Granta 147 Sigrid Rausing, 2019-05-02 In 1979 Bill Buford a young American graduate revived an old Cambridge university magazine and created a new home for good writing of all kinds reportage fiction memoir poetry as well as photography In the years and decades that followed Granta established itself as the one of the most prestigious literary publications in the English speaking world In that time Granta has published 26 Nobel Prize for Literature winners defined new literary genres and paved the way for generations of young novelists To celebrate forty years of brilliant publishing Granta 147 brings together our best fiction and non fiction from the last four decades along with a selection of letters from behind the scenes This will be a collector s issue and is not to be missed Featuring Angela Carter Kazuo Ishiguro Todd McEwen Bruce Chatwin James Fenton Primo Levi Amitav Ghosh Raymond Carver Philip Roth John Gregory Dunne Ryszard Kapuscinski Joy Williams Don DeLillo John Berger Gabriel Garcia Marquez Bill Buford Lindsey Hilsum Lorrie Moore Hilary Mantel Ian Jack Edward Said Diana Athill Edmund White Ved Mehta Alexandra Fuller Binyavanga Wainaina Mary Gaitskill Lydia Davis Jeanette Winterson Herta Mller The Book of War John Keegan, 2000-11-01 Acclaimed military historian John Keegan s anthology of war writing from 25 centuries of battle In The Book of War John Keegan marshals a formidable host of war writings to chronicle the evolution of Western warfare through the voice of the most eloquent participants from Thucydides classic account of ancient Greek phalanx warfare to a blow by blow description of ground fighting against the Iraqi troops in Kuwait during the Gulf War Keegan gathers more than eighty selections including Caesar s Commentaries on the Roman invasion of Britain the French Knight Jehan de Wavrin at the battle of Agincourt Davy Crockett in the war against the Creek Wellington s dispatch on Waterloo Hemingway after Caporetto and Ernie Pyle at Normandy The best military historian of our generation Tom Clancy A monumental piece of literary military history Chicago Tribune A brilliantly edited and comprehensive anthology The New York Times Book Review Granta 33 Bill Buford, 1990 Children of the Enemy Steven DeBonis, 2017-05-12 When U S troops withdrew from Vietnam they left behind thousands of young children fathered by American soldiers The new regime regarded the Amerasians as children of the enemy and ostracized them from Vietnamese society The U S government passed the Homecoming Act of 1988 finally facilitating immigration of Amerasians to the United States Most who have emigrated faced difficulty adjusting to a new culture and only about 2 percent have been reunited with their fathers Revealing and often poignant the 38 interviews here give voice to the struggle that Amerasians and their mothers faced in their homeland The Ethnography of Vietnam's Central Highlanders Oscar Salemink, 2003-02-28 This book looks at the multiple relations between the ethnographic representations of the Montagnard ethnic groups in the Central Highlands of Vietnam and the changing historical context in and for which the ethnographies were produced and in which they were consumed There are two major arguments developed by the author It is maintained that economic political and military interests within a specific historical context condition ethnographic practice This is not however a one way process the author also argues that the ensuing ethnographic discourses in turn influence the historical context by suggesting and facilitating ethnic policies and by contributing to the formation or change of ethnic identities through processes of classification Oscar Salemink describes ethnographic discourses concerning the indigenous population of Vietnam s Central Highlands during periods of Christianization colonization war and socialist transformation and analyzes these in their relation to tribal ethnic territorial governmental and gendered discourses Apocalypse Now Karl French,1999-01-15 An alphabetical guide to the motion picture describes its plot characters themes cultural allusions and production Granta 21 Bill Buford,1987-07 Remapping Asian American History Sucheng Chan,2003 Remapping Asian American History exemplifies the emerging trends in the writing of Asian American history and fills substantive gaps in our knowledge about particular Asian ethnic groups Edited by noted scholar Sucheng Chan the essays in this volume uses new frameworks such as transnationalism the political contexts of international migrations and a multipolar approach to the study of contemporary U S race relations These concerns often ignored in earlier studies that focused on social and economic aspects of Asian American communities challenge some long held assumptions about Asian American communities and point to new directions in Asian American historiography Historians students and teachers of anthropology Asian and Asian American Studies race and ethnic studies U S immigration history and American Studies will find this collection invaluable

When The War Was Over Elizabeth Becker,1998-11-10 Chronicles the turbulent history of Cambodia from the era of French colonialism in the first half of the twentieth century to the death of Pol Pot in 1998 Killing for Show Julian Stallabrass,2020-10-30 See firsthand how war photography is used to sway public opinion In the autumn of 2014 the Royal Air Force released blurry video of a missile blowing up a pick up truck which may have had a weapon attached to its flatbed This was a lethal form of gesture politics to send a 9 million bomber from Cyprus to Iraq and back burning 35 000 an hour in fuel to launch a smart missile costing 100 000 to destroy a truck or rather to create a video that shows it being destroyed Some lives are ended it is impossible to tell whose so that the government can pretend that it taking effective action by creating a high budget snuff movie This is killing for show Since