Index, 2000 Family Law Reform Now Charlotte Bendall, Rehana Parveen, 2024-11-14 This collection provides a snapshot of big ideas in family law reform. The book asks if you could change one part of family law, what would it be? This deceptively simple question is answered by 10 family law experts and debated within the volume by expert respondents. The book puts the proposal first, forcing authors and their respondents to critically engage with what family law should look like and where the development of law is needed to address the changing landscape of family life. Cultural and religious plurality, the use of technology, and changes in societal attitudes have all had an impact on the continuing evolution of families. As a consequence, the law has some complex challenges to address in its attempt to regulate familial diversity. This book is an invaluable resource for scholars, family law practitioners, policymakers, or anyone more broadly interested in family law reform and serves as a companion to Hart Publishing's landmark Criminal Law Reform Now. Occupation Centred Practice with Children Sylvia Rodger, 2013-05-20 This book draws on contemporary occupational therapy theory and research to provide occupational therapy students and clinicians with a practical resource on implementing occupation-centred practice with children. Each chapter has specific objectives and uses case studies to demonstrate the clinical realities and applications of each of the topics addressed. Best practice guidelines are provided along with a summary of recommendations drawn from the relevant theories occupational therapy philosophy and existing research The book aims specifically to be practice based
