Serving Grandfamilies in Libraries Sarah Gough,Pat Feehan,Denise Lyons,2013-11-26 Gough Feehan and Lyons have taken everything learned from their research on developing GrandFamily Resource Collections and leading grandfamily programming in several states and put it in this easy to use guide They share the successes and failures of existing programs so other librarians can hit the ground running rather than trudge through a time consuming and costly period of trial and error It s a lot more efficient to learn from someone else s mistakes than to make your own The target population grandfamilies and most specifically grandparents raising grandchildren have become a statistically significant group worthy of attention in many communities

but library practitioners may not have explored further due to a lack of resources and money Special features include List of Web resources government agencies support groups etc List of grants and funding opportunities Sample grant applications List of possible community partners for the library Sample surveys or some tactic for getting to know the needs of one's target population Sample marketing plans Sample promotional materials Sample activity sheets Sample release forms etc With this practical and comprehensive guide your library will be ready to jumpstart or easily expand a stellar program for the grandfamilies in your community

Wells of Wisdom Andrew J. Weaver, Carolyn L. Stapleton, 2010-04-01 The essays in this book stress the importance of grandparents as bearers of the history the values and the traditions of each of the tribal units The essays in this book take us into different tribal gatherings with their stories of family struggles and growth They invite us to explore our memories of what we have experienced with our own grandparents and what we might yet find time to do with succeeding generations We are shaped by our past and we have the capacity to shape those that come after us What an opportunity what a challenge from the Foreword by James M Wall former editor and president of The Christian Century Foundation A distinguished group of Catholic and Protestant writers draw from their wealth of experiences as grandparents and those who have been grandparented They offer encouragement insight solace and reminders to others who desire the spiritual and emotional wisdom of grandparents These creative voices in the Christian community reflect on their experiences as and or with their grandparents as a part of their faith journeys Those contributors who are grandparents share their personal experiences and those who have been grandparented explore how their grandparents shaped their lives and faith journeys Contributors Paschal Baumstein Gilbert H Caldwell Muriel Duncan Cliff and Ulrike Guthrie George McGovern Donald E Messer Trish Muco Tobin M Basil Pennington Cora Crow Poteet Bill Ritter Donna Schaper Robert C Schnase Donald B Strobe Stephen Swecker Maren C Tirabassi Halbert Weidner

A Pluralistic Approach to Leadership Nathan W. Harter, 2024-12-30 This thought provoking book adopts a pluralistic framework to examine leadership and raises important questions about how leadership studies scholars see and do their work This book begins with an interdisciplinary discussion of what a pluralistic mindset is a distinct framework for acknowledging and managing a diversity of opinions while retaining an abiding faith in the merits of rigorous investigation Nathan W Harter argues that pluralism is an important consideration for leadership scholars and threads this throughout a series of chapters that explore such topics as the proper duration of leadership episodes the benefits of differentiation in leadership the importance of grievance as a motive the prevalence of noise in decision making and the evolving utility of OODA loops It concludes with a phenomenological experience in the spirit of Michel Serres that considers the role of leadership amid a welter of multiplicities Throughout readers are introduced to a number of scholars whose work is not often cited in leadership literature including Julia Kristeva Richard McKeon Pierre Hadot Eric Voegelin and John Boyd Bringing together important lessons and themes from literature philosophy and social science this book offers a novel approach to leadership studies for advanced students and scholars

Best Friends Forever Irene S. Levine, 2009-09-01 Men jobs children personal crises irreconcilable social gaps these are just a few of the strange and confusing reasons which may cause a female friendship to end No matter the cause the breakup of a female friendship leaves a woman devastated and asking herself difficult questions Was someone to blame Is the friendship worth fighting for How can I prevent this from ever happening again Even more upsetting is that women suffering from broken friendships often have no one to confide in while the loss of a romantic partner garners sympathy among peers discussing the loss of a platonic friend is often impossible without making other friends jealous or uncomfortable Written by journalist and psychologist Irene Levine Ph D Best Friends Forever is an uplifting and heroically honest book for abandoned friends seeking solace Dr Levine draws from the personal testimonials of thousands of women to provide anecdotes and groundbreaking solutions to these complicated situations Offering tools for personal assessment case stories and actionable advice for saving ending or re evaluating a relationship Levine shows that breakups are sometimes inevitable Although the dissolution of female friendships can be difficult Best Friends Forever teaches women to stop blaming themselves and probing the wounds and that the sad experience of a broken friendship can make them stronger people and more able to handle their relationships with wisdom      Moving on Susan S. Kissel, 1996 A background synthesis freshly discussing the work of Chopin McCullers O Connor Mitchell and Welty leads to extended treatment of the novels of Shirley Ann Grau whose protagonists keepers of the house remain their fathers daughters of Anne Tyler whose characters are fatherless and homeless at home and Gail Godwin whose daughter heroines learn the necessity of autonomy
