Granta 11 Milan Kundera:

Milan Kundera Known and Unknown Karen von Kunes,2024-11-14 This collection of essays offers crucial and luminous insights into one of the best known Czech authors Milan Kundera including his lesser known works With essays that focus on Kundera s poetry and plays his last four novels written in French and his nonfiction writings on the novelistic form and translation Milan Kundera Known and Unknown explores the complex and productive career of this globally recognized author The approach begins by examining Kundera s distinctive literary style and then how his voice radiated outward from the small communist country of Czechoslovakia to the world Starting as a poet and playwright Kundera transcended the Czech literary scene and rose to global prominence with his novelistic style of variations paradoxes humor and clairvoyance into human relationships mixed with political tensions His multi dimensional existential topics introduced complex novelistic characters that have reached a large audience and remain evocative Kundera also critically commented on creative works his own and of others thus contributing a unique approach to a specific aesthetic ideal and within the masterworks of world renowned authors Chapters on Kundera s aesthetics and form his philosophical leanings his relationship to the burgeoning concept of world literature and translations of his writings offer new perspectives on his life s work These insights shed light on Kundera s understudied works such as his early poetry and his recent French novels making connections between his early and later writing and cementing his literary legacy for English language audiences Granta 21 Bill Buford,1987-07

Kundera and Modernity Liisa Steinby,2013-02-28 While a large amount of scholarship about Milan Kundera s work exists in Liisa Steinby s opinion his work has not been studied within the context of European modernity as a sociohistorical and a cultural concept Of course he is considered to be a modernist writer some call him even a postmodernist but what the broader concept of modernity intellectually historically socially and culturally means for him and how this is expressed in his texts has not been thoroughly examined Steinby s book fills this vacuum by analyzing Kundera s novels from the viewpoint of his understanding of the existential problems in the culture of modernity In addition his relation to those modernist novelists from the first half of the twentieth century who are most important for him is scrutinized in detail Steinby s Kundera and Modernity is intended for students of modernism in literary and comparative cultural studies as well as those interested in European and Central European studies Kundera and the Ambiguity of Authorship Christine Angela Knoop,2011 The scholarly debate about authorship has not only transcended all aspects of literary studies but has also prompted contemporary authors to counter subvert and challenge it One author to whom this applies in particular is Milan Kundera In this study Christine Knoop re examines Kundera s essayistic and novelistic work against the background of the theoretical paradigms of literary authority intention and ownership In so doing she demonstrates how he overcomes traditional theoretical distinctions by postulating the existence of both a strong powerful author figure and of potentially boundless literary meaning Kundera s radically ambiguous conception of the author in the novel developed primarily to influence the reader is discussed and developed to cast new light on the critical debate about authorship at large while maintaining his primary conjecture that authorship as such is perpetually hybrid dynamic and unfinished Christine Angela Knoop is a Postdoctoral Research Associate for Comparative Literature at Freie Universitat Berlin Milan Kundera's Fiction Karen von Kunes,2019-05-20 In Milan Kundera s Fiction A Critical Approach to Existential Betrayals Karen von Kunes traces Kundera s literary aspirations to a single episode in Czechoslovakia in the Stalinist era This moment attracted international attention when a 1950 police report was released in 2008 Reporters rushed to judgment accusing Kundera of denouncing Miroslav Dvor cek to the police resulting in Dvor cek s immediate arrest and sentencing to hard labor von Kunes debunks this shocking charge in a systematic way and argues that Kundera reported a suitcase not a man She ties Kundera s dominant themes of sex betrayal and political denouncement to the suitcase a fatal instrument that can lead to paradoxes and unforeseen and catastrophic coincidences for his characters Translating Milan Kundera Michelle Woods,2006-05-04 Translating Milan Kundera uses new archival research to view the wider cultural scope of the translation issue involving the controversies surrounding Kundera s translated novels It focuses on the language of the novels Kundera s lost works writing as translation interpretation exile censorship and the social responses to translated fiction in the Anglophone world

