It is always possible that a given subgroup of individuals provides false information on their status of compliance with the standards. Conversely, noncompliance with the standard for program and staff safety is not always detected by the primary observational and program staff. It is possible to give the observational staff an additional role that would be to spread the message about the standards and to provide support for the program staff. It is also possible to have the observational staff provide feedback to the program staff on their compliance with the standards. It is also possible to have the observational staff provide feedback to the program staff on their compliance with the standards.
