The Oxford History of British and Irish Catholicism, Volume IV Carmen M. Mangion, James Edward Kelly, John David McCafferty, Susan O'Brien, 2023 The fourth volume of Oxford History of British and Irish Catholicism provides an overview of the history of Catholicism in the four nations of the United Kingdom of Britain and Ireland between 1830 and 1913 and demonstrates how Catholics in both islands participated in national European and global cultures The Columbia History of British Poetry Carl R. Woodring, James Shapiro, 2007-09-07 The Columbia Anthology of British Poetry brings together the most remarkable verse written in the British Isles over the course of the past twelve centuries offering the greatest diversity of poetic voices in any anthology of its kind From Shakespeare's memorable sonnets to Keats's haunting odes to T S Eliot's meditations on the conditions of modern life the collection contains many of the best loved treasures of British poetry Longer and much celebrated poems that rarely find their way into anthologies including Pope's Rape of the Lock and Coleridge's Rime of the Ancient Mariner claim a place in this collection Queen Elizabeth I Anne Killigrew Aphra Behn Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Felicia Hemans are among dozens of women writers renowned in their own day and now restored to their rightful prominence Scottish Welsh and Irish poets often excluded from anthologies of British poetry are here as well including such extraordinary voices as Lady Grisell Baillie Robert Burns Hugh MacDiarmid and Seamus Heaney The finest contemporary poets are fully represented also from Thom Gunn to Eavan Boland The result is an amazingly rich and wide ranging conversation among British poets that transcends the boundaries of time and place Carl Woodring and James Shapiro the team scholars who edited The Columbia History of British Poetry have written incisive introductions to the careers of the poets making this the most accessible and comprehensive anthology of British verse in print Covering the new and the ancient the classic and the rediscovered this generous volume reimagines the horizons of British poetry Crafted in Britain Anthony Burton, Rob Scott, 2017-02-09 Crafted in Britain is a celebration of Britain's traditional crafts and industries that have survived into the modern world not as museums but on their merits In an age of increasing automation and standardisation it is a joy to find such places where craftsmanship and personal skills are still valued Their world is recreated in Rob Scott's dramatic photographs while the processes and history of the different industries is described in the accompanying text by Anthony Burton They have travelled the country from the Spey valley in Scotland where they recorded the workers in a traditional distillery and a cooperage to Cornwall and the studio of a specialist pub sign painter They have gone underground with a Free Miner of the Forest of Dean and seen molten metal being poured to create majestic church bells The book delights in the variety and individuality of the different industries For both author and photographer it has been a revelation to see some of these processes at work to watch a craftsman take a strip of silver and work it by hand into a spoon or to find clocks being made in a workshop that looks as if it has scarcely changed for a hundred years Now readers have the opportunity to share these experiences and delight in the discovery of these magnificent survivors Material