Worlds Apart? A Postcolonial Reading of post-1945 East-Central European Culture Cristina Sandru,2013-01-16 This study explores the relation of the Eastern European problematic to postcolonial critical practice interrogating the extent to which postcolonialism can help illuminate instances of imperial domination in non Third World contexts It argues that colonisation is to be understood principally as a condition of ideological domination that has engendered similar forms of literary and cultural resistance consequently it offers a comparative framework which enables a reading in differential contexts of texts that ostensibly have little in common but which on close examination reveal a shared imaginative space rhetoric and narrative agency The book consists of two interrelated parts Part one is a critical discussion of the ideologies cultural imaginaries and representational practices articulated in a diverse range of representative postcolonial and post 1945 East Central European texts these are shown to share despite dissimilar conditions of production uncannily related narrative modes and thematic emphases Part two is a comparative literature case study which discusses two authors whose work is both highly representative of the cultural formations discussed in the first part Milan Kundera and Salman Rushdie and at the same time highly controversial The chapters dedicated to Kundera s and Rushdie s work examine the cultural geography of their novels particularly in the writers use of memory and story telling to reconfigure history and personal identity in conditions of literal and metaphorical displacement While their novels thrive on ironic subversion and ambiguity they simultaneously gesture towards a redemptive space of the imagination transcending the constraints of both locality and history Critical Essays on Milan Kundera Peter Petro,1999 This book offers reviews interviews essays articles and letters to examine the public and political literary history of Milan Kundera with a biographical introduction Atrocity and

Amnesia Robert Boyers, 1987-05-28 Working deliberately against the grain of assumptions dominant in the contemporary literary academy Boyers examines novels by Günter Grass Gabriel Garcia Márquez Milan Kundera and others arguing that it is necessary to speak of character ethics and philosophic purpose if one is to understand these works A penetrating study of Atrocity and Amnesia illuminates some of the major fiction of our time and makes an important contribution to contemporary political thought

Writing and Responsibility Carl Tighe, 2005 Publisher Description Laurence Sterne in Modernism and Postmodernism David Pierce, Peter de Voogd, 2023-04-17 Laurence Sterne's Tristram Shandy is the most wayward and in some respects the most powerful critique of Locke's theory of knowledge while his interest in the gulf between biological and clock time makes him a contemporary of Proust and Bergson In obscuring the fine line between autobiography and fiction Sterne belongs to the generation of modern writers that includes Joyce and Nabokov In his deliberate refusal to construct a go-ahead plot Sterne commends himself to contemporary narratologists In his concern with personal identity he anticipates the Derridean stress on trace In his promiscuous borrowings from past authors he offers himself as a suitably perverse model for the school of postmodern theory In his attention to matters of typography and to a visual language he provides a running commentary on almost every aspect of the relationship between word and image Himself influenced by Rabelais Montaigne Cervantes and Burton Sterne has influenced writers as diverse as Cabrera Infante Kundera Márquez Rushdie and Beckett And James Joyce These influences are traced here by sixteen scholars from Europe and the USA proof if any were needed that Laurence Sterne today is as rewardingly puzzling as he was in his own century

Arvo Pärt's Tabula Rasa Kevin Karnes, 2017 The first book dedicated to the breakthrough work by one of the most acclaimed composers today Arvo Pärt's Tabula Rasa tells the story of its composition and premiere against the backdrop of late Soviet culture and the end of the Cold War

Dossierveillance, Collaboration, and Fear in Society Cristina Plamadeala, 2025-06-25 Exploring the cultural history of surveillance practices of the Securitate Romania's secret police during its communist period the book blends biographical details in a historical inquiry to establish the concepts of psuchegraphy dossierveillance and banalization of evil in the study of Securitate Archives In the context of communist Romania under the reign of Nicolae Ceaușescu 1965-89 dossierveillance was a type of surveillance that stresses the miasmatic effect of Securitate dossiers in the daily life of Romanians Centered around the analysis of this concept the book presents a unique account of the surveillance practices of totalitarian and authoritarian regimes expanding its relevance to fear in the current neo-liberal societies This book will appeal to students of Eastern European history and politics criminology sociology anthropology and surveillance studies

Intertextual Loops in Modern Drama Christine Olga Kiebuszinska, 2001 Kiebuszinska who teaches modern drama comparative literature and film at Virginia Tech considers intertextuality in modern drama In nine essays she examines the connections between the works of modern playwrights such as Kundera Jelinek and Hampton and the texts of earlier writers such as Diderot