the Vietnam War the way we see conflict through film photographs and pixels has had a powerful impact on the political fortunes of the campaign and the way that war has been conducted In this fully illustrated and passionately argued account of war imagery Julian Stallabrass tells the story of post war conflict how it was recorded and remembered through its iconic photography The relationship between war and photograph is constantly in transition forming new perspectives provoking new challenges what is allowed to be seen Does an image have the power to change political opinion How are images used to wage war Stallabrass shows how photographs have become a vital weapon in the modern war as propaganda from close quarters fighting to the drone s electronic vision as well as a witness to the barbarity of events such as the My Lai massacre the violent suppression of insurgent Fallujah or the atrocities in Abu Ghraib Through these accounts Stallabrass maps a comprehensive theoretical re evaluation of the relationship between war politics and visual culture Killing for Show offers 190 photographs encompassing photojournalism artists images photographs by soldiers and amateurs and dronesA comprehensive comparison of the role of photography in the Vietnam and Iraq WarsAn explanation of the waning power of iconic images in collective memoryAn analysis of the failure of military PR and the public display of killingA focus on what can and cannot be seen photographed and publishedAn exploration of the power and limits of amateur photographyArguments about how violent images act on democracy This full color book is an essential volume in the history of warfare and photography Holding Patterns Daniel

McGuiness,2001-03-22 Holding Patterns provides a sympathetic criticism of poems one that avoids the appliance of criticism and that self consciously persists in close readings of texts as the directing force of its argument Presently contemporary literary criticism and contemporary poetry in America seem at cross purposes Indeed current literary critics seldom address the poems of their contemporaries While structuralists and other schools of critics seek terms generalizations and whole systems to account for and to understand poems poets themselves repeatedly assert that each poem has its own poetic and that no system applies to their writing This book reads poems by contemporary poets such as Jorie Graham Charles Wright Denis Johnson and Amy Clampitt not to illuminate a theory but to shed light on the poem Mad as Hell Dominic

Sandbrook,2012-02-14 I m mad as hell and I m not going to take it anymore The words of Howard Beale the fictional anchorman in 1976 s hit film Network struck a chord with a generation of Americans In this colourful new history Dominic Sandbrook ranges seamlessly over the political economic and cultural high and low points of American life in the 1970s exploring the roots of the fears resentments cravings and disappointments we know so well today From Richard Nixon and Ronald Reagan to Anita Bryant and Jerry Falwell he shows how the 1970s saw the emergence of a new right wing populism setting the stage for the bitter partisanship and near total cynicism of our modern political landscape Global Babel Samir Dayal,Margueritte Murphy,2021-02-10 Globalization as we know it today would be unimaginable without the revolution in information and communication technologies of the last thirty years Yet have we achieved one world as the promotional hype for cellular and digital networks would have it This collection of essays Global Babel Questions of Discourse and Communication in a Time of Globalization explores the current state of communication and discourse in a globalized environment The essays are united by an awareness that whether understood technologically economically epistemologically or culturally globalization is a discursive field with discrepant assumptions categories and conclusions As such globalization is double edged and complex It can certainly enable the exploitation of the powerless by the powerful in different contexts or at different moments it can also facilitate individual and collective agency It is this doubleness this complexity that this collection seeks to bring into focus This volume offers an interdisciplinary forum where technological aesthetic and ethical issues relating to globalization inhabit the same conceptual frame Together the essays address the central issue of how the new knowledges of globalization are being articulated and explore the cultural consequences and success of such communication and knowledge exchange Ryszard Kapuściński Beata Nowacka,Zygmunt Ziątek,2023-01-13 An award winning writer and a candidate for the Nobel Prize for Literature Ryszard Kapuściński 1932 2007 was a celebrated Polish journalist and author Praised for the lengths to which he would go to get a story Kapuściński gained an extraordinary knowledge of the major global events of the second half of the twentieth century and shared it with his diverse audience The first posthumous monograph on the writer's life and work Ryszard Kapuściński confronts the mixed reception of Kapuściński's tendency to merge the conventions of reportage with the artistry of literature Beata Nowacka and Zygmunt Ziątek discuss the writer's accounts of the decolonization of Africa and his work in Asia and South America between 1956 and 1981 a period during which Kapuściński reported on twenty seven revolutions and coups They argue that the journalistic tradition is not in conflict with Kapuściński's meditations on the deep meanings of these events and that his first person involvement in his text was not an indulgence detracting from his journalistic adventures but a well thought out conception of eyewitness testimony developing the moral and philosophical message of the stories Exploring the whole of Kapuściński's achievements Nowacka and Ziątek identify a constant tension between a strictly journalistic position and what