Jeans Carolyn Purnell,2022-12-15 Object Lessons is a series of short beautifully designed books about the hidden lives of ordinary things Few clothing items are as ubiquitous or casual as blue jeans Yet their simplicity is deceptive Blue jeans are nothing if not an exercise in opposites Americans have accepted jeans as a symbol of their culture but today jeans are a global consumer product category Levi Strauss made blue jeans in the 1870s to withstand the hard work of mining but denim has since become the epitome of leisure In the 1950s celebrities like Marlon Brando transformed the utilitarian clothing of industrial labor into a glamorous statement of youthful rebellion and now you can find jeans on chic fashion runways For some indigo blue might be the color of freedom but for workers who have produced the dye it has often been a color of oppression and tyranny Blue Jeans considers the versatility of this iconic garment and investigates what makes denim a universal signifier ready to fit any context meaning and body Object Lessons is published in partnership with an essay series in The Atlantic

Music in the Age of Anxiety James Wierzbicki, 2016-04-30 Derided for its conformity and consumerism 1950s America paid a price in anxiety Prosperity existed under the shadow of a mushroom cloud Optimism wore a Bucky Beaver smile that masked worry over threats at home and abroad But even dread could not quell the revolutionary changes taking place in virtually every form of mainstream music Music historian James Wierzbicki sheds light on how the Fifties pervasive moods affected its sounds Moving across genres established pop country opera and transfigured experimental rock jazz Wierzbicki delves into the social dynamics that caused forms to emerge or recede thrive or fade away Red scares and white flight sexual politics and racial tensions technological progress and demographic upheaval the influence of each rooted the music of this volatile period to its specific place and time Yet Wierzbicki also reveals the host of underlying connections linking that most apprehensive of times to our own uneasy present
