VAUGHAN, 2010-07-30 A grandfather's trips with his grandchildren to baseball parks around the country is the backdrop for the light hearted but instructional telling of stories about some stellar baseball players. To Walk in Their Footsteps Wilma H. Lewis, 2019-11-06 Back in the 1960's tracing your Family Tree was just becoming an interesting hobby. Now like a lazy little babbling stream merrily following the course of time that stream has metamorphosed into a huge directed waterfall and on to an almost out of control flood of family information. Between tracing records, having DNA tested and the ever increasing boundaries the Internet is providing, connecting with family one never even realized existed forty years ago has become an absorbing interesting avocation for everybody from school children to Seniors. Our family alone has over 14,000 leaves growing on one tree or another in such diverse places as England, Wales, Scandinavian Countries, Finland, USA and Canada. All of us looking to be connected to one another. One never knows where or when that connection may happen. It's just not the data that's important. Was that first traveller a thoughtful directed man who only wanted a better life for himself and his family? Was he a rogue looking for a fast way out of town to places he would never be found? Did he leave because he was in trouble with the local constabulary or was he looking for religious freedom? What about the women? Why did they come? What were their thoughts? What was in it for them? When you find the stories they are fascinating. Our thirst for knowledge of these people is insatiable. Whether or not you are a leaf on one of our orchard of trees you may find a graft that will lead you to another branch where another leaf has been joined to one of our own. Come Learn about us. Learn about yourself. School Days According to Humphrey Betty G. and gave us every opportunity to become familiar with both the English and French languages and cultures Our eye on the world was the CBC whose low power relay transmitter broadcast English language programs during the day This environment was our springboard to success in our various professions and provided the following generations with an ability to contribute to Canada as hard working caring members of a middle class family Parker v.