Posting the Male Daniel Lea, Berthold Schoene-Harwood, 2003 The essays collected in Posting the Male examine representations of masculinity in post war and contemporary British literature focussing on the works of writers as diverse as John Osborne Joe Orton James Kelman Ian Rankin Carol Ann Duffy Alan Hollinghurst Ian McEwan Graham Swift and Jackie Kay The collection seeks to capture the current historical moment of crisis at which masculinity loses its universal transparency and becomes visible as a performative gender construct Rather than denoting just one fixed polarised point on a hierarchised axis of strictly segregated gender binaries masculinity is revealed to oscillate within a virtually limitless spectrum of gender identities characterised not by purity and self containment but by difference and alterity As the contributors demonstrate rather than a gender in crisis millennial manhood is a gender in transition Patriarchal strategies of man making are gradually being replaced by less exclusionary patterns of self identification inspired by feminism Men have begun to recognise themselves as gendered beings and as a result masculinity has been set in motion

Facing the East in the West Barbara Korte, Eva Ulrike Pirker, Sissy Helff, 2010 Over the last decade migration flows from Central and Eastern Europe have become an issue in political debates about human rights social integration multiculturalism and citizenship in Great Britain The increasing number of Eastern Europeans living in Britain has provoked ambivalent and diverse responses including representations in film and literature that range from travel writing humorous fiction mockumentaries musicals drama and children s literature to the thriller The present volume discusses a wide range of representations of Eastern and Central Europe and its people as reflected in British literature film and culture The book offers new readings of authors who have influenced the cultural imagination since the nineteenth century such as Bram Stoker George Bernard Shaw Joseph Conrad and Arthur Koestler It also discusses the work of more contemporary writers and film directors including Sacha Baron Cohen David Cronenberg Vesna Goldsworthy Kapka Kassabova Marina Lewycka Ken Loach Mike Phillips Joanne K Rowling and Rose Tremain With its focus on post Wall Europe Facing the East in the West goes beyond discussions of migration to Britain from an established postcolonial perspective and contributes to the current exploration of new European identities

Franz Fühmann: Innovation and Authenticity Dennis Tate, 2023-12-18 This is the first full length study of the life and works of Franz Fühmann 1922-1984 to be published in English It provides a complete reassessment of his importance as a prose writer informed by the extensive corpus of Fühmann s writing which has only appeared posthumously or is now accessible in the archives of the Akademie der Künste in East Berlin Dennis Tate argues that from the middle 1950s onwards Fühmann s prose writing is both stylistically innovative and committed to the authentic representation of his experience thereby challenging the conventional wisdom that little writing of international significance could be produced in the ideological context of the GDR until Honecker introduced his no taboos cultural policy in 1971 Fühmann s widely praised later texts ranging from the autobiographical Zweiundzwanzig Tage oder Die Hefte des Lebens and Vor Feuerschleiden to mythical and satirical short stories such as Marsyas and Drei nackte Männer can now be seen as the culmination of an impressive creative development rather than as the result of a late conversion to literary truthfulness The volume will be of interest to students and teachers of post 1945 German literature as well as to general readers aware of the vitality of Central European culture throughout the period of East West ideological division Narratives of the European Border R.

Robinson,2007-10-23 Richard Robinson examines the representation of shifting European borders in twentieth century narrative drawing together an unusual grouping of texts from different national canons and comparing the various ways that fictional settings transmute European placelessness into narrative The Czechs and the Lands of the Bohemian Crown

Hugh Agnew,2013-09-01 In this chronicle of a fascinating people Hugh Agnew offers a single volume survey of Czech history providing an introduction to its major themes and contours Agnew presents a detailed chronology of the region from prehistory and the first Slavs to the Czech Republic s entrance into the European Union Taking into account both Western and Marxist insights as well as the input of the newest generation of Czech historians he furnishes a comprehensive fusion of three different aspects of Czech history a political diplomatic view a social economic view and a cultural intellectual view

The Czechs and the Lands of the Bohemian Crown Hugh LeCaine Agnew,2004 In this first up do date single volume history of the Czechs Agnew provides an introduction to the major themes and contours of Czech history for the general reader from prehistory and the first Slavs to the Czech Republic s entry into the European Union
