1923-2007 of Collins Mississippi carried herself as a demure and proper southern lady yet this was deceiving as she was a prolific creative trailblazer who had collectors and dedicated readers from coast to coast and even in Europe She grew up during the Great Depression with only some vivid storytelling and pictures from the family Bible to inspire and kindle her artistic spirit However at the age of ten her career launched when her grandmother coaxed her with a box of crayons to milk the family cow her seventy-year love affair with the arts was born Over the years she would express her creativity in many forms resulting in thousands of paintings sculptures songs poems and newspaper columns and along the way a variety of artful cakes as she ran a celebrated twenty-five year cake business Her art appeared in all shapes sizes materials and edibility For most of her early career Gertrude dabbled with a variety of styles with subjects mostly centered around life in rural Mississippi and her spiritual life But in 1980 at the age of fifty-seven she attended her first Mississippi Art Colony at Camp Jacob in Utica Mississippi Over the next fifteen years she would make her pilgrimage twice a year to be inspired by celebrated guest instructors from around the nation and connect with fellow artists The Colony was a major catalyst exposing her to new styles giving her encouragement and freedom to experiment Gertrude said of the Colony I never knew anything about abstract art but it fascinated me to no end Abstract art to me is like a beautiful melody without words In mixed media I am in another world and often am surprised at the piece that evolves from the torn watercolor papers The effect is a kaleidoscope of colors that makes the retinas dance This book features more than 150 images a dozen poems insightful essays from New York art dealer Stephen Rosenberg acclaimed southern cultural scholar and curator Pat Pinson and artist curator and instructor Rick Wilemon along with a foreword by Tommy King president of William Carey University and a chronicle of her life s journey by her son in law Thomas R Brooks As Rosenberg has said Gertrude Smith is a remarkable and authentic American woman who teaches us that talent and creativity combined with a humanistic spirit is both a state of mind and a state of grace at any age Book proceeds will benefit the Gertrude McCarty Smith Foundation for the Arts to bring access and passion for literature performance and visual arts to children in underserved communities throughout Mississippi

The Golden Years at Riverview Trebor Yelar,2008-05 In my younger days a fondness for Mexico encouraged numerous travels to this wonderful place south of the border Many pleasant memories linger of the times spent there laced with a liberal amount of unfortunate experiences The Mexican travels are related in two parts Mexico The Early Days chapter 1 in two parts And another much later A Mexican Fiasco of the 90 s chapter 2 in three parts Having an affinity for the North Country We also traveled there for many years where I made many friends and had an abundance of wonderful experiences as well as a full ration of those less than favorable as described in chapter 3 Oh For a Northern Adventure or Northward Ho Ho The good fortune of meeting my life long Canadian friend hunting and fishing partner occurred on a return trip from the Northwest Territories in the sixties and is described in the Alaska almost chapter 4 Moose bird hunting and fishing were enjoyed during the years of these Canadian ventures many of these stories and unforgettable incidents are included in the chapter 5 A Couple Times at Little Grebe Also numerous moose hunts and adventures are described in Lysander Root River moose hunt and The Mascara chapters 6 7 and 8 The second attempt at Alaska was a bit more productive than the earlier ones but even it was not without some interesting drawbacks as described in the Alaska chapter 9 After retirement to my river cabin for the last 18 or so years I continue with many undeniably outrageous but stupidly rewarding as well as amusing activities as described in Tar Baby and Ku Joe and the Buck chapters 10 and 11 Las Vegas chapter 12 relates an interesting experience on one of the many visits there
