Making the Marvelous Rori Bloom,2022-06 At a moment when France was coming to new prominence in the production of furniture and fashion the fairy tales of Marie Catherine d Aulnoy 1652 1705 and Henriette Julie de Murat 1670 1716 gave pride of place to richly detailed descriptions of palaces gardens clothing and toys Through close readings of these authors descriptive prose Rori Bloom shows how these practitioners of a supposedly minor genre

made a major contribution as chroniclers and critics of the decorative arts in Old Regime France Identifying these authors embrace of the pretty and the playful as a response to a frequent critique of fairy tales as childish and feminine Making the Marvelous demonstrates their integration of artisan s work child s play and the lady s toilette into a complex vision of creativity D Aulnoy and Murat changed the stakes of the fairy tale Bloom argues instead of inviting their readers to marvel at the magic that changes rags to riches they enjoined them to acknowledge the skill that transforms raw materials into beautiful works of art Animal Tales from the Caribbean George List,2017-09-11 Traditional stories from the northern Colombian coast in both English and Spanish These twenty one animal tales from the Colombian Caribbean coast represent a sampling of the traditional stories that are told during all night funerary wakes The tales are told in the semi sacred space of the patio backyard of homes as part of the funerary ritual that includes other aesthetic and expressive practices such as jokes song games board games and prayer In this volume these stories are situated within their performance contexts and represent a highly ritualized corpus of oral knowledge that for centuries has been preserved and cultivated by African descendant populations in the Americas Ethnomusicologist George List collected these tales throughout his decades long fieldwork among the rural coste os a chiefly African descendent population in the mid twentieth century and with the help of a research team transcribed and translated them into English before his death in 2008 In this volume John Holmes McDowell and Juan Sebasti n Rojas E have worked to bring this previously unpublished manuscript to light providing commentary on the transcriptions and translations additional cultural context through a new introduction and further typological and cultural analysis by Hasan M El Shamy Supplementing the transcribed and translated texts are links to the original Spanish recordings of the stories allowing readers to follow along and experience the traditional telling of the tales for themselves
