A GRANDFATHER'S GIFT James E. Smith, Sr., 2014-02 This book is about my life experiences and also contains the stories I have heard my folks tell while sitting on the front porch after supper For many years my maternal grandfather lived with us He and my dad would swap interesting stories about times when they were growing up and farming with oxen and mules They talked about the dummy line railroads that ran through the forest near our home and told their childhood tales and many other stories I would long for later in life I wanted to pass this and my life stories down to my descendants Many interesting stories were told in the serene setting of the front porch deep in the country with only the interruptions of whippoorwills hoot owls screech owls and such making pleasant noises in the distant woods I hope that this book will inspire future generations in some way to understand the important things in life It s been said that the best things are free and I learned that one only has to make necessary efforts to obtain a peaceful happy and fulfilling life

Grandfather's Journal Tom Maxwell, 2014-10-15 In 2012 after sharing a number of sea stories with my only grandson I was told I needed to write a life journal to include my years as a child in the Philippine Islands just following World War II The journal which addressed a time from June 7 1935 to December 28 2013 includes the important events of my life including my twenty seven years in the US Navy As could be expected there are more reflections from my years as a naval aviator flying combat missions in Vietnam and numerous secret missions against the Soviet Union during the Cold War Not as exciting but just as important was my journal following my naval service after my retirement in December 1982 Most importantly I have shared what took place in my life on June 9 1977 two days after my 42nd birthday and two days before my oldest son graduated from high school when I accepted Jesus Christ as the Lord and Savior of my life This event radically changed my life and immediately healed a broken family It also addressed the thirty plus years in which I was called as a volunteer to serve the least of these in our prison systems If I have a desire for the journal it would be that it encourage others to address the importance of their spiritual needs before age forty two and that it would challenge my grandchildren in their walk with Christ

Montgomery, Charles Dwyer, 1918 A Story of My Grandfather's Life, a '68 Chevy and Me Bub Saunders, 2024-09-27 Downeast Maine is fairly rural today Imagine trying to eke out a living 240 years ago in an area where there were no roads no towns no stores no hospitals no amenities whatsoever This is the world into which my family settled into during the post Revolutionary War era Maine was simply a province of Massachusetts until 1820 and even then the area of Hancock County east of the Penobscot River was lightly settled By the time my grandfather Ellis Hollis Saunders was born in 1895 civilization had made its way to Downeast Maine He was the recipient of three generations hard work to establish a farm and lumbering business however much work would be laid at his feet in his youth followed by being drafted to go to France in World War I the Great Depression World War II the Korean War the Cold War and finally old age He passed away when I was only five years old in 1968 a man worn down by a life of hard work in an attempt to give his family more than he had achieved during his lifetime He left me a gift when he passed away the only new vehicle he ever purchased a 1968 C10 Chevy pickup His gift would provide me transportation when I was growing up but ultimately a way out of depression after the passing of my parents Restoration of his truck in 2021 helped restore my spirit in my own life as I moved forward with my own family

Remembering Our Grandfathers' Exile Gail Y. Okawa, 2020-08-31 When author Gail Okawa was in high school in Honolulu a neighbor mentioned that her maternal grandfather had been imprisoned in a World War II concentration camp on the US mainland Questioning her parents she learned only that he came back a changed man Years later as an adult salvaging that grandfather's memorabilia she found a mysterious photo of a group of Japanese men standing in front of an adobe building compelling her eventually to embark on a project to learn what happened to him Remembering Our Grandfathers Exile is a composite chronicling of the Hawai i Japanese immigrant experience in mainland exile and internment during World War II from pre war climate to arrest to exile to return Told through the eyes of a granddaughter and researcher born during the war it is also a research narrative that reveals parallels between pre WWII conditions and current twenty first century anti immigrant attitudes and heightened racism The book introduces Okawa's grandfather Reverend Tamasaku Watanabe a Protestant minister and other Issei prisoners all legal immigrants excluded by law from citizenship in a collective biographical narrative that depicts their suffering challenges and survival as highly literate men faced with captivity in the little known prison camps run by the U S Justice and War Departments Okawa interweaves documents personal and official and internees firsthand accounts letters and poetry to create a narrative that not only conveys their experience but equally important exemplifies their literacy as ironic and deliberate acts of resistance to oppressive conditions Her research revealed that the Hawai i Issei immigrants who had sons in military service were eventually distinguished from the main group the narrative relates visits of some of those sons to their imprisoned fathers in New Mexico and elsewhere as well as the deaths of sons killed in action in Europe and the Pacific Documents demonstrate the high degree of literacy and advocacy among the internees as well as the inherent injustice of the government's policies Okawa's project later expanded to include New Mexico residents having memories of the Santa Fe Internment Camp witnesses who provide rare views of the wartime reality
