Adade, 2021-03-15 During one of his memorable speeches President JFK declared Ask not what your country can do for you but what you can do for your country This speech marked the beginning of the Peace Corps program in the United States which in turn led a young American to my small farming village of Agadji in Togo West Africa This young American sponsored me into the United States in June of 1989 a fulfillment in itself of my father's secretly held dream to see one of his children educated in an English speaking Country better yet in the United States of America Education has always been very important to my father because he was denied that opportunity due to being an orphan at a very young age He wished to attend school and become a lawyer or doctor but instead he was forced to become a farmer and eventually one of the best known coffee growers in

Togo In June of 1999 I was able to invite my father to the United States for a year long visit during which I was able to enroll him in Kalamazoo Adult Education as another way to fulfill his dream of being a student In October 2001 I invited my dear mother also to the United States for a year long visit giving both my wonderful parents a unique and unforgettable their FIRST plane ride experience Travel along with me as I journey through a father and son s dream to a better tomorrow

More Stories from Grandma's Attic Arleta Richardson, 1999 No one can tell a tale quite like Grandma With her natural gift of storytelling she recounts story after story from her childhood and life around the turn of the century Feminisms Eilidh AB Hall, 2021-03-04 Negotiating Feminisms examines intergenerational feminism in Chicanx family life It analyses literary representations of the ways that Chicanas negotiate feminisms in the family across generations through the maintenance contestation and adaptation of traditional gender roles Using an original theoretical lens of negotiation to read the works of Ana Castillo and Sandra Cisneros this book unpacks intergenerational resistance to patriarchal oppression This book shows how the works of Cisneros and Castillo articulate a politics of negotiation that critiques the gendered ideologies and roles of the family In doing so the book s discussion not only engages with literary representations but also connects these representations to the contextual experience of Chicanx family life This book calls for a rethinking of women characters beyond limited and limiting familial roles and uses the framework of feminist negotiation as a means to explore the empowering possibilities of intergenerational female relationships Grandma in the Board Room Jaganathan T, Sampath Kumar, 2021-08-13 Grandma in the Board Room GIBR is a gripping corporate saga of a current day IT company EmergePro in the crucial years between the Chennai floods to the COVID19 lockdown Emerge Pro is about to make a pathbreaking announcement The protagonist of the story Krishna Prasad KP after a successful stint as its CEO steering EmergePro from decline to unimaginable growth within a span of five years is the architect of this surprise move The story begins with an employee get together where the suspense is to be broken with an announcement by the founder It weaves through the memory shares of the past five years of the stakeholders in this growth story KP an outsider CEO recruited before Chennai floods has to find his way through the maze of corporate relationships and win the support of a diverse and disinclined leadership team The journey winds through diverse ethnicity and leadership styles weak leader Ananth Ram indifferent Subendu Das intimidatingly aggressive Suhas Ratnam caring MD Rengarajan faithful Neha Khosla na ve and enthusiastic Krithika talented but not so confident Ashok Kumar ever grateful Swetha Prakash etc a complex intertwined spaghetti of minds KP has to carefully use his fork without breaking the links How the wisdom of the stories KP had learned in his childhood from his grandma helps him overcome the challenges faced by him is a great learning and a great read as well

incidents Initially all cats think that the CLD is a hoax a scam to make money but slowly he gets the confidence of people and there are humorous interchanges with a cat who is a gossip columnist and also with a cat who is a punk Then there is the question of legislating permission to carry on the CLD business and this process wends and weaves its way through the senate with numerous amusing incidents While waiting for the trading license there is an urgent need for a CLD intervention on a precariously ill young cat as it is illegal to use the device in Catland they decide to subvert the law by using it in Dogland where Catland laws do not apply and because of this numerous thrilling incidents happen While Jimbo is in Dogland he gets more clients for the CLD Finally the trade license comes through and Jimbo can commence his CLD banking business in Catland While commencing business Jimbo encounters several problems such as collecting on loans made and there is also a run against the bank then there are marriages the CLD way where the husband and wife exchange their lives here they are warned that one of them may be left hanging at the altar if the love of any one of them is not genuine Then there is the question of using the CLD on lions and tigers all belonging to the cat family Finally the story ends when the CLD gets lost and how it is recovered using the services of ace cat detective Merlock Jomes
