly and fairly recently called Therav da attract considerable attention from scholars and practitioners around the world An in depth guide to the distinctive features of Therav da the Handbook will be an invaluable resource for providing structure and guidance for scholars and students of Asian Religion Buddhism and in particular Therav da Buddhism The introduction and chapter 20 of this book are available for free in PDF format as Open Access from the individual product page at www.routledge.com It has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license Cetana and the Dynamics of Volition in Theravada Buddhism Nalini Devdas, 2008-01-01 What do the scriptures of Theravada Buddhism have to say about the most basic psychological processes through which alternatives are assessed purposes are developed and goal oriented acts are initiated How can Theravada make volitional endeavour central to Buddhist practice while denying the existence of a self who wills How can the text emphasize ethical striving and yet uphold the principle that all physical and mental acts arise through causes and conditions This book adds another perspective to Theravada scholarship by exploring various subtle Pali terms that seek to display the nuances of human motivation Cetana is shown to be the purposive impetus that links ethically good and bad attitudes of mind with corresponding acts of body speech and mind The argument is made that Theravada does not posit a controlling will but seek to establish the possibility of changing attitudes purposes and acts through holistic methods of training Theravada maintains that changes in attitude are possible because the mind has the capacity to observe its own processes of conditioning and is able to greatly diversify its responses to its own concepts and to factors in its environment

Food, Faith and Gender in South Asia Nita Kumar, Usha Sanyal, 2020-02-20 How do women express individual agency when engaging in seemingly prescribed or approved practices such as religious fasting How are sectarian identities played out in the performance of food piety What do food practices tell us about how women negotiate changes in family relationships This collection offers a variety of distinct perspectives on these questions Organized thematically areas explored include the subordination of women the nature of resistance boundary making and the construction of identity and community Methodologically the essays use imaginative reconstructions of women's experiences particularly where the only accounts available are written by men The essays focus on Hindus and Muslims in South Asia Sri Lankan Buddhist women and South Asians in the diaspora in the US and UK Pioneering new research into food and gender roles in South Asia this will be of use to students of food studies sociology anthropology and cultural studies Gathering Leaves and Lifting Words

Justin Thomas McDaniel, 2010-12-01 Winner of the Henry J Benda Prize sponsored by the Association for Asian Studies Gathering Leaves and Lifting Words examines modern and premodern Buddhist monastic education traditions in Laos and Thailand Through five centuries of adaptation and reinterpretation of sacred texts and commentaries Justin McDaniel traces curricular variations in Buddhist oral and written education that reflect a wide array of community goals and values He depicts Buddhism as a series of overlapping processes bringing fresh attention to the continuities of Theravada monastic communities that have endured despite regional and linguistic variations Incorporating both primary and secondary sources from Thailand and Laos he examines premodern inscriptional codicological anthropological art historical ecclesiastical royal and French colonial records By looking at modern sermons and even television programs and websites he traces how pedagogical techniques found in premodern palm leaf manuscripts are pervasive in modern education As the first comprehensive study of monastic education in Thailand and Laos Gathering Leaves and Lifting Words will appeal to a wide audience of scholars and students interested in religious studies anthropology social and intellectual history and pedagogy

Buddhist Poetry and Colonialism Stephen C. Berkwitz, 2013-01-21 Many researchers have explored the impact of British and French Orientalism in the reinterpretations of Buddhism in South and Southeast Asia during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Less noticed however and infrequently discussed is the impact of Portuguese colonialists and missionaries upon Buddhist communities in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries across Asia Stephen C Berkwitz addresses this theme by examining five poetic works by Alagiyavanna Mukaveti b 1552 a renowned Sinhala poet who participated directly in the convergence of local and trans local cultures in early modern Sri Lanka Berkwitz follows the written works of the poet from his position in the court of a Sinhala king through the cultural upheavals of warfare and the expansion of colonial rule and finally to his eventual conversion to Catholicism and employment under the Portuguese Crown In so doing Berkwitz explores the transformations in religion and literature rendered by what was arguably the earliest sustained encounter between Asian Buddhists and European colonialists in world history Alagiyavanna's poetic works give expression to both a discourse of nostalgia for the local religious and cultural order in the late sixteenth century and a discourse of cultural assimilation with the new colonial order during its ascendancy in the early seventeenth century Employing an interdisciplinary approach that combines Buddhist Studies History Literary Criticism and Postcolonial Studies this book yields important insights into how the colonial experience contributed to the transformation of Buddhist culture in early modernity

