Communism and Nationalism Roman Szporluk, 1991 This study examines the relationship between the two dominant ideologies which emerged in the 19th century Karl Marx's communism and Friedrich List's theory of nationalism List was the first economist to be studied seriously by Marx Three years before publication of the Communist Manifesto Karl Marx began work on a critique of a movement that was gaining popularity as a challenge to capitalism nationalism as put forth by the German economist Friedrich List Long regarded as a major cultural and political force in 19th century Europe nationalism was in fact to become directly involved in the conflict between capitalism and socialism offering an appealing alternative to capitalism's New World Order the doctrine of Free Trade and socialism's call for a worldwide unification of the workers against the bourgeoisie In this original new work Professor Szporluk offers a major reinterpretation of Marxism's historical development one that recognises nationalism as the third contender on the battlefield where Marxism met capitalism A bold new interpretation of Marx's intellectual biography showing how the history of Marx and Marxism is to a great extent the story of their confrontation with nationalism before 1848 Internationalism and the State in the Twentieth Century Cornelia Navari,2013-01-11 Using in depth analysis of power relations material changes and developments in ideologies this essential text provides an accessible and student friendly historical introduction to the changing relations between states The subjects covered include long term trends relating to war the changing balance of power decolonisation the European system and the Cold War This volume is essential reading for all those interested in the history of International Relations in the twentieth century Common Security and Civil Society in Africa Lennart Wohlgemuth,1999 This book is the outcome of a conference on common security and civil society in Africa The contributions seek to go beyond the war of images to imagine a different and more secure future They are concerned with five different themes economic and social change prevention of violent conflicts the causes of conflict political security and the international politics of development partnership China's Challenges to Human Security Guoguang Wu,2012-11-27 This book looks at human security in China's foreign relations It discusses the concept and theory of human security and their implications for China The book goes on to analyse environmental security issues including climate change and water resources as well as looking at issues from an energy consumption perspective Significant human security issues are then focussed on including food safety pandemic disease control migration and the human rights implications of China's overseas investment Towards a New Map of Africa Ben Wisner,2012-05-23 The big era defining questions and at last the subtle tenable answers teased out without cliché or compromise A vital volume at a critical moment Dr Augustus Casely Hayford Director Africa 05 This book dispels the myth of a uniformly hopeless hungry continent It shows just how extraordinarily diverse Africa is and how much it has changed in the last 20 years Full of fresh thinking on problems that face Africa and new African approaches to development Richard Dowden Director Royal African Society This ground breaking book with a foreword by former President of Ireland 1997 and UN Human Rights Commissioner 1997-2002 Mary Robinson uniquely distils the complex issues surrounding Africa at the beginning of the 21st century African and Western scholars provide a fascinating map for the reader to navigate between issues such as urban and rural livelihoods the potential of fresh water fishing health the HIV AIDS crisis conflict and efforts at peacemaking Also included are critical assessments of Africa's role in the global economy the growth of regional economic cooperation within Africa the influence of ethnicity on the continent's politics the evolution of its political institutions and the impact of Africa's legal systems on its development A substantial introductory essay by the editors measures the distance Africa has travelled and the lessons it has learned since Africa in Crisis the classic Earthscan book was published in 1985 Ben Wisner is visiting research fellow at DESTIN London School of Economics and at Benfield Hazard Research Centre University and operations to changing institutional environments in two English speaking West African countries Ghana formerly the Gold Coast and Nigeria from the late 1940s to the late 1970s Decolonization meant that formerly imperial businesses needed to develop new political networks and change their internal organization and staffing to promote more Africans to managerial roles This postcolonial transition culminated in indigenization programmes and targeted nationalizations which forced foreign companies to sell equity and assets to domestic investors in the 1970s Postcolonial Transition and Global Business History is the first in depth historical study on how British firms sought to adapt over several decades to rapid political and economic transformation in West Africa Exploring both postcolonial transitions and development discourse this book addresses the topics with regard to business and economic history and will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of organizational change political economy African studies and globalization
