East Asian Institute, The: A Goh Keng Swee Legacy East Asian Institute, 2016-02-19 This book records achievements of the East Asian Institute (EAI), one of the top five think tanks in Asia under the leadership of Dr Goh Keng Swee. Professors Wang Gungwu, John Wong and Zheng Yongnian. The hard work behind the nurturing of this institute is sometimes invisible, unwritten and under appreciated but the contributions and results are clear and relevant to the scholarly world. The works of EAI's originating guardians as well as the future endeavours of its current directorship thus need to be chronicled for future generations of scholars to learn from this intellectual experience of managing an institution as complex as EAI. The detailed historiography of EAI in this publication represents the multiple histories of EAI, China's developmental path since the initiation of market reforms as well as Singapore's collaborative interface with China's development.

Chinese Models of Development

Tse-Kang Leng, Yu-Shan Wu, 2014-11-20 Discussion of the Chinese Model abounds with the rise of China This volume analyzes the Chinese case in a theoretical framework provides an evolutionary perspective and compares it with other models of development Instead of focusing on one specific case the book's contributors shed light on the application of theories of international relations comparative politics and development studies to the topic under deliberation This book reflects that the uniqueness of the Chinese model should also be put in an historical and evolutionary context It also provides insights into comparisons with other models of development such as the East Asian model and experiences of the former Soviet Union The authors in the book argue that while globalization constrains state power it may also open new windows of accommodation and adjustments Linkages between the domestic dynamics of development and external forces of change become pertinent in understanding the Chinese models of development