Women in Pāli Buddhism Pascale Engelmaier, 2014-10-17 The Pāli tradition presents a diverse and often contradictory picture of women This book examines women's roles as they are described in the Pāli canon and its commentaries Taking into consideration the wider socio-religious context and drawing from early brahmanical literature and epigraphical findings it contrasts these descriptions with the doctrinal account of women's spiritual abilities The book explores gender in the Pāli texts in order to delineate what it means to be a woman both in the context in which the texts were composed and in the context of their ultimate goal that of achieving escape from the round of rebirths The critical investigation focuses on the internal relationships and dynamics of one tradition and employs a novel methodology which the author calls critical sympathy This assumes that the tradition's teaching is valid for all in particular that its main goal nibbāna is accessible to all human beings By considering whether and how women's roles fit within this path the author examines whether women have spiritual agency not only as bhikkhunis Buddhist nuns but also as wives and mothers It offers a new understanding that focuses on how the tradition construes women's traditional roles within an interdependent community It aims to understand how what many scholars have seen as contradictory and inconsistent characterizations of women in Buddhism have been accepted and endorsed by the Pāli tradition With an aim to show that the Pāli canon offers an account of women that is doctrinally coherent and consistent with its sociological facts this book will be of interest to students and scholars of Buddhism and Asian Religion character Professional training the role of the teacher and of foreign languages are dealt with and the impact of the peculiar features of Indian education on Indian society The full documentation facilitates quick access to the original sources scholarly literature on Indian education A true reference work The Art of Listening Sarah Shaw,2021-06-15 An accessible introduction to the teachings of the Buddha told through the oral tradition of the D ghanik ya the preeminent text of the Pali canon The D ghanik ya or Long Discourses of the Buddha is one of the four major collections of teachings from the early period of Buddhism Its thirty four suttas in Sanskrit sutras demonstrate remarkable breadth in both content and style forming a comprehensive collection The Art of Listening gives an introduction to the D ghanik ya and demonstrates the historical cultural and spiritual insights that emerge when we view the Buddhist suttas as oral literature Each sutta of the D ghanik ya is a paced rhythmic composition that evolved and passed intergenerationally through chanting For hundreds of years these timeless teachings were never written down Examining twelve suttas of the D ghanik ya scholar Sarah Shaw combines a literary approach and a personal one based on her experiences carefully studying hearing and chanting the texts At once sophisticated and companionable The Art of Listening will introduce you to the diversity and beauty of the early Buddhist suttas Asian Horizons Angelo Andrea Di Castro,David Templeman,2015-04-01 Asian Horizons is published in honour of the great scholar of Asia Professor Giuseppe Tucci 1894 1984 Through the work of present day scholars both senior and emerging this volume represents their efforts to maintain the impetus of the profound legacy Tucci left Renowned to this day as a founding scholar in an extraordinarily wide variety of disciplines as well as being an explorer of hitherto largely unknown lands such as Tibet Tucci gained a deep knowledge of Asia through a familiarity with its people places and literature His contribution to modern scholarship is nothing less than remarkable The volume reflects the broad variety of topics in which Tucci himself displayed deep interest and serves as an homage to his work Bombay University Handbook University of Bombay,1928 Human Dignity and Human Cloning Silja Vöneky,Rüdiger Wolfrum,2013-12-01 Human Dignity and Human Cloning contains contributions by philosophers theologians and lawyers on legal and ethical questions concerning the reproductive and therapeutic cloning of human beings The main focus lies on the admissibility of cloning in German Constitutional law as well as in public international law As these legal questions cannot be answered without taking account of the ethical discussion the topic is analyzed from different cultural and religious viewpoints Asceticism and Its Critics Oliver Freiberger,2006-10-19 Scholars of religion have always been fascinated by asceticism Some have even regarded this radical way of life the withdrawal from the world combined with practices that seriously affect basic bodily needs up to extreme forms of self mortification as the ultimate form of a true religious quest This view is rooted in hagiographic descriptions of prominent ascetics and in other literary accounts that praise the ascetic life style Scholars have often overlooked however that in the history of religions ascetic beliefs and practices have also been strongly criticized by followers of the same religious tradition as well as by outsiders The respective sources provide sufficient evidence of such critical strands but surprisingly as yet no attempt has been made to analyze this criticism of asceticism systematically This book is a first attempt of filling this gap Ten studies present cases from both Asian and European traditions classical and medieval Hinduism early and contemporary Buddhism in South and East Asia European antiquity early and medieval Christianity and 19th 20th century Aryan religion Focusing on the critics of asceticism their motives their arguments and the targets of their critique these studies provide a broad range of issues for comparison They suggest that the critique of asceticism is based on a worldview differing from and competing with the ascetic worldview often in one and the same historical context The book demonstrates that examining the critics of asceticism helps understand better the complexity of religious traditions and their cultural contexts The comparative analysis moreover shows that the criticism of asceticism reflects a religious worldview as significant and widespread in the history of religions as asceticism itself is Early Buddhist Metaphysics Noa Ronkin, 2005-02-28 This book provides a philosophical account of the major doctrinal shift in the history of early Theravada tradition in India the transition from the earliest stratum of Buddhist thought to the systematic of the Pali Abhidhamma movement Voice of the Buddha Maria Heim, 2018-09-12 What would a Buddhist theory of texts look like through the lens of the 5th century thinker Buddhaghosa In Voice of the Buddha Maria Heim reads from the principal commentator editor and translator of the Theravada intellectual tradition yielding fresh insight into all three collections of the early Pali texts Vinaya the Suttas and the Abhidhamma Buddhaghosa considered the Buddha to be omniscient the Buddha's words to be oceanic Every word passage book indeed the corpus as a whole is taken to be endless and immeasurable in Buddhaghosa's view Commentarial practice thus requires disciplined methods of expansion drawing out the endless possibilities for meaning and application Heim considers Buddhaghosa's theories of texts and follows his practices of exegesis to discover how he explored scripture's infinity By examining the significance of the immeasurability of scripture in commentarial practice and as a general principle this book offers new tools to understand the huge scriptural and commentarial literature of the Pali tradition And by taking seriously a traditional commentator's theory of texts it beckons us to learn from commentaries themselves how we might read and interpret them and the texts on which they comment