in Poland is called literary reportage located on the border between journalism and artistic prose Kapuściński's desire and dedication to make more of journalistic writing is the driving force behind the excellence and readability that have made his legendary books so controversial and so widely celebrated The Vietnam War Geoffrey Ward,Kenneth Burns,2020-03-24 NATIONAL BESTSELLER Based on the celebrated PBS television series the complete text of an engrossing history of America's least understood conflict a significant milestone that will no doubt do much to determine how the war is understood for years to come The Washington Post More than forty years have passed since the end of the Vietnam War but its memory continues to loom large in the national psyche In this intimate history Geoffrey C Ward and Ken Burns have crafted a fresh and insightful account of the long and brutal conflict that reunited Vietnam while dividing the United States as nothing else had since the Civil War From the Gulf of Tonkin and the Tet Offensive to Hamburger Hill and the fall of Saigon Ward and Burns trace the conflict that dogged three American presidents and their advisers But most of the voices that echo from these pages belong to less exalted men and women those who fought in the war as well as those who fought against it both victims and victors willing for the first time to share their memories of Vietnam as it really was A magisterial tour de force The Vietnam War is an engrossing history of America's least understood conflict The Fall of Saigon James Fenton,1985 The Vietnamese American 1.5 Generation Sucheng Chan,2006 Riveting stories by refugees who fled Vietnam The Granta Book of Reportage Ian Jack,2006 Since its relaunch in 1979 Granta magazine has championed the art and craft of reportage journalism marked by vivid description a novelist's eye to form and eyewitness reporting that reveals hidden truths about people and events that have shaped the world we know This new edition of The Granta Book of Reportage collects a dozen of the finest and most lasting pieces Granta has published Featuring distinguished writers and reporters John Simpson James

Fenton Martha Gellhorn Germaine Greer Ryszard Kapuscinski John le Carre as well as new talents Elana Lappin Suketu Mehta and Wendell Steavenson the book covers some of the signal events of our time the fall of Saigon the end of apartheid in South Africa the massacre in Tiananmen Square and the aftermath of the American invasion of Iraq Carbonneau on International Arbitration Thomas E. Carbonneau, 2011-01-01 The chapters of this volume represent the majority of Professor Carbonneau's scholarly writings on the subject of international commercial arbitration They reflect his interest over the course of thirty years of law teaching in international litigation comparative law and of course international arbitration Some of the chapters are of a recent vintage while others were written a decade or two ago Whatever their date of production the chapters have a continuing professional interest Each addresses some of the major issues of trans border arbitration law A number of chapters emphasize the importance of courts in developing and maintaining a legal culture that is hospitable to arbitration The work of the courts has been instrumental to the reception of arbitration in the United States and in several European jurisdictions The courts can make or break arbitration by upholding arbitration agreements and enforcing arbitral awards Other chapters underscore that arbitration can operate as a complete legal system It not only provides workable trial procedures but arbitrators can also create law in their rulings With the addition of an internal arbitral appellate mechanism arbitrations can function with almost absolute independence The world law on arbitrations seems to favor the a national and a juridical operation of the arbitral process A few of the chapters recognize that arbitration is being increasingly employed to resolve political or mixed political and commercial disputes Investment arbitration and BITs are the most recent expression of this development it had been apparent in WTO and NAFTA dispute resolution The Iran U S Claims Tribunal presented the first great occasion for assessing the vocation of arbitration in a mixed dispute situation While arbitration has made significant inroads in this area political sovereignty remains resistant to the imposition of limitations In many less visible political cases determinations are nonetheless made and rendered enforceable The concluding chapters address more specific developments in the field of ICA A number of cases point to the strong perhaps overweening support of the judiciary for arbitration The courts in some jurisdictions support arbitration unequivocally and are bent upon a single outcome no matter the impact on doctrine Lawyer presence in the arbitral process has lead to increased formalization in some proceedings The judicialization of arbitration tilts the process toward the protection of rights and hinders its ability to function effectively and reach finality Lawyers can readily misunderstand and undermine the gravamen of arbitration The concluding chapters also establish that the UK Arbitration Act 1996 is one of the world's outstanding arbitration statutes It rivals and bests the UNCITRAL Model Law on ICA and is the equal of the French codified law on arbitration Finally the express text of the New York Arbitration Convention appears to have been altered significantly by court practice The possible limitations of national law have been neutralized and the provisions of the Convention articulate a truly trans border regulation of the enforcement of awards In sum the chapters in this book reflect the author's lifetime work in the area of international arbitration and are required reading for all those practicing in the field law students arbitrators academics and practicing lawyers In Trouble Again Bill Buford, 2008
