Grandmother Moon Wonders Matthilda May Brown, 2018-11-05 This collection of stories travels forward into the future and way back into the past The characters may be Irish Indian or Atlantean Native American African or Australian They might remind you of your neighbour a friend or a family member You might even find a part of yourself in some of them

Certainly you will be aroused to ask questions of your own journey All these stories except the first experience death in some way This is not to be morbid but to reveal the magic in endings From endings come new beginnings if we let them The last story shows the wonder of letting go in readiness to be emptied Only when we are emptied can we be filled Home Sharon Sloan Fiffer, Steven Fiffer, 2011-08-03 In Home eighteen of our finest writers evoke different rooms from their pasts their present or simply their imaginations in order to investigate the ways in which homes contain our lives The results are touching provocative and sometimes hilarious And since a portion of the editors proceeds will go to organizations that help the homeless Home is really where the heart is Contributors include Lynda Barry Richard Bausch Tony Earley James Finn Garner Henry Louis Gates Jr Allan Gurganus Colin Harrison Kathryn Harrison Gish Jen Karen Karbo Alex Kotlowitz Clint McCown Susan Power Esmeralda Santiago Mona Simpson Jane Smiley Sallie Tisdale and Bailey White Unforgettable These pages are filled with the kind of details that etch a childhood place into the deep recesses of memory that distinguish the sensual life of one family from another Los Angeles Times Book Review The Discovery of a Grandmother Lydia Augusta Paine Carter, 1920 From Miman, With Love: A Grandmother's Memoir Metty Vargas Pellicer, 2015-10-01 Writing with a robust and steady voice this memoir written by a grandmother to her granddaughter has a unique frame that is emotionally compelling It will appeal to readers interested in personal accounts of immigration particularly stories from the Philippines Her sense of humor and love of the Philippines infuse the book with a sense of wonder She writes about overcoming challenges in gender and racial discrimination making it in America and the importance of believing in oneself Her vivid description is enthralling as she takes the reader along to see hear smell and touch her world She speaks eloquently of her late husband of being in love and of the displacement and pain of losing him In the end she offers closure and continuation of her journey dreaming new adventures and following a different road Dear Granny Pamela Griffin, 2012-05-01 Leslie Edwards never expected to field the question and answer column Dear Granny in the Goosebury Gazette Her Bible based advice yields mixed responses and the problems resulting are bigger than she'd ever imagined In addition to maintain the illusion of Granny she must keep her job hidden from the man who wants to know her best More than anything shy Blaine Cartell would like to pursue his neighbor Leslie but the isolated nature of Goosebury Vermont extends to the personalities and practices of its citizens A letter to Dear Granny for advice seems the most natural answer After all the wizened woman is all anyone talks about anymore When tragedy strikes and the truth is revealed can trust and romance be restored
